today is drop dead gorgeous and that TV should be studied for its formal qualities as well as its social impact Greg M Smith analyzes Ally McBeal in terms of its aesthetic principles and narrative construction He explores how Ally s innovative use of music special effects fantasy sequences voiceovers and flashbacks structures a distinctive fictional universe while it also opens up new possibilities for televisual expression Smith also discusses the complex narrative strategies that Ally s creator David E Kelley used to develop a long running storyline and shows how these serial narrative practices can help us understand a wide range of prime time TV serials By taking seriously the art and argument of Ally McBeal Beautiful TV conclusively demonstrates that aesthetic and narrative analysis is an indispensable key for unlocking the richness of contemporary television

Human Chemistry (Volume One) Libb Thims, 2007-09-01 Human chemistry is the study of bond forming and bond breaking reactions between people and the structures they form People often speak of having either good or bad chemistry together whereby according to consensus the phenomenon of love is a chemical reaction The new science of human chemistry is the study of these reactions Historically human chemistry was founded with the 1809 publication of the classic novella Elective Affinities by German polymath Johann von Goethe a chemical treatise on the origin of love Goethe based his human chemistry on Swedish chemist Torbern Bergman's 1775 chemistry textbook A Dissertation on Elective Attractions which itself was founded on Isaac Newton's 1687 supposition that the cause of chemical phenomena may all depend upon certain forces by which the particles of bodies by some causes hitherto unknown are either mutually impelled towards each other and cohere in regular figures or are

Gestures of Love Steven Rybin,2017-05-24 Examines movie romance in light of our emotional bond to the actors and characters on screen Gestures of Love considers the viewer's enchantment with charismatic actors in film as the starting point for closely analyzing the performance of love in movies Written with a thoughtful adoration for the actors who move us Steven Rybin examines several of cinema's most beloved on screen movie couples including Katharine Hepburn and Cary Grant Myrna Loy and William Powell Carole Lombard and John Barrymore Gene Tierney and Dana Andrews Lauren Bacall and Humphrey Bogart and Rock Hudson and Dorothy Malone Using the classical genres of screwball comedy film noir and the family melodrama as touchstones Rybin places the depiction of romance in films into dialogue with the viewer's own emotional bond to the actors on the screen In doing so he offers rich new analyses of such classic films as Bringing Up Baby The Thin Man Twentieth Century Laura To Have and Have Not Tea and Sympathy Written on the Wind and more Steven Rybin's Gestures of Love presents a compelling series of close readings focused on cinematic performances from the classical Hollywood era a series of readings that not only function independently but also build and reflect on one another as the text moves forward Engagingly written and unapologetically driven by the author's own pleasures the text will appeal to readers interested in cinephilia actors in performance and classical Hollywood more generally David T Johnson author of Richard Linklater Gestures of Love is the first book to explore issues of stardom and performance through the lens of cinephilia studies Steven Rybin astutely demonstrates how a star couple's performance of love may be refracted through a viewer's love of performance. Lucid and invigorating, this book reconsiders celebrated duos from Hepburn and Grant to Bogart and Bacall to Hudson and Malone as well as the evolution of love in classical Hollywood. Rashna Wadia, Richards, author of Cinematic Flashes: Cinephilia and Classical Hollywood. The Cinema of Hal Hartley Steven Rybin, 2016-12-27 Over the course of nearly thirty years, Hal Hartley has cultivated a reputation as one of America's most steadfastly independent film directors. From his breakthrough films The Unbelievable Truth (1989), Trust (1990), and Simple Men (1992) to his recently completed Henry Fool trilogy, Hartley has honed a rigorous, deadpan and instantly recognizable film style informed by both European modernism and playful revisions of Classical Hollywood genres. Featuring new essays on this important director and his films, this collection explores Hartley's work from a variety of aesthetic, cultural, and economic contexts while also looking closely at his collaborations with actors, the contexts of his authorial reputation, his reworking of the romantic comedy and other genres, and the shifting economics of his filmmaking. This book, up to date through Hartley's latest film Ned Rifle (2014), includes new scholarship on the director's early work as well as reflections on his cinema in connection with new theories and approaches to independent filmmaking. Covering the entire trajectory of his career, including both his features and short films, the book also includes new readings of several of Hartley's seminal films, including Amateur (1994), Flirt (1995), and Henry Fool (1997).

