

DSRSG/RC/HC for Iraq Visits FAO-EU Project Sites, Witnessing Empowerment of Rural and Peri-Urban Women and Youth Returnees

Bartella, Iraq – 30 August 2023

On 28 August 2023, the Deputy Special Representative of the United Nations Secretary-General for Iraq, Resident and Humanitarian Coordinator (DSRSG/RC/HC) for Iraq, Mr. Ghulam Isaccai, led a comprehensive visit to various locations across Ninewa, where diverse UN agencies have executed impactful projects.

This field visit encompassed project sites of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), effectively showcasing the accomplishments of the “Enhancing Livelihoods for Returning Farmers in Rural and Semi-Urban Areas of Ninewa Province” initiative. Funded by the European Union (EU) and executed in close partnership with the Ministry of Agriculture, this initiative has notably uplifted the livelihoods of returning women and youth in Ninewa.

Accompanied by a delegation from UN offices in Baghdad, Erbil, and Mosul, in addition to Dr. Rabee Yousif Suran, Director of Agriculture in Ninewa, extension officers, and FAO representatives, Mr. Isaccai closely observed the tangible impact of FAO’s efforts in Hamdaniya and Bartella.

During the delegation’s first visit, Nariman and Maryam, two young women from Hamdaniya, shared their inspiring journey, which left a profound impression on all present.

Listening to their story, Mr. Isaccai learned that these two resilient individuals had been twice displaced due to conflicts. Each time they were uprooted from their homes and lands, they faced the distressing loss of all their belongings. Despite these setbacks, they partnered with FAO to rebuild their lives and their dairy small business. Empowered by FAO’s provisions of equipment and comprehensive training, they gained invaluable skills.

Rural Reform and Peasant Income in China Z. Ling, 1991-04-16 This book analyses the impact of the current economic reform on the income development of peasant households in the People's Republic of China. The research is based on detailed information derived from book-keeping records of the sample households of selected regions in central China, the national statistical network, local statistics and chronicles. Moreover, the basic tools of economic analysis are applied to the main problems of the Chinese rural economy in order to gain a better understanding of the current development of China. The Chinese Economy, 1998 Social Economy in China and the World Ngai Pun, Ben Hok-bun Ku, Hairong Yan, Anita Koo, 2015-08-20 Thirty years of economic transformation has turned China into one of the major players in the global capitalist economy. However, its economic growth has generated rising problems in inequality, alienation and sustainability with the agrarian crises of the 1990s giving rise to real social outcry to the extent that they became the object of central government policy reformulations. Contributing to a paradigm shift in the theory and practices of economic development, this book examines the concept of social economy in China and around the world. It offers to rethink space economy and community in a trans-border context which moves us beyond both planned and market economies. The chapters address theoretical issues, critical reflections and case studies on the practice of social economy in the context of globalization and its attempt to create an alternative modernity. Through this, the book builds a platform for further cross-disciplinary and cross-boundary dialogue on the future of social economy in China and the world. With examples from Asia, North America, Latin America and Europe, this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese and Asian social policy and development but also those of social economy from an international perspective. Land Tenure, Agricultural Economics and Rural Development: Citations 3170-7717 : Asia, Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean, Middle East, North America, Oceania University of Wisconsin--Madison. Land Tenure Center. Library, 1987 Chinese Environment & Development, 1996 Chinese Economic Studies, 1998 Rural Revitalization Through State-led Programs Mingrui Shen, 2020-02-06 This book seeks to unravel the changes in rural governance sparked by state-led programs, evaluate the programs' implementation and refine the interpretation of governance theory with new empirical material from rural China. When it comes to rural issues in contemporary China, there is no shortage of national strategies from Coordinating Urban Rural Development in 2003 to Rural Revitalization in 2017. The rejuvenation of the countryside has attracted unprecedented policy interest. At the same time, rural governance has been subject to significant political, social and economic changes. However, comparatively little research has been conducted on the phenomenal reconnection between the state and rural society, and our previous understanding of rural governance is no longer adequate. As a result of the programs, a new model of governance is now emerging in rural China. The programs have accelerated the formation of state-private farmer partnerships while also promoting the participation of grassroots society in rural reconstruction. In the initial stage, the state's role is important to securing non governmental sectors engagement However this does not mean that the model guarantees sustainable governance in terms of land tenure reform infrastructure investment and subsidies the programs merely empower farmers and other stakeholders to engage in rural reconstruction The success of these reconstruction efforts ultimately depends on a suitable pricing mechanism for public goods provision as well as the self organization of grassroots society The Journal of Asian Studies ,1993 □□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□,1997 “□□□”□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ ,2015-06-05
