What does it mean to live well when you're exhausted from juggling the demands of work and a young family? When you've been around long enough to be scarred by loss, disappointment or frustration? When your memory is beginning to fade and you feel a burden to others? Whatever the situation, we find ourselves in, this down-to-earth book will help restore a sense of purpose. Alan Hargrave draws upon rules of life from Benedict to Iona to enable us to think seriously about the pattern of our living. Through absorbing stories, honest and often very funny accounts of his own personal struggles and the provision of many useful exercises, he aims to help us find our own rule of life, one that will not only sustain us but allow the light that may have gone out of our eyes to shine once more. And as the energy we need to look beyond ourselves returns, so we will discover new and creative ways to express the love of God to our wonderful needy world. Together for a Season: All-age seasonal resources for Lent, Holy Week and Easter Peter Craig-Wild, Diane Craven, Peter Moger, 2007. A practical companion through the Church's year for all those planning and leading all-age worship. It offers an array of creative material designed to bring to life the seasonal liturgy of Lent, Holy Week and Easter, including Pentecost. Issues in Prayer Book Revision Robert W. Prichard, 2018-09-17. Essays from academics across a spectrum of perspectives. The Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music sought input from multiple sources in order to better understand the charge of the General Convention of 2015, suggesting that it present a plan for the revision of the Book of Common Prayer to the 2018 Convention. While the individual chapters of this volume raise a variety of differing issues, they share a common assumption that one of the sources of information for the Standing Commission and the Church in its deliberations ought to be the community of academically trained liturgical scholars. The hope of this volume is to open a conversation across the church that will continue in the future.

Ordinary Mum, Extraordinary Mission Anna France-Williams, 2013-10-18. I wanted to change the world but I couldn't find a babysitter. School runs, packed lunches, play dates, date night, nappy changes, homework, football deadlines, bedtime stories, supermarket runs, peace-keeping juice and biscuits, park trips, the runs, toddler groups, coffee drinking, mum's taxi, potty training, kiss it better. These are our lives. Like you, we are busy mums who want to follow God. We want to be part of his mission to the world. Perhaps you had big dreams of how you'd make a difference to the world, how you'd change it for the better. But now all you can think about is the next feed. Or perhaps you think mission is only for special Christians who are extra holy and know their Bible backwards, and you feel that just ticking off each day on the calendar is an achievement. Wherever you are, whatever you feel, we hope this book will renew your passion to serve God in your own situation. We'd like to share some stories from women who have begun to do just that. And we want to invite you to explore what mission looks like for a normal mum. Because however ordinary we are, we serve an extraordinary God, and he calls us all to be a part of his mission to transform the earth, bring his kingdom, redeem a new humanity and build his church. Liturgy with Style and Grace Gabe Huck, Gerald T. Chinchir, 1998. This beautifully written classic book teaches about those things that belong to all Catholics: the Mass, the sacraments, the seasons of the church's year. Brief two-page articles are grouped into units on central topics Discussion questions and helpful quotations from a variety of sources involve the individual reader the classroom or a study group in a lively dialogue
