Browne, 2004-06-30 In Murder on the Reservation Ray B Browne surveys the work of several of the best known writers of crime fiction involving Indian characters and references virtually every book that qualifies as an Indian related mystery

Browne believes that within the genre of crime fiction all people are equal and the increasing role of Indian characters in criminal fiction proves what an important role this genre plays as a powerful democratizing force in American society. He endeavors to both analyze and evaluate the individual work of the authors and at the same time provide a commentary on the various attitudes towards race relations in the United States that each author presents. Some Indian fiction is intended to right the wrongs the authors feel have been leveled against Indians. Other authors use Indian lore and Indian locales as exotic elements and locations for the entertaining and commercially successful stories they want to write. Browne's analysis includes authors and works of all backgrounds with mysteries of first class murder both on and off the reservation. Get Those Guys Reading! Kathleen A. Baxter, Marcia Agness Kochel, 2012-05-07. Want to identify fiction books that boys in grades three through nine will find irresistible. This guide reveals dozens of worthwhile recommendations in categories ranging from adventure stories and sports novels to horror, humorous and science fiction books. In Get Those Guys Reading Fiction and Series Books that Boys Will Love, authors Kathleen A. Baxter and Marcia A. Kochel provide compelling and current reading suggestions for younger boys, information that educators, librarians and parents alike are desperate for. Comprising titles that are almost all well reviewed in at least one major professional journal or that are such big hits with kids that they've received the stamp of approval from the most important reviewers, this book will be invaluable to anyone whose goal is to help boys develop a healthy enthusiasm for reading. It includes chapters on adventure books, animal stories, graphic novels, historical fiction, humorous books, mystery, horror and suspense titles, science fiction and fantasy and sports novels. Within each chapter, the selections are further divided into books for younger readers (grades 3-6) and titles for older boys in grades 5-8. Elementary and middle school librarians and teachers, public librarians, Title One teachers and parents of boys in grades 3-9 will all benefit greatly from having this book at hand.
