Mondo Cane:

Mondo Cane ,1962 "New" Exoticisms ,2022-04-19 All civilisations have both feared and been fascinated by what lies beyond their limits and have to a greater or lesser extent construed their others as exotics Given that even in its most consumerist fashion the adoption of the exotic goes back a long way what then if anything is new in contemporary versions of exoticism This volume attempts to offer some answers to this question The first of its three sections serves as an extended introduction to the concept and practice of exoticism considering the phenomenon from a number of theoretical and critical positions explicitly examining sometimes via significant examples the particular attributes of exoticism The second and third sections are more strictly text based relying on the analysis of specific instances of film in the former and literature in the latter in order to tease out some specific uses of the exotic whether ethnic gendered sexual or other This volume will be of interest to scholars and students working in the fields of representation cultural theory postcolonialism gender ethnicity sexuality cinema and literature Snuff Neil Jackson,Shaun Kimber,Johnny Walker,Thomas Joseph Watson,2016-01-28 Brings together scholars from film and media studies for the definitive academic study of real death on screen from horror cinema to pornography to online shock videos Digital Business Veselin Rakocevic,Katarina Stanoevska-Slabeva,Luigi Telesca,2010-01-13 This volume contains the proceedings of the First International ICST Conference on Digital Business DigiBiz 2009 hosted by City University London in London UK This annual event had the main objective to stimulate and disseminate research results and experimentation on future Digital Business to a wider multidisciplinary forum that would allow the participants to cross the boundaries between research and business The scientific offering in e business e commerce and ICT in general is quite broad and spans many different research themes involving several communities and methodologies The growth and dynamic nature of these research themes pose both challenges and opportunities The challenges are in having scientists and practitioners talk to each other despite the fact that they work on similar problems they often use very different languages in terms of research tools and approaches The opportunities on the other hand arise when scientists and practitioners engage in multidisciplinary discussions leading to new ideas projects and products killing for culture David Kerekes,David Slater,2016-06-03 Unlike images of sex which were clandestine and screened only in private images of death were made public from the onset of cinema The father of the modern age Thomas Edison fed the appetite for this material with staged executions on film Little over a century later the executions are real and the world is aghast at brutalities freely available online at the click of a button Some of these films are created by lone individuals using shaky camera phones Luka Magnotta for instance and the teenagers known as the Dnipropetrovsk maniacs Others are shot on high definition equipment and professionally edited by organized groups such as the militant extremists ISIS KILLING FOR CULTURE explores these images of death and violence and the human obsession with looking and not looking at them Beginning with the mythology of the so called snuff film and its evolution through popular culture this book traces death and the artifice of death in the mondo documentaries that emerged in the 1960s and later the faux snuff pornography that found an audience through Necrobabes and similar websites However it is when videos depicting the murders of Daniel Pearl and Nick Berg surfaced in the 2000s that an era of genuine atrocity commenced one that has irrevocably changed the way in which we function as a society

The Vatican Versus Horror Movies Matt Rogerson,2025-02-04 Since public audiences were first introduced to the medium of film in 1895 the Catholic Church has sought to impose its will on the distribution and exhibition of movies These activities include the fortnightly publication of the Segnalazioni Cinematografiche which passed Catholic moral judgment on every film released In this pamphlet and in other settings no set of filmmakers has invited the ire of the Vatican as much as those working in the genres of horror and exploitation At times filmmakers have responded in kind attacking the Catholic church directly and indirectly presenting clergy as outright antagonists and shining a light on the Vatican s crimes past and present including its collusion with fascism Translating the judgments of the Segnalazioni Cinematografiche into English for the first time and juxtaposing them with film content and social and historical context this book presents in full the cultural conflict between the Vatican and horror movies
