Zebel, 1973-05-10 This biography analyses the long political career of Arthur James Balfour 1848 1930 the Conservative politician who became the first Earl of Balfour Professor Zebel stresses the extraordinary nature of Balfour's career divided as it was into two specific periods The first dating from his entry into Parliament in 1874 and his rapid advancement as a result of family connections comprised his period as Chief Secretary for Ireland in which he distinguished himself with his policy of killing Home Rule with kindness his leadership of the Unionists in the House of Commons and his premiership from 1902 to 1905 in succession to his uncle Lord Salisbury The second beginning in 1914 followed the period of political retirement which resulted from his party's defeat in the 1906 elections and his own loss of the party leadership in 1911 It was the more constructive

The Greenian Moment Denys P. Leighton, 2015-11-30 This study of T H Green views his philosophical opus through his public life and political commitments and it uses biography as a lens through which to examine Victorian political culture and its moral climate The book deals with the political and religious history of Victorian Britain in examining the basis of Green's Liberal partisanship It demonstrates how his main ethical and political conceptions his idea of self realisation and his theory of individuality within community were informed by evangelical theology popular Protestantism and an idea of the English national consciousness as formed by religious conflict While the significance of Kantian and Hegelian elements in Green's thought is acknowledged it is argued that indigenous qualities of Green's teachings resonated with values shared alike by elite and rank and file Liberals during the mid and late Victorian era In examining Green's beliefs about the historical evolution of English liberty his championing of Liberal Nonconformity and Nonconformist causes and his approval of religious bases of community this study analyzes the ripening of a Greenian moment and traces Green's influence on Liberal quasi socialist and Conservative social reform down to the 1920s The lasting impact of Green's teachings on British and Western political philosophy apparent in the current vogue for communitarianism in liberal theory indicates limitations of the secularization thesis still tacitly accepted by historians of Western political thought

The Hague Conferences and International Politics, 1898-1915 Maartje Abbenhuis, 2018-10-18 Beginning with the extraordinary rescript by Tsar Nicholas II in August 1898 calling the world's governments to a disarmament conference this book charts the history of the two Hague peace conferences of 1899 and 1907 and the third conference of 1915 that was never held using diplomatic correspondence newspaper reports contemporary publications and the papers of internationalist organizations and peace activists Focusing on the international media frenzy that developed around them Maartje Abbenhuis provides a new angle on the conferences Highlighting the conventions that they brought about she demonstrates how The Hague set the tone for international politics in the years leading up to the First World War permeating media reports and shaping the views and activities of key organizations such as the inter parliamentary union the international council of women and the Institut de droit international Institute of International Law Based on extensive archival research in the Netherlands Great Britain Switzerland and the United States alongside contemporary publications in a range of languages this book considers the history of the Hague conferences in a new way and presents a powerful case for the importance of The Hague conferences in shaping twentieth century international politics Corporate Policing, Yellow Unionism, and Strikebreaking, 1890-1930 Matteo Millan, Alessandro Saluppo, 2020-12-28 This book provides a comparative and transnational examination of the complex and multifaceted experiences of anti labour mobilisation from the bitter social conflicts of the pre war period through the epochal tremors of war and revolution and the violent spasms of the 1920s and 1930s It retraces the formation of an extensive market for corporate policing privately contracted security and yellow unionism as well as processes of professionalisation in strikebreaking activities labour espionage and surveillance It reconstructs the diverse spectrum of right wing patriotic leagues and vigilante corps which in support or in competition with law enforcement agencies sought to counter the dual dangers of industrial militancy and revolutionary situations Although considerable research has been done on the rise of socialist parties and trade unions the repressive policies of their opponents have been generally left unexamined This book fills this gap by reconstructing the methods and strategies used by state authorities and employers to counter outbreaks of labour militancy on a global scale It adopts a long term chronology that sheds light on the shocks and strains that marked industrial societies during their turbulent transition into mass politics from the bitter social conflicts of the pre war period through the epochal tremors of war and revolution and the violent spasms of the 1920s and 1930s Offering a new angle of vision to examine the violent transition to mass politics in industrial societies this is of great interest to scholars of policing unionism and striking in the modern era Robert Frost and the Politics of Poetry Tyler Hoffman, 2001 A powerful and persuasive new reading of Frost as a poet deeply engaged with both the literary and public politics of his day Grand Pursuit Sylvia Nasar, 2011-05-10 From the author of A Beautiful Mind a sweeping history of the invention of modern economics that takes you from Dickens London to modern Calcutta Waging War and Making Peace Matthew D'Auria, Rolf Petri, Jan Vermeiren, 2024-12-02 The history of Europe is marked not only by violence and division but also by efforts to reduce the destructiveness of war In this volume the authors explore the meaning of Europe within war and peace discourses from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries They examine imagined wars the post 1815 security order the portrayal of Russian and Muslim Others double standards in international law pacifist rhetoric and the role of Europe in war propaganda and resistance movements The authors demonstrate how both war and peace
