Le Nouveau Monde, mondes nouveaux Serge Gruzinski, Nathan Wachtel, 1996      Les mondes nouveaux Paulin Niboyet, 1855      Des mondes nouveaux (1830-1871) Daniel Prigent, François Tichey, 1990-01-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une r dition num rique d un livre paru au XXe si cle d sormais indisponible dans son format d origine      Les Mondes nouveaux de la biologie François Gros, 2012-01-19 La biologie connait une v ritable r volution Marqu e au cours des trois derni res d cennies du xxe si cle par les d couvertes de la biologie mol culaire du g nie g n tique et de la g nomique la biologie enregistre aujourd hui des avanc es sans pr c dent notamment avec la nouvelle biologie de synth se De la chimie biomim tique qui vise forger des mol cules artificielles pr sentant des propri t s rappelant celles des enzymes la biologie synth tique qui entreprend de remplacer les g nomes naturels par des g nomes artificiels de la post g nomique au nouveau monde de l ARN des applications biotechnologiques et pharmacologiques aux avanc es d cisives pour la compr hension et bient t le traitement des grandes pathologies comme les cancers ou les maladies du syst me nerveux de Jean Marie Lehn Craig Venter ce livre nous fait assister aux d couvertes les plus r centes et les plus importantes pour notre avenir Fran ois Gros est professeur honoraire au Coll ge de France et membre de l Acad mie des sciences Il est l auteur de nombreux livres notamment Les Secrets du g ne L Ing nierie du vivant et M moires scientifiques qui ont t de tr s grands succ s      Exile and Nation-State Formation in Argentina and Chile, 1810-1862 Edward Blumenthal, 2019-10-23 This book traces the impact of exile in the formation of independent republics in Chile and the R o de la Plata in the decades after independence Exile was central to state and nation formation playing a role in the emergence of territorial borders and Romantic notions of national difference while creating a transnational political culture that spanned the new independent nations Analyzing the mobility of a large cohort of largely elite political migr s from Chile and the R o de la Plata across much of South America before 1862 Edward Blumenthal reinterprets the political thought of well known figures in a transnational context of exile As Blumenthal shows exile was part of a reflexive process in which elites imagined the nation from abroad while gaining experience building the same state and civil society institutions they considered integral to their republican nation building projects      The Faith of Remembrance Nathan Wachtel, 2013-02-21 In a series of intimate and searing portraits Nathan Wachtel traces the journeys of the seventeenth and eighteenth century Marranos Spanish and Portuguese Jews who were forcibly converted to Catholicism but secretly retained their own faith Fleeing persecution in their Iberian homeland some sought refuge in the Americas where they established transcontinental networks linking the New World to the Old The Marranos at once Jewish and Christian outsiders and insiders nurtured their hidden beliefs within their new communities participating in the economic development of the early Americas while still adhering to some of the rituals and customs of their ancestors In a testament to the partial assimilation of these new arrivals their faith became ever more syncretic mixing elements of Judaism with Christian practice and theology In many cases the combination was fatal Wachtel relies on inquisitorial archives of trials and executions to chronicle legal and religious prosecutions for heresy From the humble Jean Vicente to the fabulously wealthy slave trafficker Manuel Bautista Perez from the untutored Theresa Paes de Jesus to the learned Francisco Maldonado de Silva each unforgettable figure offers a chilling reminder of the reach of the Inquisition Sensitive to the lingering tensions within the Marrano communities Wachtel joins the concerns of an anthropologist to his skills as a historian and in a stunning authorial move he demonstrates that the faith of remembrance remains alive today in the towns of rural Brazil

Alleviative Objects David Frohnapfel, 2020-12-07 The global field of contemporary art is shaped by inter racial conflicts Alleviative Objects approaches Caribbean art through intersectional entanglements and combines decolonial epistemologies with critical whiteness studies and affect theory in order to rethink Euro and U S centric perspectives on art race and class David Frohnapfel shows how progressive racism in the discourse on Haitian art recenters Whiteness by performing benign innocent and heroic identifications with the artist group Atis Rezistans While the study turns critically towards Whiteness it also turns away from it and towards the compelling contributions of Haitian curators and artists to the decentralization of contemporary art