Romantic Comedy Tamar Jeffers McDonald, 2007 Romantic Comedy offers an introduction to the analysis of one of the most popular but generally overlooked film genres. The book provides an overview of Hollywood's romantic comedy conventions, examining the iconography, narrative patterns, and ideology which inform such films. After "Happily Ever After" Maria San Filippo, 2021-05-18 This volume is intended for all readers with an interest in film media and gender studies.

Playbills to Photoplays New England Vintage Film Society Inc., 2010-12-01 They were pioneers in the most glamorous business in the world and you only know half of their story. Playbills to Photoplays reveals colorful episodes in the lives of the stars before they became stars. Everyone saw them, but few knew where they came from. This collection of essays follows some of the most famous names in show business from Vaudeville and Broadway to Hollywood, revealing a part of their lives that movie historians have neglected until now. I think this book is terrific. It's a must read for any fan of the silver screen and the days when movie stars were real stars. Morgan Loew, great grandson of Adolph Zukor, founder Paramount Pictures, and Marcus Loew, founder Loew's Theaters and MGM. Ms. Loew's choice of performers to write about is amazingly diverse and fascinating, from character actors like Conrad Veidt to major stars like Katharine Hepburn. She has written a most compelling book about their transitions from stage to film, many of the stories new to me. Wonderful Joan Benny, daughter of comedian Jack Benny, one of America's greatest entertainment icons of the 20th century, whose career included vaudeville, radio, movies, and television. A nice compilation of essays on film stars who made the transition from the stage to early talkies, with essays on Al Jolson, Mae West, Eddie Cantor, Harpo Marx, Spencer Tracy, Clark Gable, Charley Grapewin, Ed Wynn, and the Morgans.

Frank and Ralph Some essays were much better than others I loved the one on the Morgans Burns and Allen Harpo Marx and Katharine Hepburn I would highly recommend the book as it gives you a good idea what vaudeville and the Broadway stage was like in the early 20 s and what it was about these stars that allowed them to make the transition Librarything com big stars as well as a raft of character actors and decorated with dozens of striking photos perceptive close ups that make for vibrant film criticism engaging profiles of Old Hollywood icons Kirkus Performers attempting to breakthrough will find this book inspirational An Aspiring Actor Motion pictures with recorded sound known as talking pictures or talkies signaled the end of silent films and created some of the greatest entertainment icons of the twentieth century Playbills To Photoplays Stage Performers Who Pioneered the Talkies introduces a new generation to the real life struggles and careers of talented hard working early twentieth century vaudeville and stage entertainers who migrated to sound film Twenty eight essays and over one hundred photographs examine the actors before during and after the revolutionary new sound film technology catapulted many of them to superstardom during Hollywood s Golden Age Playbills To Photoplays Stage Performers Who Pioneered the Talkies explains the social political economic historical and cultural issues that shaped each performer s body of work acting technique persona and public following over time

Happy Endings in Hollywood Cinema James MacDowell, 2013-07-22 Hollywood happy ending has long been considered among the most famous and standardised features in the whole of narrative filmmaking Yet while ceaselessly invoked this notorious device has received barely any detailed attention from the field of film studies This book is thus the first in depth examination of one of the most overused and under analysed concepts in discussions of popular cinema What exactly is the happy ending Is it simply a cliché as commonly supposed Why has it earned such an unenviable reputation What does it or can it mean Concentrating especially on conclusions featuring an ultimate romantic union the final couple this wide ranging investigation probes traditional associations between the happy ending and homogeneity closure unrealism and ideological conservatism testing widespread assumptions against the evidence offered by a range of classical and contemporary films

The Oxford Handbook of the Hollywood Musical Dominic McHugh, 2022 In The Oxford Handbook of the Hollywood Musical leading scholars examine the history of a defining film genre from its very roots to the present analyzing its tropes and problems over the past 8 decades of film history
