Gregory,2019-07-16 Historians of the long eighteenth century have recently recognised that this period is central both to the history of cultural production and consumption and to the history of national and regional identity Yet no book has as yet directly engaged with these two areas of interest at the same time By uniting interest in the history of culture with the history of regional identity Creating and Consuming Culture in North East England 1660 1830 is of crucial importance to a wide range of historians and intervenes in a number of highly important historical and conceptual debates in a timely and provocative way The book makes a substantial contribution to eighteenth century studies Not only do these essays demonstrate that in thinking about cultural production and consumption in the eighteenth century there are important continuities as well as changes that need to be considered but also they complicate the commonplace assumption of metropolitan led cultural change and cultural innovation Rather than the usual model of centre periphery diffusion a number of contributions show that cultural change in the provinces was happening at the same time as in or in some cases even before London The essays also indicate the complex relationship between cultural consumption and social status with some cultural forms being more inclusive than others The Statesman's Year-Book, 1996-7 B. Hunter,2016-12-27 The 133rd

edition of The Statesman s Year Book is completely revised and updated Widely respected as an authoritative and accessible reference work The Statesman s Year Book provides the basic building blocks of knowledge about any country in the world constitution and government international relations industry agriculture trade and social issues Known as a people events and statistics work this year s edition includes accounts of the latest developments in trouble spots such as Bosnia Israel and

Northern Ireland and records the results of recent elections in Italy Austria Spain and Turkey Britishness Since 1870 Paul Ward,2004-04-15 Examines the definition and redefinition of Britishness since the 1870s and looks at how Britishness has adapted to changing circumstances over time Regionalism After Regionalisation Frans Schrijver,2006 Concentrating on three countries Spain France and the United Kingdom and three regional case studies of Galicia Brittany and Wales this book offers an analysis of the development of political regionalism after regionalisation Contemporary Issues in Education David Seth Preston,2005 Following the warm reception given to The Idea of Education a volume of papers in this same Rodopi Series a second conference around similar themes was held at Oxford University and this book is the result This edited book provides the reader with a fairly representative coherent and cohesive statement of the 2003 Oxford conference Quoting the Chancellor of Paris University with regretting that in the old days lectures were more frequent but now the time taken for lectures is being spent in meeting and discussions our keynote Frank McMahon made the profound observation that some of the issues around education have been with us for a surprisingly long time Notwithstanding the longevity of some questions concerning education this book details and examines contemporary educational practice and theory and as such it is a very important work Salmond David Torrance,2012-05-23 NEW POST REFERENDUM EDITION Alex Salmond is well known in Scotland the UK and beyond as the leader of the Scottish National Party and Scotland s First Minister but relatively little is understood about Salmond as a human being what makes him a Nationalist what shaped his political views and what sort of country he believes an independent Scotland can be In this first biography with which close colleagues and friends have co operated the acclaimed political biographer David Torrance turns his attention to perhaps one of the most capable and interesting politicians Scotland has produced in the last few decades Utilising a raft of published and unpublished material Torrance charts the life and career of Alex Salmond from his schooldays his political activism at St Andrews University his early career at the Royal Bank of Scotland his election as the MP for Banff and Buchan and in greater depth than ever before his two spells as leader of the SNP and from 2007 as First Minister of Scotland The Culture of Property Jordanna Bailkin,2004-07-15 What kind of property is art Is it property at all Jordanna Bailkin s The Culture of Property offers a new historical response to these questions examining ownership disputes over art objects and artifacts during the crisis of liberalism in the United Kingdom From the 1870s to the 1920s Britons fought over prized objects from ancient gold ornaments dug up in an Irish field to a portrait of the Duchess of Milan at the National Gallery in London They fought to keep these objects in Britain to repatriate them to their points of origin and even to destroy them altogether Bailkin explores these disputes in order to investigate the vexed status of property within modern British politics as well as the often surprising origins of ongoing institutional practices Bailkin s detailed account of these struggles illuminates the relationship between property and citizenship which has constituted the heart of liberal politics as well as its greatest weakness Drawing on court transcripts gallery archives exhibition reviews private correspondence and a striking series of cartoons and photographs The Culture of Property traverses the history of gender material culture urban life colonialism Irish and Scottish nationalism and British citizenship This fascinating book challenges recent scholarship in museum studies in light of ongoing culture wars It should be required reading for cultural policy makers museum professionals and anyone interested in the history of art and Britain Shades of Gray Dietmar Böhnke,2004 William Wallace Graeme Morton,2014-10-08 A deconstruction of the national biography and mythology of William Wallace Freed from the historian's bedrock of empiricism by a lack of corroborative sources the biography of this short lived late medieval patriot has long been incorporated into the ideology of nationalism Celtic Geographies David Harvey,2002 Questions traditional conceptualisations of Celticity that rely on a homogeneous interpretation of what it means to be a Celt in contemporary society The Mid-Victorian Generation K. Theodore Hoppen,2000-06-30 This the third volume to appear in the New Oxford History of England covers the period from the repeal of the Corn Laws to the dramatic failure of Gladstone's first Home Rule Bill In his magisterial study of the mid Victorian generation Theo Hoppen identifies three defining themes The first he calls established industrialism the growing acceptance that factory life and manufacturing had come to stay It was during these four decades that the balance of employment shifted irrevocably For the first time in history more people were employed in industry than worked on the land The second concerns the multiple national identities of the constituent parts of the United Kingdom Dr Hoppen's study of the histories of Ireland Scotland Wales and the Empire reveals the existence of a variety of particular and overlapping national traditions flourishing alongside the increasingly influential structure of the unitary state The third defining theme is that of interlocking spheres which the author uses to illuminate the formation of public culture in the period This he argues was generated not by a series of influences operating independently from each other but by a variety of intermeshed political economic scientific literary and artistic developments This original and authoritative book will define these pivotal forty years in British history for the next generation
