Spiritual Books Hal Zina Bennett who has coached such well known writers as Shakti Gawain Judith Orloff and Jerry Jampolsky shows readers how to focus on their spiritual experience in a way that will enlighten and captivate others Including both anecdotal and prescriptive material gleaned from his work as a writing coach the book contains writing exercises exploratory questions and other practical guidance A useful resource section addresses the too often neglected issue of finding an agent and publisher with current lists of both Individual chapters include Choosing a Vehicle for Your Message Where to Begin Finding Models to Follow and Read Deeply and Getting Published and What Comes Later

Mystical Traditions Muhammad Shafiq,Thomas Donlin-Smith,2023-05-16 This book discusses mysticism and its possible contributions to a positive common human future It is organized into three parts Studies of Mystical Traditions Comparative Studies of Mystical Traditions and Social and Ethical Implications The approach is philosophical and critical The contributors differ on whether or not mystical traditions would restore peaceful living and peaceful coexistence However the problem before this manuscript is the growing pain and suffering caused by greed in the world greed causing economic disequilibrium racism and divisiveness causing social unrest resulting in mass migration and refugees crisis Through the lens of mystical traditions the manuscript proposes a balance approach between material and spiritual needs of people To strengthen human spirituality the manuscript emphasizes practicing meditation music prayers zikr yoga mindfulness fasting and other methods of spiritual revival for peace within self and with others Sufism and Transcendentalism Elham Shayegh,2020-03-09 The rhetoric of cultural identity generally goes in two potential directions One a universal line that insists on an overall pattern of integration and harmony among all peoples regardless of their differences and the other a line which suggests that various cultures are so specific and different that they will eventually enter into clash violence and war Drawing upon Derrida's concept of difference I will point out that such rhetoric as examples of current political discourses fail to open the concept of cultural identity through redefining its relationship with otherness This will be accompanied by poetry of Rumi and Whitman to suggest that their literary language through its non dialectic characteristics is familiar with the problematic of identity and has the ability to form a cross cultural dialogue Sufism And Transcendentalism envisages the possibility of dialogue against the background of political conflict
