Ruskin and Italy Alexander Bradley,1987      Ruskin and Italy Lesley John Alexander Bradley,1992      Ruskin in Italy: Letters to His Parents, 1845 John Ruskin,1972 The letters Ruskin wrote home almost daily during his Italian tour of 1845 are here fully published for the first time The tour had an immediate effect on the first two volumes of Modern Painters and marks the beginning of Ruskin's lifelong concern with Italian painting and with Italian Romanesque and Gothic architecture The letters record the influences on him his changing views and feelings and are therefore an essential document for the understanding of his development as a critic They also contribute a good deal of evidence toward the understanding of his enormously important relationship with his ageing parents Not least important the letters taken altogether make a delightful travel book for they were written not only to inform but to entertain Jacket      Ruskin in Italy John Ruskin,1972      Building Ruskin's Italy Stephen Kite,2017-07-05 Based on extensive fieldwork and research into John Ruskin's still little interpreted archival material notebooks and drawings in the Ruskin Library Lancaster University UK and elsewhere Stephen Kite offers an unprecedented account of the evolution of Ruskin's architectural thinking and observation in the context of Italy where his watching of building achieved its greatest intensity Venice naturally figures large in a work that also examines other key sites including Verona Lucca Pisa Florence Milan and Monza here the fabrics are vividly read in their contexts against the rich evidence of Ruskin's diaries his pocket book sketches architectural worksheets drawings and daguerrotypes the early form of photography and the drafts and published editions of the texts Kite presents the complex story of Ruskin's visual thinking in architecture as a narrative of deepening interpretation and representation focusing on the humbler monuments of Italy He shows how Ruskin's early picturesque naturalism was transformed by the realisation that to understand the built realities confronting him in Italy demanded a closer engagement with the substance of the stones themselves reflecting Ruskin's sense of his task as a near archaeological gleaning and gathering of remains hidden in many a grass grown court and silent pathway and lightless canal      Ruskin in Italy: letters to his parents 1845, ed John Ruskin,Harold I. Shapiro,      Ruskin and Italy Leslie J. Bradley,1986      The Venice Myth David Barnes,2015-10-06 Venice holds a unique place in literary and cultural history Barnes looks at the themes of war occupation resistance and fascism to see how the political background has affected the literary works that have come out of this great city He focuses on key British and American writers including Byron Ruskin Pound and Eliot      The Influence of Pre-Raphaelitism on Fin de Siècle Italy Giuliana Pieri,2007 This volume is the first comprehensive study of the influence of English Pre Raphaelitism on Italian art and culture in the late nineteenth century Analysis of the cultural relations between Italy and Britain has focused traditionally on the special place that Italy had in the British imagination but the cultural and artistic exchanges between the two countries have been much misunderstood This book aims to correct this imbalance by placing Pre Raphaelitism in its European context It explores the nature of its influence on Italy how it was transmitted and how it was manifested by focusing on the role of Italian

Anglophiles the English communities in Florence and Rome the writings of Gabriele D Annunzio and a number of Italian artists active in Tuscany and Rome The works of Cellini Ricci Gioja De Carolis and Sartorio in particular fully demonstrate the impact of Pre Raphaelitism on the young Italian school of painting which found in the English movement an ideal link with its glorious past on which it could build a new artistic identity These artists show that English Pre Raphaelitism was one of the most powerful single influences on fin de siecle Italian culture      The Arnoldian ,1991
