The Forgotten Church Glenn Daman, 2018-05-01 Winner of Christianity Today's Award of Merit for The Church Pastoral Leadership 2018 Whether it's because of the 2016 Presidential election or books like Hillbilly Elegy Americans are beginning to understand the tremendous influence people in rural areas have in our nation But rural America not urban America is also the new center of poverty Thus the rural church stands at the crossroads of strength and struggle It carries the gospel the very hope and power needed Yet its ministry efforts are hamstrung because urban and suburban churches often don't realize their need for rural churches and the rural church itself rarely understands its unique assets and values The Forgotten Church addresses these problems and provides an overview of rural ministry explores opportunities recent trends provide showcases the remarkable benefits of suburban urban and rural churches working together This book is essential for any pastor whether from the city or the sticks because we are one body and we need each other Church and Countryside Tim Gibson, 2010 Maps out a rural theology that addresses some of the concerns faced by Britain's rural population and those who minister to them This book discusses some of the relevant issues from the point of view of Christian ethics Ministry in the Countryside A. M. Ricketts, 1945 Transforming Church in Rural America Shannon O'Dell, 2010-04-01 No matter what size church you are a part of this book will challenge your traditional thinking force you to look beyond the status quo and enable you to grasp a bigger vision of what God has in store for your ministry and your leadership Ed Young Fellowship Church Shannon O'Dell's passion for the rural church in America is contagious Craig Groeschel LifeChurch tv Small church buildings dotting the countryside are home to ministries that often struggle with limited attendance no money and little expectation that change at this rural mission And it can't just be preachers It needs to be all of us Rural places lend themselves to isolated cultures and each of those cultures need biblically rooted missional strategies Every unique subculture presents a variation of ministry strategy but at the root of every missional strategy should lie biblical principles centered on an unchanging gospel The roots and remnants of religion that still remain in many rural places create some of the most wonderful opportunities for ministry But these opportunities are quickly disappearing Today's generation must be won to Christ before religious traditionalism and false Christian identity take many to hell
