Englar,Jill Englar,Teresa Graham Brett,2023-10-31

An empathic and emotional exploration of the inevitable subject of grief that veterinarians will regularly encounter throughout their relationships with clients on their journey through the care and management of animal patients. The authors take an informed and supportive look at the philosophical and psychological impacts of grief, emphasizing the individual experiences of clients while also addressing the impacts on the veterinarian and veterinary team. Chapters cover the importance of the human-animal bond, unique circumstances relating to grief, practical tool kit approaches that help the vet work alongside the client in a way that is supportive and practically helpful, self-management resources for a veterinary-centric view of managing the process of euthanasia, death and grief. Supporting Pet Owners Through Grief provides practitioners and students alike with tools to better understand grief and its impact on the human-animal bond. Veterinary team members will also learn how to navigate their own mix of emotions as they themselves experience and process recurrent grief that can contribute to compassion fatigue and burnout.

5m Books How to Grieve What We've Lost Russ Harris, Alexandra Kennedy, Sameet M. Kumar, Mary Beth Williams, Soili Poijula, 2024-07-01

An essential guide for anyone experiencing loss. Sharon Salzberg, author of Lovingkindness and Real Life Grief, is a journey that can lead to powerful personal growth. With contributions from grief experts Russ Harris, Alexandra Kennedy, Sameet Kumar, Mary Beth Williams, and Soili Poijula, this thoughtful compilation will help you heal the pain of loss, no matter the cause, and move forward in life with a renewed sense of meaning and purpose. Grief comes in many forms. You may grieve a loved one who has passed on, a romantic relationship which has ended, the loss of a job you loved, or even a place you used to go that no longer exists or has changed. You may also be dealing with another kind of loss, a sense of who you are, and how you can live your life in an increasingly uncertain and changed world. But what if you could transform your grief into lasting positive growth? Featuring excerpts from the authors' previously published works, How to Grieve What We've Lost offers effective therapeutic tools based in acceptance and commitment therapy, ACT, mindfulness, cognitive behavioral therapy, CBT, and more. In the book, you'll find strategies for immediate relief, including present moment awareness and mindful breathing. You'll learn to create a safe sanctuary for your grief so you can honor your feelings and give them the space they deserve. And you'll discover ways to create a support network, give voice to your sorrow, and share your humanity with others. This heartfelt guide also includes simple tools to help you identify the things that really matter to you, honor your grief, prioritize your mental health, and self-care. Learn and grow from your loss. Whether you are struggling with your own loss or a collective sense of grief, the evidence-based skills in this book will help you mourn in healthy and resilient ways, leading to profound personal growth and a renewed sense of meaning and purpose in life.

No Time for Tears Judy Heath, Bernie Siegel, 2015-05-01

Facing the loss of a loved one in a death-avoidant culture can be excruciating. Grievers may be expected to put on a brave face to move on quickly and to seek medication if they are still grief-stricken after an acceptable amount of time. Psychotherapist Judy Heath draws on extensive experience as a grief specialist in private practice to help those struggling with the anguish of loss.

Addressing the myths and misinformation about mourning that still abound today Heath gently coaches readers to understand that coping with loss is a natural process that our society tends to avoid and hurry people through often leading to unresolved lasting grief No Time for Tears offers practical advice for both short and long term recovery including how to manage rarely discussed physical and emotional changes feelings of going crazy and inability to focus feeling out of sync with the world exhausted and chilled and crushingly lonely This updated second edition includes new information about medication and discusses various types of loss including that of a parent child spouse friend or pet Helpful not only to griever but also to those who care about counsel or employ them No Time for Tears is an essential resource for grief management and recovery

Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

Teens, Loss, and Grief Edward Myers, 2006-08-21 Teens Loss and Grief is a self help guide for teenagers who are struggling with bereavement and the emotional difficulties it presents This book provides an overview of grief as a painful but normal process offering insights from bereavement experts as well as practical suggestions for coping with loss including accounts from teens This book closes a gap in the available literature on grief and bereavement that has tended to focus on adults and younger children It provides a warm accessible resource that will reassure teen readers about the normality of grief encourages their understanding of what happens during the grief process and provides an indispensable resource guide

The Infinite Thread (EasyRead Edition) , The Infinite Thread Alexandra Kennedy, 2011-03-15 The loss we feel when a loved one dies is profound often accompanied by regret for all that we didn t say or do Such regret can hinder emotional growth and create wounds that affect all other aspects of our lives But loss doesn t necessarily mean the end of a connection with a loved one In fact it can open the doors to a unique relationship that offers intimacy healing and renewal In The Infinite Thread author Alexandra Kennedy helps us deal with loss in a powerful new way by using active imagination letters and inner dialogue to re create and heal past relationships In doing so we also amend the often strained ties with those still living The Infinite Thread strips away the veils of mystery surrounding death and transcends preconceptions about death and dying Rich with opportunities for reflection it brings enormous comfort to anyone who has ever lost a loved one or been faced with their own mortality The Emotional Dynamics of Law and Legal Discourse Heather Conway, John Stannard, 2016-12-15 In his seminal work Emotional Intelligence Daniel Goleman suggests that the common view of human intelligence is far too narrow and that emotions play a much greater role in thought decision making and individual success than is commonly acknowledged The importance of emotion to human experience cannot be denied yet the relationship between law and emotion is one that has largely been ignored until recent years However the last two decades have seen a rapidly expanding interest among scholars of all disciplines into the way in which law and the emotions interact including the law's response to emotion and the extent to which emotions pervade the practice of the law In The Emotional Dynamics of Law and Legal Discourse a group of leading scholars from both sides of the Atlantic explore these issues across key areas of private law public law criminal justice and dispute resolution illustrating how emotion infuses all areas of legal thought The collection argues for a more positive view of the role of emotion in the context of legal discourse and demonstrates ways in which the law could in the words of Goleman become more emotionally intelligent From Child to Elder Alan Pope, 2006 From Child to Elder explores the personal growth that can arise when a middle aged adult loses his or her last living parent Based on an empirical phenomenological study this book details the complex ways in which the adult orphan's ongoing relationship to the deceased parents combined with the unique meanings of the loss leads to a deepening of individual autonomy and spiritual awakening Confrontation with mortality and fundamental aloneness promotes among other things an increased sense of existential responsibility toward self and others as the adult orphan psychologically assumes its new role as an elder These and many other themes are structured into an integrated whole and amplified through developmental existential and Jungian perspectives The result is a compelling portrait of the processes by which the death of one's parents can accelerate psychospiritual development

Nobody's Child Diane Lutovich, 2016-12-05 When Diane Sher Lutovich set out to attain closure of her mother's death she simultaneously discovered how other women address their losses Nobody's Child How Older Women Say Good bye to Their Mothers in poetry and prose tells the big and little stories of women who having come of age during the feminist revolution lived very different lives than their mothers The author addresses the guilt a daughter feels when confronted by her mother's life choices the loss of family history and a belated recognition of her mother's legacy The voices are heard within these pages giving occasion for the reader to learn about the multiplicity of feelings including remorse fear frustration compassion and deep admiration that many daughters experience at their mother's passing The Grief Club Melody Beattie, 2009-08-07 The Grief Club is Melody Beattie's profoundly personal powerfully healing book to help readers through life's most difficult times Part memoir part self help book part journalism The Grief Club is a book of stories bound together by the human experience of loss in its many forms such as death divorce drug addiction and the tumultuous yet tender
