Rule Of Experts Egypt Techno Politics:

Rule of Experts Timothy Mitchell, 2002-11-18 Publisher Description Rule of Experts - Egypt, Techno-Politics, Modernity Timothy Mitchell, 2012 Can one explain the power of global capitalism without attributing to capital a logic and coherence it does not have Can one account for the powers of techno science in terms that do not merely reproduce its own understanding of the world Rule of Experts examines these questions through a series of interrelated essays focused on Egypt in the twentieth century These explore the way malaria sugar cane war and nationalism interacted to produce the techno politics of the modern Egyptian state the forms of debt discipline and violence that founded the institution of private property the methods of measurement circulation and exchange that produced the novel idea of a national economy yet made its accurate representation impossible the stereotypes and plagiarisms that created the scholarly image of the Egyptian peasant and the interaction of social logics horticultural imperatives powers of desire and political forces that turned programs of economic reform in unanticipated directions Mitchell is a widely known political theorist and one of the most innovative writers on the Middle East He provides a rich examination of the forms of reason power and expertise that characterize contemporary politics Together these intellectually provocative essays will challenge a broad spectrum of readers to think harder more critically and more politically about history power and theory Rule of Experts Timothy Mitchell, 2009 Egypt's Housing Crisis Yahia Shawkat, 2020-09-08 A provocative analysis of the roots of Egypt's housing crisis and the ways in which it can be tackled Along with football and religion housing is a fundamental cornerstone of Egyptian life it can make or break marriage proposals invigorate or slow down the economy and popularize or embarrass a ruler Housing is political Almost every Egyptian ruler over the last eighty years has directly associated himself with at least one large scale housing project It is also big business with Egypt currently the world leader in per capita housing production building at almost double China's rate and creating a housing surplus that counts in the millions of units Despite this Egypt has been in the grip of a housing crisis for almost eight decades From the 1940s onward officials deployed a number of policies to create adequate housing for the country's growing population By the 1970s housing production had outstripped population growth but today half of Egypt's one hundred million people cannot afford a decent home Egypt's Housing Crisis takes presidential speeches parliamentary reports legislation and official statistics as the basis with which to investigate the tools that officials have used to solve the housing crisis rent control social housing and amnesties for informal self building as well as the inescapable reality of these policies outcomes Yahia Shawkat argues that wars mass displacement and rural urban migration played a part in creating the problem early on but that neoliberal deregulation crony capitalism and corruption and neglectful planning have made things steadily worse ever since In the final analysis he asks is affordable housing for all really that hard to achieve The Political Economy of the New Egyptian Republic Nicholas S. Hopkins, 2015-05-15 Egypt is a country of its people What has been the effect on its inhabitants of the 2011 revolution and subsequent developments In 2013 a conference held under the auspices of Cairo Papers in Social Science examined this issue from the points of view of anthropologists historians political scientists psychologists and urban planners The papers collected here reveal the strategies that various actors employed in this situation Contributors Ellis Goldberg David Sims Yasmine Ahmed Deena Abdelmonem Dina Makram Ebeid Clement Henry Sandrine Gamblin Hans Christian Korsholm Nielsen Zeinab Abul Magd Re-Thinking Agency Joanna Godlewicz-Adamiec,Paweł Piszczatowski,2024-10-07 The book explores the multi faceted nature of contemporary reflections on agency focusing on various discursive practices that shape the posthumanist approach to the relationship between the human and non human world from a planetary perspective The chapters delve into critical human animal studies examine new non anthropocentric identity constructs and offer analyses that reinterpret meanings through semiotic inversions and challenge static cultural patterns The book concludes with discussions on decolonization practices that aim to liberate agency from oppressive systems particularly those dominated by imperial phallogocentrism The Global Politics of Science and Technology - Vol. 2 Maximilian Mayer,Mariana Carpes,Ruth Knoblich,2014-08-20 An increasing number of scholars have begun to see science and technology as relevant issues in International Relations IR acknowledging the impact of material elements technical instruments and scientific practices on international security statehood and global governance This two volume collection brings the debate about science and technology to the center of International Relations It shows how integrating science and technology translates into novel analytical frameworks conceptual approaches and empirical puzzles and thereby offers a state of the art review of various methodological and theoretical ways in which sciences and technologies matter for the study of international affairs and world politics The authors not only offer a set of practical examples of research frameworks for experts and students alike but also propose a conceptual space for interdisciplinary learning in order to improve our understanding of the global politics of science and technology The second volume raises a plethora of issue areas actors and cases under the umbrella notion techno politics Distinguishing between interactional and co productive perspectives it outlines a toolbox of analytical frameworks that transcend technological determinism and social constructivism Colonial Bureaucracy and Contemporary Citizenship Yael Berda,2022-11-17 How do the legacies of colonial bureaucracy continue to shape political life after empire Tracing the colonial and racialized practices of population classification and restriction of mobility this book examines how mundane and routine bureaucratic practices shape political life in Israel Palestine India and Cyprus Nationalising Oil and Knowledge in Iran Mattin Biglari,2025-02-28 Iran s nationalisation of oil in 1951 was a key catalyst for the rise of resource nationalism as an animating force of global decolonisation expelling the Anglo Iranian Oil Company AIOC now known as BP after nearly fifty years of domination in southwest Iran Nationalising Oil Knowledge in Iran turns attention to the origins of nationalisation in the everyday struggles between the oil company and subaltern actors in the city of Abadan then home to the world s largest oil refinery and deeply imbricated in networks of colonialism and racial capitalism Engaging with energy history postcolonial subaltern studies and science technology studies the book focuses on the politics of expertise how nationalisation reproduced the epistemic coloniality of the oil company which rested on local dispossession social engineering as well as racial and gendered segregation It argues that nationalisation diverged from subaltern contestations of oil expertise in Abadan which presented a more fundamental challenge to colonial modernity Men of Capital Sherene Seikaly, 2023-05-25 An eye opening book on the history of an elite Palestinian Arab group an important contribution and a highly recommended read Middle East Journal Men of Capital examines British ruled Palestine in the 1930s and 1940s through a focus on economy In a departure from the expected histories of Palestine this book illuminates dynamic class constructions that aimed to shape a pan Arab utopia in terms of free trade profit accumulation and private property And in so doing it positions Palestine and Palestinians in the larger world of Arab thought and social life moving attention away from the limiting debates of Zionist Palestinian conflict Reading Palestinian business periodicals records and correspondence Sherene Seikaly reveals how capital accumulation was central to the conception of the ideal social man Here we meet a diverse set of characters the man of capital the frugal wife the law abiding Bedouin the unemployed youth and the abundant farmer in new spaces like the black market cafes and cinemas and the idyllic Arab home Seikaly also traces how British colonial institutions and policies regulated wartime austerity regimes mapping the shortages of basic goods such as the vegetable crisis of 1940 to the broader material disparities among Palestinians and European Jews Ultimately she shows that the economic is as central to social management as the political and that an exclusive focus on national claims and conflicts hides the more complex changes of social life in Palestine
