Mona Hatoum The Entire World As A Foreign Land:

Mona Hatoum Mona Hatoum, Edward Said, Sheena Wagstaff, 2000-03 ct ks Mona Hatoum Edward W. Said, Sheena Wagstaff, 2000 Unsettling the World Jeanne Morefield, 2022-04-29 Unsettling the World is the first book length treatment of Edward Said's influential cultural criticism from the perspective of a political theorist. Arguing that the generative power of Said's thought extends well beyond Orientalism, the book explores Said's writings on the experience of exile, the practice of contrapuntal criticism, and the illuminating potential of worldly humanism. Said's critical vision, Morefield argues, provides a fresh perspective on debates in political theory about subjectivity, global justice, identity, and the history of political thought. Most importantly, she maintains, Said's approach offers theorists a model of how to bring the insights developed through historical analyses of imperialism and anti-colonialism to bear on critiques of contemporary global crises and the politics of American foreign policy. The Migrant Image T. J. Demos, 2013-03-04 In The Migrant Image T. J. Demos examines the ways contemporary artists have reinvented documentary practices in their representations of mobile lives: refugees, migrants, the stateless, and the politically dispossessed. He presents a sophisticated analysis of how artists from the United States, Europe, North Africa, and the Middle East depict the often ignored effects of globalization and the ways their works connect viewers to the lived experiences of political and economic crisis. Demos investigates the cinematic approaches Steve McQueen, the Otolith Group, and Hito Steyerl employ to blur the real and imaginary in their films confronting geopolitical conflicts between North and South. He analyzes how Emily Jacir and Ahlam Shibli use blurs, lacuna, and blind spots in their photographs, performances, and conceptual strategies to directly address the dire circumstances of dislocated Palestinian people. He discusses the disparate interventions of Walid Raad in Lebanon, Ursula Biemann in North Africa, and Ayreen Anastas and Rene Gabri in the United States, and traces how their works offer images of conflict as much as a conflict of images. Throughout, Demos shows the ways these artists creatively propose new possibilities for a politics of equality, social justice, and historical consciousness from within the aesthetic domain. Edward Said Adel Iskandar, Adel Iskander, Hakem Rustom, 2010 This indispensable volume, a comprehensive and wide-ranging resource on Edward Said's life and work, spans his broad legacy both within and beyond the academy. The book brings together contributions from 31 luminaries to engage Said's provocative ideas. Women's Cinema Alison Butler, 2019-07-25 Women's Cinema provides an introduction to critical debates around women's filmmaking and relates those debates to a variety of cinematic practices. Taking her cue from the groundbreaking theories of Claire Johnston, Alison Butler argues that women's cinema is a minor cinema that exists inside other cinemas, inflecting and contesting the codes and systems of the major cinematic traditions from within. Using canonical directors and less established names ranging from Chantal Akerman to Moufida Tlatli as examples, Butler argues that women's cinema is unified in spite of its diversity by the ways in which it reworks cinematic conventions. Women Making Art Marsha Meskimmon, 2012-11-12 Women have been making art for centuries, yet their work has been seen as secondary or has gone unrecognized altogether Women Making Art asks why this is so and what it would take for us to realize the extent of women s extraordinary contribution to the arts Marsha Meskimmon mobilizes contemporary feminist thinking to reconsider how and why women have made art She examines work by a wide range of women artists from different cultures and historical periods including Rebecca Horn Rachel Whiteread Shirin Neshat and Maya Lin emphasizing the diversity of women s art and the importance of differences between women

Debating Orientalism Anna Bernard,David Attwell,2013-06-13 Edward Said continues to fascinate and stir controversy nowhere more than with his classic work Orientalism Debating Orientalism brings a rare mix of perspectives to an ongoing polemic Contributors from a range of disciplines take stock of the book s impact and appraise its significance in contemporary cultural politics and philosophy

