Rural Development Through Community Television:

Rural Development Through Community Television Raja Pokharapurkar, 1993 Women Dimension on Television Ila Joshi, 1991 Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes Reimagining Resources and Community Development Monica Gruezmacher, Kelly Vodden, Brennan Lowery, Amy Hudson, Kristof Van Assche, 2025-07-09 This book analyzes the experiences of communities facing major challenges relating to resource dependency and community sustainability drawing on specific examples from the Canadian province of Newfoundland and Labrador It offers a methodology of self analysis for communities facing similar challenges inspired by the ups and downs local strategies for self analysis and collaborative work toward new futures in this Canadian province Life in hundreds of small coastal settlements revolved around the cod fishery until the fishery was no more viable Communities have had to rethink their strengths reconsider their assets and imagine potential futures in the wake of events such as colonization and the collapse of the fishing industry Their experiences are relevant for other parts of the world where formerly central resources are depleted or lose their value and communities face the need for transition The capacity to imagine different futures is rooted in the ability to critically consider strengths and weaknesses alike The authors skillfully dissect and illuminate the conditions that can enable the reconsideration of local assets and narratives toward a more sustainable future The variety of these conditions ranging from social memory to public debate policy tools and institutional capacity decision arenas paths for participation and distributed strategic leadership are laid out clearly and illustrated vividly through vignettes written by individuals who participated in the events described This book culminates in a flexible yet clearly structured method of self analysis useful for communities interested in rethinking their strengths and working toward new futures This book will appeal to students scholars and professionals interested in community development and redevelopment and offers a new understanding of the mechanics of local and regional resilience Lok Sabha and Vidhan Sabha Elections, 1989-1990 S. P. Agrawal, J. C. Aggarwal, 1990 Television Publics in South Asia S M Shameem Reza, Ratan Kumar Roy, 2023-11-20 Television has a prime role to play in the formation of discursive domains in the everyday life of South Asian publics This book explores various television media practices social processes mediated political experiences and everyday cultural compositions from Bangladesh India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka With the help of country specific case studies it captures a broad range of themes which foreground the publics and their real life experiences of television in the region The chapters in this book discuss gendered television spaces women seeking solace from television in pandemic the taboo in digital TV dramas television viewership and localizing publics changing viewership from television to OTT news and public perception of death redefining the national theatrical television and post truth television news among other key issues Rich in ethnographic case studies this volume will be a useful resource for scholars and researchers of media and communication studies journalism digital media South Asian studies cultural studies sociology and social anthropology
