Anderson, Raymond Pierotti, 2022-10-12 This book examines ways of conserving managing and interacting with plant and animal resources by Native American cultural groups of the Pacific Coast of North America from Alaska to California These practices helped them maintain and restore ecological balance for thousands of years Building upon the authors and others previous works the book brings in perspectives from ethnography and marine evolutionary ecology The core of the book consists of Native American testimony myths tales speeches and other texts which are treated from an ecological viewpoint The focus on animals and in depth research on stories especially early recordings of texts set this book apart The book is divided into two parts covering the Northwest Coast and California It then follows the division in lifestyle between groups dependent largely on fish and largely on seed crops It discusses how the survival of these cultures functions in the contemporary world as First Nations demand recognition and restoration of their ancestral rights and resource management practices Before the Roads, Before the Mines Robert Jarvenpa, 2024 Anthropologist Robert Jarvenpa examines how the energy and extraction industries in Canada s subarctic north threatens destruction of traditional southern Denesuline cultural practices land and sovereignty near the Churchill River headwaters in northern Saskatchewan Trail of Story, Traveller's Path Leslie Main Johnson, 2010 This sensitive examination of the meanings of landscape draws on the author s rich experience with diverse environments and peoples the Gitksan and Witsuwit'en of northwestern British Columbia the Kaska Dena of the southern Yukon and the Gwich'in of the Mackenzie Delta Johnson maintains that the ways people understand and act upon land have wide implications shaping cultures and ways of life determining identity and polity and creating and maintaining environmental relationships and economies Her emphasis on landscape and ways of knowing the land provides a particular take on ecological relationships of First Peoples to land Hunting Caribou Henry S. Sharp, Karyn Sharp, 2015-06-01 Participant ethnography of the subsistence hunting practices of a band of Denesuline in the Northwestern Territories Sovereignty's Entailments Paul Nadasdy, 2017-01-01 Based on over five years of ethnographic research carried out in the southwest Yukon Sovereignty's Entailments is a close ethnographic analysis of everyday practices of state formation in a society whose members do not take for granted the cultural entailments of sovereignty Anthropology and Humanism , 2001 Dogs in the North Robert J.