Rethinking the Power of Maps Denis Wood,2010-04-16 A contemporary follow up to the groundbreaking Power of Maps this book takes a fresh look at what maps do whose interests they serve and how they can be used in surprising creative and radical ways Denis Wood describes how cartography facilitated the rise of the modern state and how maps continue to embody and project the interests of their creators He demystifies the hidden assumptions of map making and explores the promises and limitations of diverse counter mapping practices today Thought provoking illustrations include U S Geological Survey maps electoral and transportation maps and numerous examples of critical cartography participatory GIS and map art The book will be important reading for geographers and others interested in maps and their political uses It will also serve as a supplemental text in advanced undergraduate and graduate level courses such as Cartography GIS Geographic Thought and History of Geography

Ways of Reading Words and Images David Bartholomae,Tony Petrosky,2003-01-09 Adapting the methods of the much admired and extremely successful composition anthology Ways of Reading this brief reader offers eight substantial essays about visual culture illustrated with evocative photographs along with demanding and innovative apparatus that engages students in conversations about the power of images

Encyclopedia of the Palestinians Philip Mattar,2005 Presents the history of modern Palestine and biographies of important Palestinians

Art and War Laura Brandon,2012-11-25 This is a truly encyclopedic survey of artists responses both official and personal to the horrors of war Art and War reveals the sheer diversity of artists portrayals of this most devastating aspect of the human condition from the heroic paintings of Benjamin West and John Singer Sargent to brutal and iconic works by artists from Goya to Picasso and the equally oppositional work of Leon Golub Nancy Spero and others who reacted with fury to the Vietnam War Laura Brandon pays particular attention to work produced in response to World War I and World War II as well as to more recent art and memorial work by artists as diverse as Barbara Kruger Alfredo Jarr and Maya Lin She looks finally to the reactions of contemporary artists such as Langlands and Bell to the US invasion in 2001 of Afghanistan and the War on Terror

Shakespeare and Contemporary Fiction Barbara L. Estrin,2012 As the first book to use fiction as theory Shakespeare and Contemporary Fiction reads backward to demonstrate how recent novelists redeploy

foundling and lyric plots to uncover a Shakespeare who similarly challenges the mythological homogeneity that scripts us

Art after Empire Warren Carter, 2018-07-01 This book explores the relationship between art and visual culture in Europe and the wider world from the early twentieth century to the contemporary era of globalisation Artists such as Pablo Picasso explored the art of the rest of world in ways that were increasingly challenged as Eurocentric by artists such as the Surrealists The complex relationship between art politics and post colonial struggle is then investigated in the work of Diego Rivera and Mexican muralist painters and more recent installation and lens based practices including work by Ai Weiwei and Chantal Ackerman The contributors consider the roles of museums and art institutions international exhibitions and the art market alongside patterns of artistic migration across continents and the growing use of communication technologies This book is an ideal teaching aid for undergraduates in history of art and related disciplines

Places of Mind Timothy Brennan, 2021-03-23 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice The first comprehensive biography of the most influential controversial and celebrated Palestinian intellectual of the twentieth century As someone who studied under Edward Said and remained a friend until his death in 2003 Timothy Brennan had unprecedented access to his thesis adviser s ideas and legacy In this authoritative work Said the pioneer of postcolonial studies a tireless champion for his native Palestine and an erudite literary critic emerges as a self doubting tender eloquent advocate of literature s dramatic effects on politics and civic life Charting the intertwined routes of Said s intellectual development Places of Mind reveals him as a study in opposites a cajoler and strategist a New York intellectual with a foot in Beirut an orchestra impresario in Weimar and Ramallah a raconteur on national television a Palestinian negotiator at the State Department and an actor in films in which he played himself Brennan traces the Arab influences on Said s thinking along with his tutelage under Lebanese statesmen off beat modernist auteurs and New York literati as Said grew into a scholar whose influential writings changed the face of university life forever With both intimidating brilliance and charm Said melded these resources into a groundbreaking and influential countertradition of radical humanism set against the backdrop of techno scientific dominance and religious war With unparalleled clarity Said gave the humanities a new authority in the age of Reaganism one that continues today Drawing on the testimonies of family friends students and antagonists alike and aided by FBI files unpublished writings and Said s drafts of novels and personal letters Places of Mind synthesizes Said s intellectual breadth and influence into an unprecedented intimate and compelling portrait of one of the great minds of the twentieth century

