Multilingualism and Mother Tongue in Medieval French, Occitan, and Catalan Narratives Catherine

Léglu, 2010-01-01 Explores the ways in which vernacular works composed in Occitan Catalan and French between the twelfth and the fifteenth centuries narrate multilingualism and its apparent opponent the mother tongue These encounters are narrated through literary motifs of love incest disguise and travel Provided by publisher Annuaire du Québec, 1928

Black is the Journey, Africana the Name Maboula Soumahoro, 2021-09-23 In this highly original book Maboula

Soumahoro explores the cultural and political vastness of the Black Atlantic where Africa Europe and the Americas were tied together by the brutal realities of the slave trade and colonialism Each of these spaces has its own way of reading the Black body and the Black experience and its own modes of visibility invisibility silence and amplification of Black life By weaving together her personal history with that of France and its abiding myth of color blindness Maboula Soumahoro highlights the banality and persistence of structural racism in France today and shows that freedom will be found in the journey and movement between the sites of the Atlantic triangle Africana is the name of that freedom How can we build and reflect on a collective diasporic identity through a personal journey What are the limits and possibilities of this endeavor when the personal journey is that of oft erased bodies and stories de humanized lives and when Black populations in Africa the Americas and Europe identify and misidentify with each other their sensibilities shaped by the particular locales in which their lives unfold This book makes an important intellectual contribution to contemporary public conversations and theoretical inquiry into race racism blackness and identity today as it probes and questions the academic methodologies that have functioned as structures of exclusion French Language Fabien Arnaud , This book includes French For Beginners French Short Stories French For Beginners This book will help you on your journey in French Don t rush through the book You can start with a lesson a day and then use and practice what you learned immediately Don t wait until you get to France to actually start speaking French Once you get through each lesson get a friend or just about anybody you can practice French with and start gabbing away The point of language is that it should be used not just learned Here s some topics covered in this book French pronunciation Verbs Useful Everyday expressions Conversations And much more French Short Stories Book Ready To Learn The French Language quickly and in a practical way with exciting short novels It is no secret that language proficiency grows through practice The more you practice a foreign language the more comfortable you will become with it For beginner French speakers it is important not only to expand your vocabulary but also to build confidence in your ability to speak read and master the language The 21 captivating French stories in this book I have included one bonus story at the end have been carefully crafted for new French speakers to help with learning new words and phrases while also strengthening your confidence by reinforcing what you already know Did you realize that you are already prepared to read short stories in French Many of us have spent so much time repeating sentences and conjugating verbs while studying a new language that we haven't realized that we can assemble that knowledge to read and understand entire stories. So how should you use this book? It is best to start at the beginning as the stories in this book will get progressively more sophisticated. Each story comes with a series of questions in French to gauge your comprehension of the story as well as a glossary of some new words or terms that were introduced in that story. If you have trouble understanding any of the questions in French, refer back to the glossary for help. Words and phrases in the questions that could be confusing are defined in the glossary as well. Each story is also followed by a short synopsis in English for readers who want to make sure they have understood the story's meaning. We recommend that you read each story using the glossary definitions if necessary and then answer the questions. You should refer to the English summaries of the stories only after you have answered the questions. The summaries are a great way to check your answers and determine how well you have understood the material, but it is important to try challenging yourself to understand the French.

Worldwide Women Writers in Paris Alison Rice, 2021. A study based on a set of filmed interviews with Francophone women writers in Paris that explores the literary phenomenon of an unprecedented number of women from around the world who have moved to Paris and become authors of written works in French.

Europe's Languages on England's Stages, 1590-1620 Marianne Montgomery, 2016-04-22. Though representations of alien languages on the early modern stage have usually been read as mocking xenophobic or at the very least extremely anxious, listening closely to these languages in the drama of Shakespeare and his contemporaries, Marianne Montgomery discerns a more complex reality. She argues instead that the drama of the early modern period holds up linguistic variety as a source of strength and offers playgoers a cosmopolitan engagement with the foreign that while still sometimes anxious complicates easy national distinctions. The study surveys six of the European languages heard on London's commercial stages during the three decades between 1590 and 1620: Welsh, French, Dutch, Spanish, Irish, and Latin, and the distinct sets of cultural issues that they made audible. Exploring issues of culture and performance raised by representations of European languages on the stage, this book joins and advances two critical conversations on early modern drama. It both works to recover English relations with alien cultures in the period by looking at how such encounters were staged and treats sound and performance as essential to understanding what Europe's languages meant in the theater.

Europe's Languages on England's Stages, 1590-1620 contributes to our emerging sense of how local identities and global knowledge in early modern England were necessarily shaped by encounters with nearby lands, particularly encounters staged for aural consumption.