The Mongol Archive in Late Medieval France Mark Cruse, 2025-02-15 The Mongol Archive in Late Medieval France is the first comprehensive study of contact between France and the Mongols in the late Middle Ages As these realms expanded across Eurasia the French through crusade and settlement the Mongols through conquest their encounters altered each other s understanding of the world and their place in it The Mongol influence on French culture is visible in what Mark Cruse calls the Mongol archive a wide range of materials including chronicles crusade treatises encyclopedias manuscript illuminations maps romances and travel accounts revealing how the French court made sense of a people previously unknown to the European intellectual tradition Cruse mines this archive of Franco Mongol contact to reassess France s place in the continental history of medieval Eurasia By comparing the French and Mongol courts Cruse shows how their similarities allowed meaningful communication between them and highlights the surprising connections diplomatic intellectual and genealogical across vast distances The library of King Charles V r 1364 1380 one of the largest in medieval Europe is a monument to the richness of these encounters which anticipate the global interconnectedness of the modern world Ultimately the innovative approach in The Mongol Archive in Late Medieval France toward French conceptions of and relations with the Mongols demonstrates how a global perspective transforms our understanding of the medieval world

Majesty in Canada Colin MacMillan Coates, 2006-02-04 Examines how Canadians have understood their ties to royalty and how the regal principle influenced our national identity

The Passion of Charles Péguy Glenn H. Roe, 2014 In many ways the development of twentieth century literary criticism and theory can be seen as a prolonged struggle against the pervading influence of nineteenth century positivist historicism Anglo American New Criticism and later French Post structuralism and Deconstruction are the best known instances of this conflict Less widely known but no less important to contemporary literary studies are Charles P guy s earlier debates with French academic historicism in the years leading up to World War One First examined by Antoine Compagnon in his ground breaking work La Troisième République des lettres in 1983 it is a period in French literary and cultural history that remains some thirty years later largely untreated in English This book thus addresses an important albeit relatively unexplored moment in the development of twentieth century literary history and theory By way of P guy s foundational polemics with modernity and his role in the related crisis of historicism we gain a better understanding of the critical basis from which similar anti positivist and anti historicist critiques were later enacted on both sides of the Atlantic In situating P guy s passions and polemics within the larger cultural and historical context Glenn H Roe invites us to reconsider and re evaluate P guy s place among twentieth century literary figures Beyond its literary critical aspects The Passion of Charles P guy provides a general view of early twentieth century debates related to the role of literary studies in modern society the reform of the French educational system and the formation of literary history as an academic discipline in both France and abroad

Kickstarting Italian Opera in the Andes José Manuel Izquierdo König, 2023-01-26 During the 19th century Italian opera became truly transatlantic and its rapid expansion is one of the most exciting new areas of study in music and the performing arts Beyond the Atlantic coasts opera searched for new spaces to expand its reach This Element discusses about the Italian opera in Andean countries like Chile Peru Ecuador and Bolivia during the 1840s and focuses on opera as a product that both challenged and was challenged in the Andes by other forms of performing arts behaviours technologies material realities and business models

French Individualist Poetry 1686-1760 Robert Finch, Eugène Joliat, 1971-12-15 This anthology has a double aim to present a body of poetry none of it easily available some of it never before reproduced and to point up a particular trend until now nearly lost sight of in the maze of generalizations about eighteenth century French poetry This trend called individualist in contradistinction to the academic and universalist trends of the century has been chosen since it is the least known and most original of the three The individualist poets are avowed moderns and their attitude toward poetry and their concept of its nature often anticipate attitudes held by our poets of our own time There has not been available to this point a sufficiently representative body of poems by these poets a gap that Professors Finch and Joliat have attempted to fill with their anthology Readers will find the notes to the poems especially useful since many of them provide out of the way background material and as well offer new insights into the poetry of the individualist poets as a group

Translation Revisited Mamadou Diawara, Elísio S. Macamo, Jean-Bernard Ouédraogo, 2019-01-17 How realistic is it to expect translation to render the world intelligible in a context shaped by different historical trajectories and experiences Can we rely on human universals to translate through the unique and specific webs of meaning that languages represent If knowledge production is a kind of translation then it is fair to assume that the possibility of translation has largely rested on the idea that Western experience is the repository of these human universals against the background of which different human experiences can be rendered intelligible The problem with this assumption however is that there are limits to Western claims to universalism mainly because these claims were at the service of the desire to justify imperial expansion This book addresses issues arising from these claims to universalism in the process of producing knowledge about diverse African social realities It shows that the idea of knowledge production as translation can be usefully deployed to inquire into how knowledge of Africa translates into an imperial attempt at changing local norms institutions and spiritual values Translation in this sense is the normalization of meanings issuing from a local historical experience claiming to be universal The task of producing knowledge of African social realities cannot be adequately addressed without a prior critical engagement with how translation has come to shape our ways of rendering Africa intelligible

