Memories and Silences Haunted by Fascism Daniela Baratieri, 2010 Fascist and colonial legacies have been determinant in shaping how Italian colonialism has been narrated in Italy till the late 1960s This book deals with the complex problem of public memory and discursive amnesia The detailed research that underpins this book makes it no longer possible to claim that after 1945 there was an absolute and traumatic silence concerning Italy's colonial occupation of North and East Africa However the abiding public use of this history confirms the existence of an extremely selective and codified memory of that past The author shows that colonial discourse persisted in historiography newspapers newsreels and film Popular culture appears intertwined with political and economic interests and the power inscribed in elite and scientific knowledge While readdressing the often mistaken historical time line that ignores that actual Italian colonial ties did not end with the fall of Fascism but in 1960 with Somalia becoming independent this book suggests that a new post Fascist Italian identity was the crucial issue in reappraisals of a national colonial past

Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2020-12-08 Italian cinema is now regarded as one of the great cinemas of the world Historically however its fortunes have varied Following a brief moment of glory in the early silent era Italian cinema appeared to descend almost into irrelevance in the early 1920s A strong revival of the industry which gathered pace during the 1930s was abruptly truncated by the advent of World War II The end of the war however initiated a renewal as films such as Roma città aperta Rome Open City Sciusci Shoeshine 1946 and Ladri di biciclette Bicycle Thieves 1948 flagbearers of what soon came to be known as Neorealism attracted unprecedented international acclaim and a reputation that only continued to grow in the following years as Italian films were feted worldwide Ironically they were celebrated nowhere more than in the United States where Italian films consistently garnered the lion's share of the Oscars with Lina Wertmüller becoming the first woman to ever be nominated for the Best Director award This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on major movements directors actors actresses film genres producers industry organizations and key films This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Italian Cinema
