Scottish Geographical Magazine ,1912 Broadcasting and School Education in Scotland Great Britain. Scottish Education Department,1984 The Scottish Geographical Magazine ,1912 Children, Education and Geography Lauren Hammond,Mary Biddulph,Simon Catling,John H. McKendrick,2022-11-30 This book examines the intersections between children education and geography With a particular focus on children s geographies and geographies of education the book draws upon cutting edge research to consider how geographical education can be enhanced through increased engagement with these fields The book is underpinned by the position that the lives of children and young people are inherently geographical as are educational institutions systems and processes The volume explores the ways in which the diverse relationships between children education and geography can enrich research and work with and for children and young people Chapters in this book consider how in justices are re produced through education Chapters also explore how insights generated by thinking in and across geography and education can be used to support and empower young people in both formal education and in their everyday lives Ultimately this book is written for children and young people Not as the readership but as people often marginalised in decision making at a variety of scales in education and who we contend should be at the heart of all educational thinking The book is of value to undergraduate and post graduate students interested in geography education and children s geographies as well as teachers of geography both new and experienced

The Scottish Educational Journal ,1919 Understanding Geographical and Environmental Education Michael C. Williams,1995-12-07 These papers aim to provide a substantial review of the literature pertaining to a comprehensive range of traditional and contemporary research paradigms and research methods The book is designed as a reference work for novice researchers in the fields of geographical and environmental education Geographical Teacher ,1914 Includes section Reviews and other bibliographical material The Geographical Teacher ,1914 Perspectives in Curriculum Studies Margaret Nalova Endeley ,Martha M. A. Zama ,2021-08-27 Perspectives in Curriculum Studies by Margaret Nalova Endeley and Martha Ashuntantang Zama is a comprehensive textbook for graduate students of Curriculum Studies and Instruction and a guide for education practitioners wherein they articulate contemporary curriculum concepts principles and applications in the field With illustrations from informed African perspectives the authors situate curriculum theory and practice in local contexts so that African scholars educators and others may be equipped with knowledge and skills to develop and maintain appropriate and relevant curricula for quality education Framed in sixteen chapters grouped in five parts the text begins with the exposition of basic terminology curriculum theory and foundations of the curriculum before delving profoundly into the curriculum development process The latter portion gives the reader the opportunity to explore analyse and evaluate different curriculum planning approaches and models curriculum design dimensions and patterns and procedures for the development of syllabuses textbooks and other curriculum materials Also Curriculum implementation tasks as well as strategies for evaluation of programs and courses are presented and discussed Since curriculum and instruction are highly intertwined notions instructional design is elaborately treated in two chapters bringing out its theoretical underpinnings and procedures The book closes with global perspectives of curriculum development in practice The goal here is to provide insights into trends issues and challenges not only in curriculum development but also in the curriculum field which should generate action towards the improvement of curriculum practice and spur the search for new knowledge
