Looking Beginning To Learn About

Laura England

Looking Beginning To Learn About:

Learning to Look Lesley Diana Clement, 2000 In Learning to Look Lesley Clement traces the evolution of Mavis Gallant's visually evocative style through five decades of her short fictional works. Gallant explores the boundaries between visible and invisible worlds as the lines, shapes and colours suggested by her allusions, analogies and structures challenge us as readers.

Looking and Learning: Visual Literacy across the Disciplines Deandra Little, Peter Felten, Chad Berry, 2015-03-13 In this volume the authors focus on the importance of inclusive teaching and the role faculty can play in helping students achieve though not necessarily in the same way. To teach with a focus on inclusion means to believe that every person has the ability to learn. It means that most individuals want to learn to improve their ability to better understand the world in which they live and to be able to navigate their pathways of life. This volume includes the following topics: best practices for teaching students with social, economic, gender or ethnic differences; adjustments to the teaching and learning process to focus on inclusion; strategies for teaching that help learners connect what they know with the information presented; environments that maximize learners' academic and social growth. The premise of inclusive teaching works to demonstrate that all people can and do learn. Educators and administrators can incorporate the techniques of inclusive learning and help learners retain more information. This is the 141st volume of the quarterly Jossey-Bass higher education series New Directions for Teaching and Learning. It offers a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers.

Looking for Learning: Provocations Laura England, 2019-09-05 Looking for Learning: Provocations is a full colour practical guide to inspire child-led learning that's linked to current policy and the EYFS framework. As each child progresses through their learning journey, Early Years practitioners are expected to identify and understand what learning is taking place in every activity that a child is involved in. Laura England, creator of Little Miss Early Years, uses her wealth of experience as an Early Years teacher to explore the learning that takes place when a child's play has been inspired by a provocation, including mirrors to investigate symmetry, cardboard boxes to understand shapes and sticks and pebbles to construct their own designs. Provocations invite learning, interest and creativity as they allow children to explore, think and use their imaginations. This dip in and out book is linked to the Characteristics of Effective Learning and presents case studies, real life images and practical pointers to explore their use. With tips for setting up the environment to the adult's role in this child-led play, Looking for Learning: Provocations is ideal for all Early Years practitioners searching for accessible ideas for using provocations in their settings. Looking for Learning books are the number one tool for identifying learning opportunities in child-led play. All four books are packed full of tried and tested ideas for indoor and outdoor activities, helpful hints and tips, and full colour photographs. Written by Laura England, known as Little Miss Early Years, these are a must-have for any nursery or pre-school.
