Looking Into My Sisters Eyes:

Sisters Or Strangers Franca Iacovetta, Frances Swyripa, Marlene Epp, 2004-01-01 Spanning two hundred years of history from the nineteenth century to the 1990s Sisters or Strangers explores the complex lives of immigrant ethnic and racialized women in Canada. The volume deals with a cross section of peoples including Japanese Chinese Black Aboriginal Irish Finnish Ukrainian Jewish Mennonite Armenian and South Asian Hindu women and diverse groups of women including white settlers refugees domestic servants consumer activists nurses wives and mothers. The central themes of Sisters or Strangers include discourses of race in the context of nation building encounters with the state and public institutions symbolic and media representations of women familial relations domestic violence and racism and analyses of history and memory. In different ways the authors question whether the historical experience of women in Canada represents a sisterhood of challenge and opportunity or if the racial class or marginalized identity of the immigrant and minority women made them in fact strangers in a country where privilege and opportunity fall according to criteria of exclusion. Using a variety of theoretical approaches this collaborative work reminds us that victimization and agency are never mutually exclusive and encourages us to reflect critically on the categories of race gender and the nation.

Through My Sister's Eyes Karen A. Buckhalter, Gender Conflicts Franca Iacovetta, Mariana Valverde, 1992-01-01 In the early 1970s when women's history began to claim attention as an emerging discipline in North American universities it was dominated by a middle class Anglo Saxon bias. Today the field is much more diverse a development reflected in the scope of this volume. Rather than documenting the experiences of women solely in a framework of gender analysis its authors recognize the interaction of race class and gender as central in shaping women's lives and men's. These essays represent an exciting breakthrough in women's studies expanding the borders of the discipline while breaking down barriers between mainstream and women's history.

The God of Animals Aryn Kyle, 2007-03-20 From an award winning and talented young novelist comes one of the most exciting fiction debuts in years a breathtaking and beautiful novel set on a horse ranch in small town Colorado. When her older sister runs away to marry a rodeo cowboy Alice Winston is left to bear the brunt of her family's troubles a depressed bedridden mother a reticent overworked father and a run down horse ranch. As the hottest summer in fifteen years unfolds and bills pile up Alice is torn between dreams of escaping the loneliness of her duty filled life and a longing to help her father mend their family and the ranch. To make ends meet the Winstons board the pampered horses of rich neighbors and for the first time Alice confronts the power and security that class and wealth provide. As her family and their well being become intertwined with the lives of their clients Alice is drawn into an adult world of secrets and hard truths and soon discovers that people including herself can be cruel can lie and cheat and every once in a while can do something heartbreaking and selfless. Ultimately Alice and her family must weather a devastating betrayal and a shocking violent series of events that will test their love and prove the power of forgiveness. A wise and astonishing novel about the different guises of love and the often steep tolls on the road to

Why Don't People Like Me? Theresa A Roberts,2021-07-15 Book I asked myself What is happiness and when do I know when I have finally found it God took me through a process and I found out that happiness is not what I possess or who I am with and happiness is not anything that anyone can offer me Happiness is the success I achieve when I accept my life with its imperfections and utilize what I have learned to change someone else s life Thus with a simple Yes I said to the Lord I will accept my life as my journey to become the perfect me Perfect is not one without flaws it is one that requires me to be the best that I can possibly be then to Him I am perfect for today and prepared for tomorrow God designed our life for us to enjoy not just to survive We often wish ourselves out of our current moments of life just for us to walk right past them into the next season without recognizing what we left behind This book is designed to take you on a journey through the inner thoughts and deepest hurts of your life The questions and assessments require you to be honest and transparent with yourself in order to get real answers and get to the root of issues in your life This process will also help you identify who you really are and see how everything in your life has purpose By the end of this book not only will you be able to answer the question of Why don t people like me but you ll also be one step closer to becoming the perfect YOU
