Rural Industrialisation In A Modern Economy:

The First Modern Economy Jan de Vries, Ad van der Woude, 1997-05-28 The First Modern Economy provides a comprehensive economic history of the Netherlands during its rise to European economic leadership the Golden Age and subsequent decline 1500 1815 The authors argue that it was the first modern economy and defend their position with detailed analyses of its major economic sectors as well as investigations of social structure and macro economic performance Dutch economic history is placed in its European and world context and inter continental and colonial trade are discussed fully Special emphasis is placed on the environmental context of economic growth and later decline as well as on demographic developments The authors also argue that the Dutch model of development and stagnation is applicable to currently maturing economies

The Institutional Foundations of East Asian Economic Development Y. Hayami, M. Aoki, 1998-12-13 The International Economic Association was foremost in reviving professional economists concern with institutions and their impact in publications such as Economic Institutions in a Dynamic Society 1989 This volume concentrates on the states whose development has been characterised as the East Asian miracle in the light of the performance of other economies starting from similarly low income levels including India China African states especially Nigeria and Latin American countries including Brazil This comprehensive comparative survey in economic history demonstrates the external shocks and interacting domestic forces which constituted the growth dynamic Nobel Laureates Kenneth Arrow and Douglass North and past President of the IEA the late Michael Bruno are among the thirty four highly distinguished specialist contributors

The Cambridge Economic History of Modern Britain: Volume 1, Industrialisation, 1700-1860 Roderick Floud, Paul Johnson, 2004-01-15 The Cambridge Economic History of Modern Britain provides a readable and comprehensive survey of the economic history of Britain since industrialisation based on the most up to date research into the subject Roderick Floud and Paul Johnson have assembled a team of fifty leading scholars from around the world to produce a set of volumes which are both a lucid textbook for students and an authoritative guide to the subject The text pays particular attention to the explanation of quantitative and theory based enquiry but all forms of historical research are used to provide a comprehensive account of the development of the British economy Volume I covers the period 1700 1860 when Britain led the world in the process of industrialisation It will be an invaluable guide for undergraduate and postgraduate students in history economics and other social sciences

The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History, 1350-1750 Hamish Scott, 2015-07-23 This Handbook re examines the concept of early modern history in a European and global context The term early modern has been familiar especially in Anglophone scholarship for four decades and is securely established in teaching research and scholarly publishing More recently however the unity implied in the notion has fragmented while the usefulness and even the validity of the term and the historical periodisation which it incorporates have been questioned The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History 1350 1750 provides an account of the development of the subject during the past half century but primarily offers an integrated and comprehensive survey of present knowledge together with some suggestions as to how the field is developing It aims both to interrogate the notion of early modernity itself and to survey early modern Europe as an established field of study The overriding aim will be to establish that early modern is not simply a chronological label but possesses a substantive integrity Volume I examines Peoples and Place assessing structural factors such as climate printing and the revolution in information social and economic developments and religion including chapters on Orthodoxy Judaism and Islam

The Industrial Geography of Israel

Yehuda Gradus, Shaul Krakover, Eran Razin, 2006-04-10 Israel's industrial geography is unique The continuing Arab Israeli conflict has been a primary force behind government intervention in settlement patterns and has led to a major effort to disperse industry The geopolitical situation has also encouraged a policy of attempted self reliance especially for defence purposes These factors combined with an abundant human capital have given Israeli high technology industries a special place in the international division of labour The absorption of waves of mass immigration has influenced industrial development Rural industrialisation mainly by the Kibbutz communal settlement movement is another unique feature The Industrial Geography of Israel presents a comprehensive overview of industrial spatial development of Israel from the Ottoman era to present times evaluating industrial dispersal policy corporate geography high technology industries entrepreneurship and rural industrial development The spatial development of Israeli industry is set within the broader context of Israel's political and economic development and of global economic change as well as theories of industrial location and regional planning and development

Technology, Skills and the Pre-Modern Economy in the East and the West

, 2013-05-30 Technology Skills and the Pre Modern Economy investigates how technological skills and knowledge were reproduced and disseminated in the advanced agrarian societies of China India Russia and Europe in the centuries before the Industrial Revolution The book offers regional surveys of Europe China and India as well as comparative studies of building porcelain manufacturing instrument making printing and shipbuilding The authors engage with the on going debate about the great divergence between Asia and Europe and its possible causes Technology has so far had a minor role in that debate This book is bound to change that through the bold claims made by various contributors Contributors are Karel Davids S R Epstein Gijs Kessler Jan Lucassen Christine Moll Murata Patrick O'Brien Kenneth Pomeranz Maarten Prak Tirthankar Roy Richard Unger and Jan Luiten van Zanden

A Modern Economic History of Emerging Markets

(1950-2020) Ahmet Akarli, 2024-09-20 This book offers a comprehensive economic history of emerging market economies post WWII and identifies a complex web of sustainability problems that face the EMEs going forward It seeks to present a truly global perspective on the development of EMEs and the long term trends that have brought EMEs to a critical economic juncture The first section of the book charts how EMEs became tightly integrated into the global economy at rapid pace analysing economic achievements as well as imbalances and sustainability issues that have been generated over time It considers how EMEs have withstood episodes of complex structural transitions and financial shocks and offers comparative perspectives on patterns of dispersion within the EME landscape from the end of WWII to the present The second part of the book seeks to understand how EMEs might cope with the volatility brought about by a new age of disruption defined by major structural challenges to the neo liberal economic order It considers which EMEs are best positioned to respond to issues of economic inequality financial excess technological disruption and climate change what a global historical understanding of the EMEs can offer to policymakers and the impact on the EME investment landscape This book will be of interest to a broad audience including researchers of economic history and political economy as well as policymakers investment professionals and the general reader interested in global economic development The Balance Between Industry and Agriculture in Economic Development Kenneth J. Arrow,1988-11-10 Agriculture in China's Modern Economic Development Nicholas R. Lardy,1983-12-30 Explores the relationship between the Chinese peasantry and the state led economic system established by the Party after 1949 Imitation, Counterfeiting and the Quality of Goods in Modern Asian History Kazuko Furuta,Linda Grove,2017-10-12 This book focuses on the production of low quality goods the rise of markets for imitations and shoddy goods and dishonest trading practices which developed along with the expansion of global trade in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in East Asia Fake imitation counterfeit and adulterated goods have long plagued domestic and international trade While we are all familiar with contemporary attempts to control the manufacture and sales of such goods economic historians have given the subject little attention despite the fact that the growth of international trade and the lengthening of commodity chains played a major role in the spread of such practices The problem is approached in several ways Part I of the book examines the ways in which the asymmetry of product quality information was reduced and mechanisms were developed to bring greater order in the markets using case studies on cotton fiber silk pongee cotton cloth fertilizer and tea Part II of the book focuses on problems associated with imported everyday use items which are referred to here as small things and the role played by imitations of such everyday goods as soap matches glass bottles and toys in the development of the modern economies of Japan China and Taiwan The project brings together the work of an international team of scholars who offer important historical perspectives on these issues exploring the ways in which new institutions were created that continue to play a role in contemporary global economic activities
