Dhuuluu-Yala Anita Heiss, 2003 Dhuuluu Yala is a Wiradjuri phrase meaning to talk straight and this book is straight talk about publishing Indigenous literature in Australia. It also includes broader issues that writers need to consider engaging with readers and reviewers. The book covers the period up to the mid 1900s though some references are included up to 2000. Changes have been made since that date however the issues identified in Dhuuluu Yala remain current and to a large extent unresolved. The history of defining Aboriginality in Australia and the experience of being Aboriginal have both impacted on the production of Aboriginal writing today. These twin themes are the major focus of the book. The pioneering roles of Aboriginal writers who have gone before and created a space has allowed for the growth of an Indigenous publishing industry. Indeed a literary and publishing culture have developed also because of the increasing desire and need for an authentic Indigenous voice in Australian literature. Although funding and other mechanisms are in place and possibilities afforded Indigenous writers have improved opportunities are still limited leading to some authors choosing to self publish.

The Intervention Rosie Scott, Anita Heiss, 2016-07-01 Unsettling Australia Lars Jensen, 2005 This Book Is A Critical Intervention Into Debates On Australia S Cultural History. The Book Demonstrates The Interconnectedness Of Themes Commonly Seen As Separate Discursive Formations And Shows The Fruitfulness Of Bringing A Combined Cultural Studies And Post Colonial Approach To Bear On A Number Of Fields Seen As Pivotal To The Formation And Particular Expression Of Australian Culture Today. The Book Argues That A Redefinition Of The Borders Between What Has Been Regarded And Patrolled As Discrete Fields Of Australian Studies Is Mandatory In Order To Alter Definitions Of Australia S Cultural History And Identity Away From The Conventional Histories Of A Settler Culture Gradually Embracing A Multicultural Society. The Introduction Argues For The Productiveness Of Combining A Cultural Studies Approach With Post Colonial Criticism And Explains Why The Placement Of Australian Cultural History In The Unconventional Territorial Representation Of Its Asian Other Is Not Only Enabling But Necessary In Order To Divest Australian Studies Of Settlement History S Monolithic Grasp On Definitions Of Australia S Cultural History. The Subsequent Chapters Examine Australian Historiography Focusing On Colonial Beginnings Political History Focusing On Relations With Indonesia And East Timor Multiculturalism Focusing On The Chinese In Australia And Anthropology Focusing On Aboriginal Asian Contact History From This New Angle.

Convincing Ground Bruce Pascoe, 2007 Convincing Ground pulses with love of country. In this powerful lyrical and passionate new work Bruce Pascoe asks us to fully acknowledge our past and the way those actions continue to influence our nation today both physically and intellectually. The book resonates with ongoing debates about identity dispossession memory and community. Pascoe draws on the past through a critical examination of major historical works and witness accounts and finds uncanny parallels between the techniques and language used there to today's national political stage. He has written the book for all Australians as an antidote to the great Australian inability to deal respectfully with the nation's constructed

Indigenous past For Pascoe the Australian character was not forged at Gallipoli Eureka and the back of Bourke but in the furnace of Murdering Flat Convincing Ground and Werribee He knows we can't reverse the past but believes we can bring in our soul from the fog of delusion Pascoe proposes a way forward beyond shady intellectual argument and immature nationalism with our strengths enhanced and our weaknesses acknowledged and addressed Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures in English Prem Poddar,2019-08-07 This is the first reference guide to the political cultural and economic histories that form the subject matter of postcolonial literatures written in English The focus of the Companion is principally on the histories of postcolonial literatures in the Anglophone world Africa the Middle East South Asia South east Asia Australia and New Zealand the Pacific the Caribbean and Canada There are also long entries discussing the literatures and histories of those further areas that have also claimed the title postcolonial notably Britain East Asia Ireland Latin America and the United States The Companion contains 220 entries written by 150 acknowledged scholars of postcolonial history and literature covers major events ideas movements and figures in postcolonial histories long regional survey essays on historiography and women's histories Each entry provides a summary of the historical event or topic and bibliographies of postcolonial literary works and histories Extensive cross references and indexes enable readers to locate particular literary texts in their relevant historical contexts as well as to discover related literary texts and histories in other regions with ease

Kin Amanda Duthie,2018-09-25 In Kin An extraordinary Australian filmmaking family artists and filmmakers from all over the world pay tribute to the indomitable Freda Glynn and her family Freda championed Aboriginal screen storytelling with global impact helping establish CAAMA and Imparja Television in the 1980s Her daughter Erica Glynn and son Warwick Thornton are internationally renowned filmmakers and her grandchildren Dylan River and Tanith Glynn Maloney bring a fresh vision to the third generation What I love is that when they stand together as a family we get to see what they have given to our Australian screen industry their extraordinary impact and legacy Deborah Mailman Bloke Bruce

Pascoe,2009-08-03 The story of an ordinary man who discovers he's not so ordinary Pascoe is one of our finest writers Ray Lawrence Jim Bloke's your typical Aussie sort of Being an orphan he's done it tough in the past but he knows how to take care of himself and he has an affinity with life's important things So when he takes a job as a sea urchin diver on a stretch of coastal paradise he's right at home with the morwong pearl perch and butterflyfish He's less at home with the people apart from the woman who works as his deckhand since the industry's crookedier than your average banker And because Bloke's already done a season in the big gym he makes a perfect fall guy when things go wrong That sends him running again by a roundabout way into the arms of his real family But Jim's not sure that's where he wants to be He wants love and that's hard he wants his identity and that's even harder Bloke is an achingly funny novel about coming to terms with who you are where you belong who you love Jim has a weakness for women that leads him into trouble and then to salvation The Outsiders

Within Peta Stephenson,2007 An engaging account of the ways in which over hundreds of years Indigenous and Asian people across northern and central Australia have traded intermarried and built hybrid communities It is also a disturbing expose of the persistent sometimes paranoid efforts of successive national governments to police marginalize and outlaw these encounters

Black Duck Bruce Pascoe,2024-03-26 Sometimes you need to repeat something a hundred times before a bell rings in the colony From the bestselling author Bruce Pascoe comes a deeply personal story about the consequences and responsibility of disrupting Australia s history When Dark Emu was adopted by Australia like a new anthem Bruce found himself at the centre of a national debate that often focussed on the wrong part of the story But through all the noise came Black Duck Foods a blueprint for traditional food growing and land management processes based on very old practices Bruce Pascoe and Lyn Harwood invite us to imagine a different future for Australia one where we can honour our relationship with nature and improve agriculture and forestry Where we can develop a uniquely Australian cuisine that will reduce carbon emissions preserve scarce water resources and rebuild our soil Bruce and Lyn show us that you don t just work Country you look listen and care It s not Black Duck magic it s the result of simply treating Australia like herself From the aftermath of devastating bushfires and the impact of an elder s death to rebuilding a marriage and counting the personal cost of starting a movement Black Duck is a remarkable glimpse into a year of finding strength in Country at Yumburra Bruce invites us onto the land that changed the man behind the book that changed the nation Narelda Jacobs Bruce s love of Country is resoundingly evident I get the sense that this book and his work with the Black Duck team has been profoundly cleansing for a man who has faced numerous challenges in his life after Dark Emu His connection to place land and Country is at the core of his remarkable resilience Bruce gets right into the belly of the land and storytelling a medicine this country needs Stephen Page This brilliant book gives a real insight into the minds and lives of Bruce and Lyn and the impact Dark Emu had on both of them Tony Armstrong Bruce and Lyn so eloquently bring us into intimate contact with the land and our beautiful culture reminding us all of the rich history that Australia holds Allira Potter
