Monday Monday I Like Monday:

Monday, Monday, I Like Monday Bill Martin, 1970 Illustrations and brief rhymes for each day of the week Monday, Monday Elizabeth Crook, 2014-04-29 On a Monday in August of 1966 a student and former marine named Charles Whitman hauled a footlocker of guns to the top of the University of Texas tower and began firing on pedestrians below the first mass shooting of civilians on a campus in American history Shelly left her math class and walked directly into the path of the bullets two cousins Wyatt and Jack rushed from their classrooms to help the victims A relationship begins that will eventually entangle these three young people in a forbidden love affair an illicit pregnancy and a vow of secrecy that will span forty years The Girls Who Went Away Ann Fessler, 2007-06-26 The astonishing untold history of the million and a half women who surrendered children for adoption due to enormous family and social pressure in the decades before Roe v Wade It would take a heart of stone not to be moved by the oral histories of these women and by the courage and candor with which they express themselves The Washington Post A remarkably well researched and accomplished book The New York Times Book Review A wrenching riveting book Chicago Tribune In this deeply moving and myth shattering work Ann Fessler brings out into the open for the first time the hidden social history of adoption before Roe v Wade and its lasting legacy An adoptee who was herself surrendered during those years and recently made contact with her mother Ann Fessler brilliantly brings to life the voices of more than a hundred women as well as the spirit of those times allowing the women to tell their stories in gripping and intimate detail 18 Poems from the Heart W. Taylor, 2013-10-03 I have always wanted to create poems of feeling and love pain and anger that I have felt in life I would like to publish them and make a life of writing my feelings and insights Some insights are born of problems of my own creation some not One insight is that I have been wanting to write and have the work in print before more than just me If most of my work were read it would have to do with my search for Love and my need to be committed to someone I always seem to be involved but not fully committed I ask myself time and time again am I incapable of being committed or has the person I would commit too come and pass in my many involvements At this point in my life I don't know what the lord has in store for me in this respect but I keep Hoping I have been involved with some of the most fantastic Black women in the world of every day Black women Light ones Dark ones American Non American all of them Great I am starting to believe the problem of which I speak was not with them but with ME A Treasury of Nebraska Pioneer Folklore Roger L. Welsch, 1966-01-01 Folklore tells us something about almost every aspect of the life of the people This rich and entertaining collection of Nebraska pioneer folklore taken largely from the Nebraska Folklore Pamphlets issued by the Federal Writers Project in the 1930s is intended first and foremost for the general reader for the people whose heritage it is Songs of trail and prairie and of the Farmers Alliance white man's yarns and Indian tales pioneer Nebraska folk customs sayings proverbs beliefs children's games cooking and cures these wondrously entertaining kaleidoscopic reflections of the people and environment that were inspirations of the classic literature of Mari Sandoz and Willa Cather to name two could be a model for Americana collectors in other states to emulate
