Rushing Ahead to Armageddon Christopher M. Jones, 2010 The world seems to be on the brink as tensions in the Middle East are escalating daily. Russia is strengthening its ties with China. North Korea, Syria, and Iran are arming them with sophisticated military weaponry. Russia is building up its armed forces, returning to Cold War military tactics including reopening ports used by the former Soviet Union. Tensions between Israel and Iran have never been higher, with each nation poised to strike against the other in a moment's notice. Iran's nuclear ambition is well documented and is becoming a menace on the international stage. With Israel's very existence at stake, a preemptive strike against Iran's Russian-built nuclear facilities is not out of the realm of possibility. A preemptive strike by Israel could provoke a retaliatory response by Russia and her allies. It seems that in a moment's notice the events described in Ezekiel 38-39 could break out right before our eyes, or is it? For many years, contemporary prophecy writers have been telling us that we are living in the last days and the Gog and Magog alliance is one sure sign that the Rapture and the Second Coming of Christ are near. However, there is strong biblical evidence that the candidate often identified as Gog, Russia, may not in fact be the candidate that Ezekiel was referring to. Using the Bible as a guide, we can figure out who this obscure person is instead of using today's newspapers. With a long history of well-documented failed predictions by contemporary prophecy writers, maybe it's time that we begin to reevaluate today's popular interpretation of Ezekiel 38-39 in light of the Bible. Author's Bio: Christopher Jones is the church administrator for Faith Community Worship Center located in the San Francisco Bay Area where he also preaches part time.

Armageddon's Arrow Dayton Ward, 2015-05-26 An all new novel of The Next Generation expanded universe from the New York Times bestselling author. It is a new age of exploration and the USS Enterprise is dispatched to the Odyssean Pass, a region charted only by unmanned probes and believed to contain numerous inhabited worlds. Approaching a star system with two such planets, Captain Jean-Luc Picard and his crew find a massive alien vessel drifting in interstellar space for decades. Sensors detect life aboard the derelict, aliens held in suspended animation. Thought to be an immense sleeper ship, the vessel actually is a weapon capable of destroying entire worlds, the final gambit in a war that has raged for generations across the nearby system. Captain Picard is now caught in the middle of this conflict and attempts to mediate as both sides want this doomsday weapon, which was sent from the future with the sole purpose of ending the interplanetary war before it even began.