Performing the Iranian State Staci Gem Scheiwiller, 2013-02-15 This book discusses what it means to perform the State what this action means in relation to the country of Iran and how these various performances are represented The concept of the State as a modern phenomenon has had a powerful impact on the formation of the individual and collective as well as on determining how political entities are perceived in their interactions with one another in the current global arena

Edward Said H. Aram Veaser, 2010-05-10 This insightful critical biography shows us an Edward Said we did not know H Aram Veaser brings forth not the Said of tabloid culture or Said the remote philosopher but the actual man embedded in the politics of the Middle East but soaked in the values of the West and struggling to advance the best European ideas Veesser shows the organic ties connecting his life politics and criticism Drawing on what he learned over 35 years as Said's student and skeptical admirer Veesser uses never before published interviews debate transcripts and photographs to discover a Said who had few inhibitions and loathed conventional routine He stood for originality loved unique ideas wore marvelous clothes and fought with molten fury For twenty years he embraced and rejected at the same time not only the West but also literary theory and the PLO At last his disgust with business as usual politics and criticism marooned him on the sidelines of both The candid tale of Said's rise from elite academic precincts to the world stage transforms not only our understanding of Said the man and the myth but also our perception of how intellectuals can make their way in the world

Migration Across Boundaries Parvati Nair,Tendayi Bloom,2016-03-03 Bringing together scholars and practitioners from a range of disciplinary backgrounds working in Europe North and South America South Asia and the Middle East this volume explores the question of how to ensure that migration research feeds back into improving the lives of migrants It emphasises the necessarily interdisciplinary and cross boundary nature of migration research offering methodological recommendations to anyone studying or working in the field and showing how migration studies can usefully affect real contexts by better exploring the potential that exists for both bridging academic disciplines and building links with work that occurs beyond strictly academic forums Organised around the themes of methodological considerations and interdisciplinary approaches the experiences of migrants as researchers and interaction between practitioners policy makers and academics Migration Across Boundaries discusses the realities of the discourses that surround international migration examining the proper role of academia in bringing together a range of stakeholders to formulate dialogic approaches to understanding migration An international and interdisciplinary contribution to our understanding of how research in migration can be brought to bear on the experiences of migrants and linked to the work of activists artists and policy makers this book will appeal not only to scholars and students of migration across the social sciences but also to those working in the fields of migrant advocacy and activism

The Migrant's Time Saloni Mathur,2011-09-27 The conditions of alienation and exclusion are inextricably linked to the experience of the migrant This ground breaking volume explores both the increasing emergence of the theme of migration as a dominant subject matter in art as well as the ways in which the varied mobilities of a globalized world have radically reshaped art's conditions of production reception and display In a wide ranging selection of essays fourteen distinguished scholars in the fields of visual studies art history literary studies global studies and art criticism explore the universality of conditions of global migration and interdependence inviting a rethinking of existing perspectives in postcolonial transnational and diaspora studies and laying the foundation for empirical and theoretical directions beyond the terms of these traditional frameworks investigates approaches to community heritage within the Arab region and the underlying theories associated with these approaches. It aims within the context of the region to define community and heritage as well as examine the emergence and development of this field. The volume's contributors deploy a wealth of case studies from the Middle East and North Africa to provide a unique forum for discussion, comparability analysis and deeper understandings of current trends in community heritage. In particular, the volume explores the relationship between communities and their heritage, the meanings and values placed upon it, the nature and degree of community participation and engagement in its interpretation and management and how its different registers affect and produce sometimes unexpected community heritage formations. It also examines the level of responsibility held within the profession towards this essentially democratic process of public participation in their heritage in a region shaped by controversial histories, political turmoil and tourism-driven economies. The volume builds on current research and practice in community heritage globally by debating and re-centring a suite of familiar and new issues related to hitherto under-researched regional specific methodologies and developing fresh insight into the theoretical underpinning of these practices. It will be of value to heritage scholars and practitioners as well as those interested in politics, identity, education and the dynamics of heritage-based sustainable development.
