Race Experts Linda Kim,2018-08-01 In Race Experts Linda Kim examines the complicated and ambivalent role played by sculptor Malvina Hoffman in T he Races of Mankind series created for the Chicago Field Museum in 1930 Although Hoffman had training in fine arts and was a prot g of Auguste Rodin and Ivan Mestrovi she had no background in anthropology or museum exhibits She was nonetheless commissioned by the Field Museum to make a series of life size sculptures for the museum s new racial exhibition which became the largest exhibit on race ever installed in a museum and one of the largest sculptural commissions ever undertaken by a single artist Hoffman s Races of Mankind exhibit was realized as a series of 104 bronzes of racial types from around the world a unique visual mediation between anthropological expertise and everyday ideas about race in interwar America Kim explores how the artist brought scientific understandings of race and the everyday racial attitudes of museum visitors together in powerful and productive friction The exhibition compelled the artist to incorporate not only the expertise of racial science and her own artistic training but also the popular ideas about race that ordinary Americans brought to the museum Kim situates the Races of Mankind exhibit at the juncture of these different forms of racial expertise and examines how the sculptures represented the messy resolutions between them Race Experts is a compelling story of ideological contradiction and accommodation within the racial practices of American museums artists and audiences

Talking to Ourselves Andrés Neuman, 2014-04-08 A searing family drama from one of Latin America's most original voices One trip Two love stories Three voices Lito is ten years old and is almost sure he can change the weather when he concentrates very hard His father Mario anxious to create a memory that will last for his son's lifetime takes him on a road trip in a truck called Pedro But Lito doesn't know that this might be their last trip Mario is gravely ill Together father and son embark on a journey takes them through strange geographies that seem to meld the different parts of the Spanish speaking world In the meantime Lito's mother Elena restlessly seeks support in books and soon undertakes an adventure of her own that will challenge her moral limits Each narrative of father son and mother embodies one of the different ways that we talk to ourselves through speech through thought and through writing While neither of them dares to tell the complete truth to the other two their individual voices nonetheless form a poignant conversation Sooner or later we all face loss Andr's Neuman movingly narrates the ways the lives of those who survive loss are transformed how that experience changes our ideas about time memory and our own bodies and how the acts of reading and of sex can serve as powerful modes of resistance Talking to Ourselves presents a tender yet unsentimental portrait of the workings of love and family a reflection both on grief and on the consolation of words Neuman the author of the award winning Traveler of the Century displays his characteristic warmth bittersweet humor and wide ranging intellect giving us the rich textured and strikingly different voices and experiences of three singular characters while presenting above all a profound tribute to those who have ever had to care for a loved one

The Practices of the Self Charles Larmore, 2010-12-15 What is the nature of the fundamental relation we have to ourselves that makes each of us a self To answer this question Charles Larmore develops a systematic theory of the self challenging the widespread view that the self's defining relation to itself is to have an immediate knowledge of its own thoughts On the contrary Larmore maintains our essential relation to ourselves is practical as is clear when we consider the nature of belief and desire For to believe or desire something consists in committing ourselves to thinking and acting in accord with the presumed truth of our belief or the presumed value of what we desire Larmore develops this conception with frequent reference to such classic authors as Montaigne Stendhal and Proust and by comparing it to other views of the self in contemporary philosophy He also discusses the important ethical consequences of his theory of the self arguing that it allows us to better grasp what it means to be ourselves and why self understanding often involves self creation Winner of the Académie Française's Grand Prix de Philosophie The Practices of the Self is that rare kind of lucid yet rigorous work that transcends disciplinary boundaries

Adam Smith Jesse Norman, 2018-09-11 A dazzlingly original remarkable account of the life and thought of legendary economist Adam Smith Financial Times Adam Smith 1723-1790 is now widely regarded as the greatest economist of all time But what he really thought and the implications of his ideas remain fiercely contested Was he an eloquent advocate of capitalism and individual freedom A prime mover of market fundamentalism An apologist for human selfishness Or something else entirely In the tradition of The Worldly Philosophers Adam Smith dispels the myths and caricatures and provides a far more complex portrait of the man Offering a highly engaging account of Smith's life and times political philosopher Jesse Norman explores his work as a whole and traces his influence over two centuries to the present day Finally he shows how a proper understanding of Smith can help us address the problems of modern capitalism The Smith who emerges from this book is not only the greatest of all economists but a pioneering theorist of moral philosophy culture and society
