Irongran Edwina Brocklesby, 2018-04-05 If I can start to run at 50 and become the oldest British woman to complete an Ironman everyone should realise it's never too late At the age of 50 Eddie Brocklesby decided to run her first half marathon Until that point she'd done little running and her exercise regime consisted of little more than chauffeuring her children to their own sports clubs In common with so many people any interest she'd shown in sport in her childhood had diminished as her adult life progressed with spare time becoming ever more limited in the face of work and family commitments After that event and following the loss of her husband of thirty years to cancer she completed a marathon Now 75 years old the past twenty years has seen Eddie take part in marathons triathlons and Ironman races across the globe and she has accrued many medals and awards In Irongran Eddie looks back on her life and explains just how she's managed to develop the energy to match the enthusiasm she's always had for an active lifestyle She shares the difficulties she's experienced in her sporting endeavours and explains how she's managed to overcome them Eddie is passionate about the health and wellbeing of our ageing population and provides up to date research about why keeping active in later years is so important along with guidance about how to remain full of life in your later years Running Times, 2008-04 Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes coaches and scientists rates and profiles elite runners and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview Runner's World, 2008-12 Runner's World magazine aims to help runners achieve their personal health fitness and performance goals and to inspire them with vivid memorable storytelling Running Crazy - Imagine Running a Marathon. Now Imagine Running Over 100 of Them.

Incredible True Stories from the World's Most Fanatical Runners Helen Summer, 2013-04-15 Pheidippides did it once and became a legend Brian Mills did it 771 times but you might be forgiven for not knowing who he is He is a runner and it is the marathon all 26 miles and 385 yards of it and for some people once is not enough Brian Mills is rumoured to have a butterfly tattoo for each of his 771 efforts And Brian is not the only one who has notched up three digits of grueling athletic endeavor The 100 Marathon Club also known as the Hell's Angels of Running and Running Sluts running one race whilst thinking of another is growing in number every year This is a club with no prejudices and only one prerequisite for membership the completion of 100 marathons It is full of colourful contrasting characters with idiosyncratic personalities and diverse lifestyles They make up a gargantuan melting pot of humanity linked by one common desire to run and run and run But who would want to run 100 marathons or more And why How do they find the time the money the energy Are they crazy Or just passionate Find out by reading their stories Some will make you laugh others will make you cry some may even inspire you to run a marathon Believe it or not these are ordinary everyday people like you Although when you have finished laughing and crying you may still not be sure whether they are crazy or passionate But you as they do when they run will have a lot of fun along the way
