Rural Drives A Journey Through English Housing Policy:

Rural Drives William Hatchett,1999-10-01 Housing ,2000 Town & Country Planning ,2000 The Earthscan Reader on World Transport Policy and Practice John Whitelegg,Gary Haq,2017-09-05 Transport is now a critical problem throughout the world and it is set to get worse Whether it is traffic congestion crashes 10 million killed and injured each year noise air pollution landscape destruction or greenhouse gas emissions of which transport is the fastest growing source the damage and the costs from our current forms of transport are dangerously high and getting worse Policies and practical measures that can reduce and eliminate these problems are urgently needed This Reader contains 16 important contributions on how to improve transport globally They are based on sound science sound people centred analysis and a strong awareness of equity and human rights And they have been selected for their originality the importance of the issues they focus on the quality of their insight and their practical relevance A further 7 commissioned chapters provide informative overviews of the transport problems specific to each region of the world while the editors Introduction and Conclusion frames the discussion and lays out the scale of the challenges we face As a whole the Reader demonstrates what steps can be taken to improve both transport provision and use in both the developed and the developing world while reducing environmental and health impacts It will serve as an invaluable sourcebook for anyone researching or attempting to address the issues associated with world transport policy and practice whether students planners business people or policy makers The English Review Ford Madox Ford,1912 Handbook on Transport and Land Use João de Abreu e Silva,Kristina M. Currans,Veronique Van Acker,Robert J. Schneider,2023-06-01 Synthesizing current understandings on the relationship between transport and land use this timely Handbook proposes an agenda for research and practice that leads toward more human centered communities within an increasingly urbanized world facing rapid technological change Chapters explore the role of institutional policies and informal cultural contexts in influencing transport and land use systems before examining the impacts of transportation and land use decisions across multiple areas including equity public health climate environment and lifestyle preferences Handbook of Local and Regional Development Andy Pike,Andres Rodriguez-Pose,John Tomaney,2010-11-17 The Handbook of Local and Regional Development provides a comprehensive statement and reference point for local and regional development The scope of this Handbook s coverage and contributions engages with and reflects upon the politics and policy of how we think about and practise local and regional development encouraging dialogue across the disciplinary barriers between notions of local and regional development in the Global North and development studies in the Global South This Handbook is organized into seven inter related sections with an introductory chapter setting out the rationale aims and structure of the Handbook Section one situates local and regional development in its global context Section two establishes the key issues in understanding the principles and values that help us define what is meant by local and regional development Section three critically reviews the current diversity and variety of conceptual and theoretical approaches to local and regional development Section four address questions of government and governance Section five connects critically with the array of contemporary approaches to local and regional development policy Section six is an explicitly global review of perspectives on local and regional development from Africa Asia Pacific Europe Latin America and North America Section seven provides reflection and discussion of the futures for local and regional development in an international and multidisciplinary context With over forty contributions from leading international scholars in the field this Handbook provides critical reviews and appraisals of current state of the art conceptual and theoretical approaches and future developments in local and regional development The Future of

Families to 2030 OECD,2011-12-22 This report explores likely future changes in family and household structures in OECD countries identifies the main forces shaping the family landscape to 2030 discusses the longer term challenges and suggests policy options for managing the challenges Interpreting Rurality Gary Bosworth,Peter Somerville,2013-10-15 The British countryside is a national institution most people aspire to live there many people use it for leisure and recreation and we can all watch rural life played out on our television screen read about it in novels or consume its imagery in art and cinematography The aim of this book is to explore the way that these aspirations and perceptions influence the way that the term rural is interpreted across different academic disciplines Definitions of rural are not exact leaving room for these interpretations to have a significant impact on the meanings conveyed in different areas of research and across different economic social and spatial contexts In this book contributors present research across a range of subjects allowing critical reflections upon their personal and disciplinary interpretations of rural This resulting volume is a collection of diverse chapters that gives an emergent sense of how the notion of rural changes and blurs as the disciplinary lens is adjusted In drawing together these strands it becomes clear that human relations with rural space morph materiality into highly complex representations wherein both disadvantage and social exclusion persist within a rurality that is also commodified consumed and cherished Inclusive Transport Hans Jeekel,2018-10-29 Inclusive Transport Fighting Involuntary Transport Disadvantages offers readers profound and multifaceted insights into transportation and social equity guiding transportation and urban studies researchers planners and policy makers in evaluating potential solutions to this complex issue It considers discrimination and its societal consequences providing a needed perspective on who is left out of transportation planning and why The book is systematically divided into 2 parts Part A is problem oriented and explores the main problems to the transportation disadvantaged accessibility and affordability It looks at the consequences of non accessibility the problems non car owners face and the interplay between housing and transportation Part B is policy oriented and analyses how current policies tend to forget transport disadvantages It looks at pragmatic solutions for transport disadvantaged and ends with a design for inclusive transport being a more radical approach combining sustainability challenges people s behaviours and emotions creating more just and equitable mobility Synthesizes academic research and narratives on transport disadvantage and the transport disadvantaged linking the research with current mobility policies and practices Connects the fight on transport disadvantages with sustainable and smart mobility strategies and looks into car sharing ride sharing and individualising public transport while de individualizing car use Has an extensive usage of data figures and examples from around the world and inspiring mobility plans and policies
