Looking At Iran:

Iran Looking East Annalisa Perteghella, 2020-01-12 In February 2018 anticipating the US withdrawal from the JCPOA Iran's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei declared a policy of preferring East over West thus paving the way for deeper cooperation with Asian powers such as China Russia and India Differently from the Look East policy promoted during the presidency of Ahmadinejad 2005-2013 the current Iranian strategy is not only functional to escape the US led isolation but it rather seems devoted to the consolidation of a block of power which can commit to security and economic schemes in alternative to the Western dominated ones This ISPI report aims to answer few crucial questions Which are the major initiatives promoted within Iran's Look East 2020 strategy To what extent will Tehran succeed in creating a solid Eastern block What will be the influence of the wider geopolitical context And finally what role is left for the EU

Looking East Shirzad Azad, 2020-05-01 Know yourself that's great advice but how do we get there In a lively conversation about the meaning of life three characters explore a wide range of concepts including friendship and love self discipline and self respect trust and justice

Through the Looking Glass Anu Sharma, 2022-01-31 This book analyses Iran's foreign policy in order to better assess its relations with India and the factors that are propelling the two nations closer In a region susceptible to power plays how far can India Iran partnership go This book will be of interest to scholars of International Relations Iranian Politics and Iranian Foreign Policy Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Iran and China Shirzad Azad, 2017-02-09 Because of their historical roles and politico economic significance in contemporary international politics Iran and China have perpetually been in the crosshairs of both policy circles and interested observers in almost every other part of the world Crucial interactions touching upon any aspect of Tehran Beijing ties from diplomatic and military links to economic and cultural connections have especially been in the limelight of such riveting inquisitiveness which has often given rise to a flurry of rash comments sensational claims and impetuous conclusions But a detached probe into critical developments involving Iran and China however elucidates this rather inconvenient eventuality that the relations between the two important countries are not essentially based on pivotal principles and clear cut commitments nor do their ties really rest on tenuous thoughts and flimsy foundations devoid of any common interests in short term or well conceived objectives in long run In the same way the two political systems in Tehran and Beijing may ultimately end up each contributing to a separate pole of power regionally and internationally rather than moving faithfully and steadfastly in lockstep with what it requires them to truly materialize their more recent aspiration and design to move toward achieving a very close strategic partnership

Hijabs, Hitchhiking and Hangovers: Lessons from Iran Rose Carmichael, 2024-03-28 Are you foreign Why would you come to Iran Please tell your friends back home that we are nothing like the Western media These were among the phrases that Rose would hear almost daily in Tehran Hijabs Hitchhiking and Hangovers Lessons from Iran is a coming of age travel adventure At the age of 20 Rose was part of the first group of Cambridge students to study in Iran after Iran re-opened its borders to the West Navigating Foreign Office warnings and nuclear sanctions she was at first a rather reluctant traveller overwhelmed by the culture clashes language barriers and Islamic law Through a collection of short stories Rose tells of how she makes a home in Iran experiences unexpected kindness and gets to grips with the Farsi language At times amusing and at others tragically telling of the harsh realities of Iranian society Hijabs Hitchhiking and Hangovers is a gripping account of self reliance and the often dangerous impact of politics on travel abroad Iran's Relation With Pakistan Dr. Satyanarayan Pattanayak, 2011-08-17 Both Iran and Pakistan represent two distinct patterns of political systems and navigating their relationship is a very difficult task indeed However new developments between them in recent years have created salutary interest among scholars of international relations to focus on their long term relationship This book focuses on various facets of this relationship in a long term perspective by analyzing them under various phases The period from 1947 to 2010 has been chosen to analyse this relationship particularly from an Iranian angle in the context of different ruling systems such as monarchy and theocracy so as to understand the overall state pattern of Iranian foreign policy The book traces the Iranian independence in a modern state system the entire gamut of Iranian foreign policy towards Pakistan followed under a monarchical system an analysis of the relationship of the Islamic Republic of Iran with Pakistan from 1979 to 1989 an in depth study that covers the period from 1990 till the current regime to understand the tone and tenor of a modified theocratic foreign policy pursued under various Iranian Presidents and its approach towards Pakistan and finally leading on to a total assessment of the relationship between the two states with some fresh and prognostic thoughts China and India Hong Zhao,2013-06-19 The book sheds understanding on the relations between development and global energy security by looking at China and India It addresses the following issues what is the new definition of energy security how does it affect global politics and international relations What are the energy security concerns of China and India and what policies and approaches have they taken to deal with energy security issues Since China and India are searching for oil and gas in the Middle East Africa and Southeast Asia will their acquisition efforts conflict with the interests of other energy giants such as the U S Japan and will their growing overseas activities challenge U S policy in those energy rich regions The book provides insight into what the new global energy order may be and how the growth models and energy structures may shape the economic growth and energy It analyzes both the state centered approach and market oriented approach in the global quest for energy resources It also examines how China and India can adopt a cooperative approach for beneficial relations The book will be of interest to anyone who is keen to learn how the World especially U S A can accomodate and adapt to the new global energy dynamics China and India as new players in global energy markets Iran Inge Morath,2009 Edited and preface by John P Jacob Text by Azar Nafisi Monika Faber Iran's Destabilizing Role in the Middle East United States. Ceasefire! Ivan Molloy,2020-02-27 This is a true story On one level it is part my autobiography On another it deals with three generations of my family s active involvement in war terrorism political and social conflict and the tragic emotional and psychological consequences my family endured as a result In 2009 as an Australian academic with expertise in global terrorism and a one time aspiring federal politician I fled to France to try and deal with clinical depression and associated Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD I was fleeing the nightmare of a destroyed career and a shattered family As I tried to battle the Black Dog of depression suicide was a very real option for me But first I decided to write a book about my research and involvement with Muslim terrorists and revolutionary guerrilla groups in the Philippines It was a way of combating a public media campaign that had destroyed my professional and private life But to do this I needed to retrace both my own and my family's earlier experiences with conflicts elsewhere which influenced me to choose such research. In so doing I discovered new realities about the psychological condition I was battling and how it impacted on and haunted my own extended family over generations and all due to war and social conflict with horrific human consequences. Ultimately I have concluded I'm certainly not alone in my struggle. I'm merely another casualty of a brutal primeval human phenomenon which continually infects the psychology of the next generation. It is the phenomenon of the subconscious human struggle for the survival of the fittest. Now with a greater understanding of my condition I have at least so far managed a stand off with the Black Dog. I realise it wasn't spawned by any particular condition of my own but rather the very nature of human society. So far society still fails to take responsibility for generating such a condition and instead still promotes our innate species drive to achieve the survival of the fittest, an endgame which usually results in warfare. In the 21st century if we do not challenge and change our notion of what is needed to survive then forget the Koreas, ISIS, nuclear warfare etc, human kind will eventually psychologically and then physically self-destruct. How did I come to this realisation? It all played out in a small village called Ouroux En Morvan in France.
