RUMBIN GALLERIES BOOTH TARKINGTON, 1937 Booth Tarkington. Rumbin Galleries. Illustr. by Ritchie Cooper
Booth Tarkington, Ritchie Cooper, 1936 Booth Tarkington: Novels & Stories (LOA #319) Booth Tarkington, 2019-06-04
Thomas Mallon and Library of America invite readers to rediscover the Pulitzer Prize winning novels of a classic American writer on the 150th anniversary of his birth. Much in need of rediscovery today, Booth Tarkington was among the most beloved and widely read writers of his era. In such classic novels as The Magnificent Ambersons and Alice Adams, both winners of the Pulitzer Prize, Tarkington displayed a mastery of realism and an astute, strikingly modern feel for psychology, capturing crucial transformations in our national life as they were manifested in changing social customs and in the very landscape itself altered irrevocably by industrialization and environmental degradation. Out of Tarkington's prolific writings, novelist and critic Thomas Mallon has selected three works that show Tarkington at his best. The Magnificent Ambersons, inspiration for Orson Welles's classic film, is a tour de force study in egoism depicting the fall from grace of George Minafer, wayward scion of the once unassailable Amberson family. The titular protagonist of Alice Adams, portrayed unforgettably by Katharine Hepburn in what many consider her finest performance, is one of the great heroines of American literature like Henry James's Isabel Archer and the young women of Edith Wharton's novels; she is a spirited, complicated young woman confronting the limits of her time and place with her own headlong desires. These novels are joined here by the story collection In the Arena, tales from Political Life first published in 1905 and then in an expanded edition in 1920. These stories, which exerted influence on Theodore Roosevelt inspiring perhaps his most famous speech, draw from Tarkington's political career as a state legislator in Indiana, which lasted briefly but had a profound impact on him. Published to commemorate the 150th anniversary of Tarkington's birth, Novels and Stories contains the most enduring works of a Hoosier luminary and an estimable chronicler of the American Midwest. My Amiable Uncle Susanah Mayberry, 2019-08-15 Twice he won the Pulitzer Prize in fiction in 1919 for The Magnificent Ambersons and in 1922 for Alice Adams. His play Clarence launched Alfred Lunt on his distinguished career and provided Helen Hayes with an early, successful role. His Penrod books continued the American boy story tradition which started with the works of Mark Twain. Early in this century, through his novel The Turmoil, he warned of sacrificing the environment to industrial growth. Yet since his death in 1946, Booth Tarkington, this writer from the Midwest who accomplished so much, has faded from the memory of the reading public, and many of his works are out of print. But his memory is fresh and vivid in the mind of his grandniece Susanah Mayberry, and her recollections of him leap from the pages of her book. She recalls that as a small child, before she was aware of her uncle's fame as a writer, he emerged as the one figure whose outline was clear among the blur of forms that made up her large family. No one who met Booth Tarkington ever forgot him, says his great niece. So she introduces the reader to this multifaceted individual: the young man about town, the prankster, the writer of humorous letters who drew caricatures in the margins, the bereaved father, the inspiration of the affection of three women simultaneously and the lover and collector of art objects and portraits The author of this volume draws primarily upon her own personal experiences family lore and letters some never published before to portray her amiable uncle She tells of the pleasure it gave him to entertain his young nephews and nieces at his Tudor style winter home in Indianapolis where they played a spirited form of charades She recalls vacations which she as a college student spent at his light filled summer home in Kennebunkport Maine where she met his famous neighbors During all of those times Uncle Booth was a keen observer of youth who created Penrod and friends from his observations and the teacher of youth who transmitted his own love of art to his young relations While recapturing memories of the unforgettable Tarkington Mayberry recreates an era of elegant and leisurely living when on the dining table in the fingerbowls were nosegays of sweet peas and lemon verbena or geranium leaves Susanah Mayberry shares with the reader a treasure of family photographs including Tarkington at various ages interiors and exteriors of his homes her father and uncles as children the models of Penrod the writer's indomitable sister who championed his early work and his devoted second wife a gentle dragon who kept his day to day life running smoothly Indiana residents will feel at home with the frequent references to the state and its people Indianapolis of the late nineteenth through the mid twentieth centuries influenced Tarkington and his work The city was his birthplace and his death place He spent a year at Purdue University where he met such brilliancies as George Ade and John McCutcheon Other famous and not so famous Hoosiers became a part of Tarkington's life and they along with international literary theatrical and political luminaries reappear in Susanah Mayberry's recollections of her amiable uncle The Saturday Evening Post ,1938 The Rotarian ,1938-01 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Used and Rare Lawrence Goldstone,Nancy Goldstone,2010-04-01 Journey into the world of book collecting with the Goldstones rediscover the joy of reading laugh and fall in love with books all over again The idea that books had stories associated with them that had nothing to do with the stories inside them was new to us We had always valued the history the world of ideas contained between the covers of a book or as in the case of The Night Visitor some special personal significance Now for the first time we began to appreciate that there was a history and a world of ideas embodied by the books themselves Part travel story part love story and part memoir Lawrence and Nancy Goldstone's Used and Rare provides a delightful love letter to book lovers everywhere Month at Goodspeed's Book Shop ,1938 Catalogue of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
