Sri Isopanisad is an ancient work. It is counted as the first of the 108 Upanisads and is part of the Yajur Veda among those literatures which are accepted by followers of the Vedic tradition to have come from God Himself at the time of creation. As such, it is one could say about as foundational a text as one could hope to find anywhere dealing with the most primeval and fundamental concepts of reality as we know it, presented in a context that is both timeless in that it comes from the person who put time into motion and simultaneously eternal.
