

The background of the entire cover is a reproduction of a painting by J.M.W. Turner titled 'Rainy Day, Great River Bridge, London' (1843). It depicts a rainy scene in London with a bridge in the background and a boat in the foreground. The painting is characterized by its soft, atmospheric quality and use of color, particularly the various shades of blue and green. Pompeii in the Visual and Performing Arts Mirella Romero Recio, 2023-05-18 This volume examines the influence that Pompeii and to a lesser extent Herculaneum had on the visual and performing arts in Spain and countries across South America Covering topics from architecture painting and decorative arts to theatre dance and photography the reader will gain insight into the reception of classical antiquity through the analysis of the close cultural ties between both sides of the Atlantic in the past and the present Each contribution has been written by a specialist researcher participating in the project The Reception and Influence of Pompeii and Herculaneum in Spain and Ibero America funded by the Spanish Ministry of Science and Innovation PGC2018 093509 B I00 Ministry of Science and Innovation AEI ERDF EU Pompeii in the Visual and Performing Arts begins by examining the influence of Pompeiiian architecture in Spain in paintings that depict scenes inspired by Roman scenes and also buildings modelled on those of Pompeii Next the influence of Pompeii crosses the Atlantic to Mexico with a study of the archaeological site's influence on the visual and performing arts. An exploration of the elitist use of the ancient past in architecture is seen in Chilean architecture which leads onto an investigation of the new art styles that emerged in the 19th century. Later chapters look into the influence of the ancient frescoes and the use of modern plaster casts of statues. The final chapters are devoted to comics and photography which also make a study of the places in Latin America nicknamed Pompeii in the 20th and 21st centuries.
