Rural Health Providers In Southwest Uganda

Mohammad A. M. Kisubi, Justus Mugaju

Rural Health Providers In Southwest Uganda:

Rural Health Providers in South-West Uganda Mohammad A. M. Kisubi, Justus Mugaju, 1999 Reproductive Rights in a Global Context Lara M. Knudsen, 2006 Examines women's access to sex education, maternity care, family planning and abortion and analyzes how much power women in diverse contexts have to negotiate sexual practices. This book is suitable for courses in women's studies, globalization, public health and political science. Decentralization and Development Partnership Fumihiko Saito, 2012-12-06 Decentralization, an essential pillar of institutional reform, is of critical importance in developing countries, particularly in regard to democratization, effective development and good governance. Uganda, since 1986 and the start of decentralization measures under Yoweri Museveni and the National Resistance Movement, has represented one of the most serious commitments in Sub-Saharan Africa. With the benefit of extensive fieldwork, Fumihiko Saito demonstrates how conflict resolution, information dissemination and encouragement of the many and varied stakeholders to form partnerships are critical to successfully bringing services closer to the people. Decentralization and Development Partnerships: Lessons from Uganda goes beyond theory to compare academic assumptions to the reality of decentralization implementation in modern Uganda. Although the process is by no means free of difficulties, Saito concludes that a win-win outcome is a real possibility. Health Providers in India Kabir Sheikh, Asha George, 2012-09-10 This volume has articles contributed by health researchers, practitioners, policy advocates, programme managers and a journalist and poems by renowned poet-physician Gieve Patel. Each presents a distinctive view of a particular group of frontline health providers based on field research or on the authors' respective experiences of working with or as providers. The health providers addressed in this volume include doctors working in the public and private sectors, nurses, public health workers, counsellors, traditional practitioners and homecare providers. Different groups of health providers face struggles at diverse frontiers: social, professional and systemic. In the context of reforming health systems, government health workers must constantly negotiate the vagaries of changing working environments and policy vacillations. For traditional and homecare providers, formal health systems and structures often only reject and exclude their contributions. Medical doctors, conversely, face difficult challenges of introspection as they tread the line between personal gain and public service. The ideas and themes that emerge in this collection not only contribute to the understanding of providers' roles as actors in the health systems and societies of contemporary India but re-examines preconceptions about this critical occupational group. This volume advances the case for a deeper appreciation of India's complex landscape of healthcare provision and of the potential roles of frontline health providers as central figures in development. Historical Dictionary of Uganda Joseph Kasule, 2022-06-22 Uganda is one of the most fascinating countries in Africa.