The Military Enlightenment Christy L. Pichichero, 2017-11-15 The Military Enlightenment brings to light a radically new narrative both on the Enlightenment and the French armed forces from Louis XIV to Napoleon Christy Pichichero makes a striking discovery the Geneva Conventions post traumatic stress disorder the military band of brothers and soldierly heroism all found their antecedents in the eighteenth century French armed forces Readers of The Military Enlightenment will be startled to learn of the many ways in which French military officers administrators and medical personnel advanced ideas of human and political rights military psychology and social justice

Martin Waldseemüller's 'Carta marina' of 1516 Chet Van Duzer, 2019-10-09 This open access book presents the first detailed study of one of the most important masterpieces of Renaissance cartography Martin Waldseemüller's Carta marina of 1516 By transcribing translating into English and detailing the sources of all of the descriptive texts on the map as well as the sources of many of the images the book makes the map available to scholars in a wholly unprecedented way In addition the book provides revealing insights into how Waldseemüller went about making the map information that can't be found in any other source The Carta marina is the result of Waldseemüller's radical re-evaluation of what a world map should be he essentially started from scratch when he created it rejecting the Ptolemaic model and other sources he had used in creating his 1507 map and added more descriptive texts and a wealth of illustrations Given its content the book offers an essential reference work not only on this map but also for anyone working in sixteenth century European cartography

Religion and Empire in Portuguese India Ângela Barreto Xavier, 2022-03-01 How did the colonization of Goa in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries take place How was it related to projects for the conversion of Goan colonial subjects to Catholicism In Religion and Empire in Portuguese India Ângela Barreto Xavier examines these questions through a reading of the relevant secular and missionary archives and texts She shows how the twin drives of conversion and colonization in Portuguese India resulted in a variety of outcomes ranging from negotiation to passive resistance to moments of extreme violence Focusing on the rural hinterlands rather than the city of Goa itself Barreto Xavier shows how Goan actors were able to seize hold of complex cultural resources in order to further their own projects and narrate their own myths and histories In the process she argues Portuguese Goa emerged as a space with a specific identity that was a result of these contestations and interactions The book de essentializes the categories of colonizer and colonized making visible instead their inner group diversity of interests their different modes of identification and the specificity of local dynamics in their interactions and exchanges in other words the several threads that wove the fabric of colonial life

The Mestizo Mind Serge Gruzinski, 2013-10-18 Mestizo a person of mixed blood specifically a person of mixed European and American Indian ancestry Serge Gruzinski the renowned historian of Latin America offers a brilliant original critique of colonization and globalization in The Mestizo Mind Looking at the fifteenth century colonization of Latin America Gruzinski documents the m lange that resulted colonized mating with colonizers Indians joining the Catholic Church and colonial government and Amerindian visualizations of Jesus and Perseus These physical and cultural encounters created a new culture a new individual and a phenomenon we now call globalization Revealing globalization s early origins Gruzinski then fast forwards to the contemporary m lange seen in the films of Peter Greenaway and Wong Kar Wai to argue that over 500 years of intermingling has produced the mestizo mind a state of mixed thinking that we all possess A masterful alchemy of history anthropology philosophy and visual analysis The Mestizo Mind definitively conceptualizes the clash of civilizations in the style of Homi Bhabha Gayatri Spivak and Anne McClintock

Latin America Mauricio Tenorio-Trillo, 2020-02-06 Latin America is a concept firmly entrenched in its philosophical moral and historical meanings And yet Mauricio Tenorio Trillo argues in this landmark book it is an obsolescent racial cultural idea that ought to have vanished long ago with the banishment of racial theory Latin America The Allure and Power of an Idea makes this case persuasively Tenorio Trillo builds the book on three interlocking steps first an intellectual history of the concept of Latin America in its natural historical habitat mid nineteenth century redefinitions of empire and the cultural political and economic intellectualism second a serious and uncompromising critique of the current Latin Americanism which circulates in United States based humanities and social sciences and third accepting that we might actually be stuck with Latin America Tenorio Trillo charts a path forward for the writing and teaching of Latin American history Accessible and forceful rich in historical research and specificity the book offers a distinctive conceptual history of Latin America and its many connections and intersections of political and intellectual significance Tenorio Trillo s book is a masterpiece of interdisciplinary scholarship