Mother Tongue and Other Tongues Shula Wilson, Ali

Zarbafi,2021-07-28 We are living in times where the issue of identity and difference has taken on a more defensive hue The tide is turning towards an inward looking nostalgia of sameness based on fear rather than on understanding The experience of hearing another language the way it is spoken and being faced with the image of the other is now more complex imbued with projections of powerlessness fear terrorism and survival The issue of identity appears to have become even more complex All cultures are concerned with how we speak and communicate as this represents identity history and home Communication is also essential for survival both emotionally and socially The speaking person is an individual but also part of a culture or cultures with dense collective and individual shapes The issue of identity that feeling of belonging is essential full of possibility and at times very uncomfortable as it touches the tensions between who we are and who we are becoming This sits next to more complex historical experiences and memories of languages and cultures being changed or lost or banished due to the colonial imperial and regional moves of powerful nations in search of conquest and economic gain This collection addresses how language affects therapists and their patients and how it can be understood culturally and therapeutically Drawn from talks given at the Multi lingual Psychotherapy Centre MLPC the contributors not only bring a therapeutic slant but also their other roles as academics writers and artists These reflections memories and stories give a glimpse of the multilingual journey the MLPC has been exploring for over twenty years and leave much food for thought The book contains contributions from Cedric Bouet Willaumez Giselle China Patricia Gorringer Natsu Hattori Monique Morris Esti Rimmer and Edna Sovin

Untying the Mother Tongue Antonio Castore,Federico Dal Bo,2023-09-04 Untying the Mother Tongue explores what it might mean today to speak of someone s attachment to a particular primary language Traditional conceptions of mother tongue are often seen as an expression of the ideology of a European nation state Yet current celebrations of multilingualism reflect the recent demands of global capitalism raising other challenges The contributions from international scholars on literature philosophy and culture analyze and problematize the concept of mother tongue rethinking affective and cognitive attachments to language while deconstructing its metaphysical capitalist and colonialist presuppositions

Pathways to Language Kyra KARMILOFF,Annette Karmiloff-Smith,Kyra Karmiloff,2009-06-30 Our journey to language begins before birth as babies in the womb hear clearly enough to distinguish their mother s voice Canvassing a broad span of experimental and theoretical approaches this book introduces new ways of looking at language development A remarkable mother daughter collaboration Pathways to Language balances the respected views of a well known scholar with the fresh perspective of a younger colleague prepared to challenge current popular positions in these debates The result is an unusually subtle even handed and comprehensive overview of the theory and practice of language acquisition from fetal speech processing to the development of child grammar to the sophisticated linguistic accomplishments of adolescence such as engaging in conversation and telling a story With examples from the real world as well as from the psychology laboratory Kyra Karmiloff and Annette Karmiloff Smith look in detail at the way language users appropriate words and grammar They present in depth evaluations of different theories of language acquisition They show how adolescent usage has changed the meaning of certain phrases and how modern living has led to alterations in the lexicon They also consider the phenomenon of atypical language development as well as theoretical issues of nativism and empiricism and the specificity of human language Their nuanced and open minded approach allows readers to survey the complexity and breadth of the fascinating pathways to language acquisition Mother Tongue Tied Malwina Gudowska,2024-06-20 Brilliantly illustrates how multilingual mothers are disproportionately tasked with preserving linguistic heritage on one hand and preparing children for public society on the other all while finding a language for their own new maternal identity Eliane Glaser author of Motherhood A Manifesto It is estimated that more than half of the world s population communicates in more than one language and over a third of the population in the United Kingdom is multilingual And yet life in multiple languages is rarely discussed publicly myths and misconceptions prevail and the pressure to keep heritage languages alive has become a private conflict for millions Linguistic diversity is more prevalent than ever but so is linguistic inequality Linguist Malwina Gudowska herself trilingual sheds light on the ways in which we navigate language its power to shape and reshape lives and the ripple effects felt far beyond any one home or any one language It takes one generation for a family language to be lost One generation like mother to child Mother Tongue Tied explores the emotional weight of raising multilingual children while grappling with your own identity and notions of home At what cost does a mother save a language Or does she let it slip away and with it a part of herself her children may never know Bicultural Literature and Film in French and English Peter I. Barta,Phil Powrie,2015-12-22 This book focuses on literature and cinema in English or French by authors and directors not working in their native language Artists with hybrid identities have become a defining phenomenon of contemporary reality following the increased mobility between civilisations during the postcolonial period and the waves of emigration to the West Cinema and prose fiction remain the most popular sources of cultural consumption not least owing to the adaptability of both to the new electronic media This volume considers cultural products in English and French in which the explicitly multi focal representation of authors experiences of their native languages cultures makes itself conspicuous The essays explore work by the peripheral and those without a country while problematising what might be meant by the widely used but not always well defined term bicultural The first section looks at films by such well known filmmakers working in France as Bouchareb Kechiche Legzouli and Dridi as well as the animated feature Persepolis Here the focus is on the representation of human experience in spatial terms exploring the appropriation of territory cohabited by local people newcomers and their children haunted by the cultural memories of distant places The second part is devoted to multicultural authors whose native language was English Russian Polish Hungarian or Spanish Beckett Herzen Voeikova Triolet Conrad Hoffmann Kristof Dorfman and their creative engagement with difference A study of the emergence of multilingual writing in Montaigne and an autobiographical essay by Elleke Boehmer on growing up surrounded by English Dutch Afrikaans and Zulu frame the volume s chapters The collection relishes the freedom provided by liberation from the confines of one language and culture and the delight in creative multilingualism This book will be of significant interest to those studying the subject of biculturalism as well as the fields of comparative literature and cinema
