Scrieri I:

Deification in Eastern Orthodox Theology Emil Bartos, 2007-01-01 In recent years Eastern Orthodox thought has had an increasing influence on key aspects of contemporary Western Christian thought particularly as regards the doctrine of the Trinity and mystical spirituality However the foundations and fundamental presuppositions of Eastern Christianity's theological system have remained largely unstudied and thus unknown in the West In this important study Emil Bartos examines the doctrine of deification which provides the conceptual basis for the way Staniloae and other Orthodox theologians understand the major doctrines of the Christian faith The idea that God became man that man might become God sounds almost heretical to many Western ears yet this affirmation is repeated countless times in the writings of the Eastern Fathers Beginning with the apophaticism that lies at the heart of Eastern theology Bartos examines each of the key doctrines of anthropology christology soteriology and ecclesiology as they relate to deification in Staniloae's thought Bartos' study represents not merely a contribution to contemporary dialogue between Eastern and Western theologians but also a much needed introduction to an aspect of Christian thought down the centuries that is largely neglected in the Christian West

Hitchins, 2023-10-09 Rumanian studies. An International Annual of the Humanities and Social Sciences. Vol. 4. 1976-1979

Keith Hitchins, 2023-11-13 The Syntax of Old Romanian Gabriela Pană Dindelegan, 2016-03-03 This book provides the first comprehensive overview of the syntax of old Romanian written in English and targeted at a non Romanian readership It draws on an extensive new corpus analysis of the period between the beginning of the sixteenth century the date of the earliest attested Romanian texts and the end of the eighteenth century generally considered to mark the start of the modernization of Romanian Gabriela Pană Dindelegan and her co authors adopt both a synchronic and diachronic approach by providing a detailed corpus analysis in a given period while also comparing old and modern Romanian They examine the evolution of a variety of syntactic phenomena including the elimination or diminishing of certain facts or generalization of others the total or partial grammaticalization of phenomena competition between structures and cases of syntactic variation The book takes a typological and comparative perspective focusing on those phenomena that are considered specific to Romanian either on the Romance or in the Balkan area and adopts a modern framework while still remaining accessible to readers from any background Rumanian Studies, 1970 Neoplatonism și creștinism: negație și transcendență Daniel Jugrin, 2023-05-11

Selected Poems of Tudor Arghezi Tudor Arghezi, 2015-03-08 Born in Bucharest of peasant stock Tudor Arghezi 1880 1967 was awarded Romania's National Poetry Prize in 1946 and the State Prize for Poetry in 1956. The translators of this volume have endeavored not only to convey the spirit of the original Romanian but to find an English equivalent for its sound. The English verse printed facing the Romanian conveys the distilled metaphorical nature of a poetry that expresses a strong sense of ancestral continuity and apocalyptic visions of the world. Originally published in 1976, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

Orthodox Mysticism and Asceticism Constantin Athanasiou, 2020-08-27. The scholarly contributions gathered together in this volume discuss themes related to the cultural, social and ethical dimension of St. Gregory Palamas' works. They relate his mystical philosophy and theology to contemporary debates in metaphysics, philosophy of language, ethics, philosophy of culture, political philosophy, epistemology and philosophy of religion and theology among others. The book considers a variety of topics of special interest to Christian theologians, philosophers and art historians including church and state relations, similarities and differences between Palamas, contemporary phenomenologists and philosophers of language and hesychast influences on late Byzantine iconography.

Autobiography, Volume 1 Mircea Eliade, 1990-01-16. Here finally are Eliade's memoirs of the first thirty years of his life in Mac Linscott Ricketts' crisp and lucid English translation. They present a fascinating account of the early development of a Renaissance talent expressed in everything from daily and periodical journalism, realistic and fantastic fiction and general nonfiction works to distinguished contributions to the history of religions. Autobiography follows an apparently amazingly candid report of this remarkable man's progression from a mischievous street urchin and literary prodigy through his various love affairs, a decisive and traumatic Indian sojourn and active, brilliant participation in pre-World War II Romanian cultural life. Seymour Cain, Religious Studies Review.

Re-Configuring Romanian Culture on its Way Towards Modernity Alexandra Chiriac, 2022-09-26. As a direct result of an international conference organized in the year 2021, the volume tries to shed light on the way in which the translation activity contributed to the Romanian culture and language, drawing from different traditions and cultures it came in contact with, directly or indirectly, and thus mingling the own Slavonic church tradition with the new and revolutionary ideas of the Western world and using this mix to modernise the society, language and the politics in this region. Furthermore, this eclectic collection of articles highlights the fact that it was neither the exclusive merit of the Transylvanian scholars nor of the Moldavian or Wallachian ones to have contributed decisively to the formation of the national consciousness and to the standardisation of the language, but it was rather the collaboration, the circulation of people and ideas that furthered the modernity in all three Romanian Principalities. Without disregarding the regional specificity of the Romanian Enlightenment.

the volume focuses on the interconnections of the agents involved in the cultural transfer on the networks they created for the dissemination of knowledge and political thought and on the common effort to render the new ideas and concepts of the foreign cultures in a national language that could be accessible to the Romanians Icons, Ornaments, and Other Charms of Christian Arabic Books Oana Iacubovschi, Samuel Noble, Ioana Feodorov, 2025-02-17 This edited volume collects the proceedings of the second of two conferences organized by the Typarabic project It presents the research results of the project with a focus in this second volume on decorative features of Christian Arabic manuscripts from the 18th century

Diachronic Variation in Romanian Gabriela Pană Dindelegan, Adina Dragomirescu, Rodica Zafiu, 2014-11-19 This volume represents the first work published in English dealing with the historical grammar of Romanian from a modern theoretical perspective It consists of a selection of papers focusing on the historical grammar of Romanian bringing together diverse theoretical approaches in order to address a number of key morphological and syntactic issues in the history of the morphosyntactic development of Romanian The majority of papers in this volume deal with topics in Romanian historical syntax drawing on modern research methods and current linguistic theory with a clear preference for parametric syntax The most significant areas of grammar namely the nominal domain and the verbal domain are well represented in this volume
