Conceptual Art Alexander Alberro, Blake Stimson, 2000-08-25

This landmark anthology collects for the first time the key historical documents that helped give definition and purpose to the conceptual art movement. Compared to other avant garde movements that emerged in the 1960s, conceptual art has received relatively little serious attention by art historians and critics of the past twenty-five years, in part because of the difficult intellectual nature of the art. This lack of attention is particularly striking given the tremendous influence of conceptual art on the art of the last fifteen years, on critical discussion surrounding postmodernism, and on the use of theory by artists, curators, critics, and historians. This landmark anthology collects for the first time the key historical documents that helped give definition and purpose to the movement. It also contains more recent memoirs by participants as well as critical histories of the period by some of today's leading artists and art historians. Many of the essays and artists' statements have been translated into English specifically for this volume. A good portion of the exchange between artists, critics, and theorists took place in difficult-to-find limited edition catalogs, small journals, and private correspondence. These influential documents are gathered here for the first time along with a number of previously unpublished essays and interviews.

Bakhtin Reframed Deborah J. Haynes, 2013-03-18

Legendary philosopher and literary critic Mikhail Bakhtin (1895-1975) developed concepts which are bywords within poststructuralist and new historicist literary criticism and philosophy, yet have been underutilised by artists, art historians, and art critics. Deborah Haynes aims to adapt Bakhtin's concepts, particularly those developed in his later works, to an analysis of visual culture and art practices, addressing the integral relationship of art with life, the artist as creator, reception, and the audience and context, intertextuality. This provides both a new conceptual vocabulary for those engaged in visual culture, ideas such as answerability unfinalizability heteroglossia chronotope and the carnivalesque defined in the glossary and a new practical approach to historical analysis of generic breakdown and narrative re emergence in contemporary art Haynes uses Bakhtinian concepts to interpret a range of art from religious icons to post Impressionist painters and Russian modernists to demonstrate how the application of his thought to visual culture can generate significant new insights Rehabilitating some of Bakhtin s neglected ideas and reframing him as a philosopher of aesthetics Bakhtin Reframed will be essential reading for the huge community of Bakhtin scholars as well as students and practitioners of visual culture

Davis, Mark F Shadle, 2007-04-23 Formulaic ways to train students in composition and rhetoric are no longer effective say authors Robert L Davis and Mark F Shadle Scholar teachers must instead reinvent the field from the inside Teaching Multiwriting Researching and Composing with Multiple Genres Media Disciplines and Cultures presents just such a reinvention with multiwriting an alternative open approach to composition Seeking to open the minds of both writers and readers to new understandings the authors argue for the supplanting of the outdated research paper assignment with research projects that use multiple forms to explore questions that cannot be fully answered This innovative volume geared to composition teachers at all levels includes sixteen helpful illustrations and provides classroom exercises and projects for each chapter

Nominalism and Its Aftermath: The Philosophy of Nelson Goodman

Dena Shottenkirk, 2009-06-25 Nelson Goodman s disparate writings are often written about only within their own particular discipline such that the epistemology is discussed in contrast to others epistemology the aesthetics is contrasted with more traditional aesthetics and the ontology and logic is viewed in contrast to both other contemporary philosophers and to Goodman s historical predecessors This book argues that that is not an adequate way to view Goodman The separate disciplines of ontology epistemology and aesthetics should be viewed as sequential steps within his thought such that each provides the ground rules for the next section and furthermore providing the reasons for limitations on the terms available to the subsequent writing s This is true not merely because this is the general chronology of his writing but more importantly because within his metaphysics lies Goodman s basic nominalist ontology and logic and it is upon those principles that he builds his epistemology and furthermore it is the sum of both the metaphysics and the epistemology with the nominalist principle as the guiding force which constructs the aesthetics At the end of each section of this book the consequent limitations imposed on his terms and concepts available to him are explicated such that by the end of the book the book delineates the constraints imposed upon the aesthetics by both the metaphysics and the epistemology This book will benefit not only the professionals in the field of philosophy but will also help both graduate and upper level undergraduate students understand Goodman s disparate writings within their proper context and hopefully will also encourage them to view philosophical thinking in a less truncated and departmentalized way

The Legends of the Modern Didier Maleuvre,2019-11-28 What made art modern What is modern art The Legends of the Modern demystifies the ideas and legends that have shaped our appreciation of modern art and literature Beginning with an examination of the early modern artists Shakespeare Michelangelo and Cervantes Didier Maleuvre demonstrates how many of the foundational works of modern culture were born not from the legendry of expressive freedom originality creativity subversion or spiritual profundity but out of unease with these ideas This ambivalence toward the modern has lain at the heart of artistic modernity from the late Renaissance onward and the arts have since then shown both exhilaration and disappointment with their own creative power The Legends of the Modern lays bare the many contradictions that pull at the fabric of modernity and demonstrates that modern art s dissatisfaction with modernity is in fact a vital facet of this cultural period

The Ekphrastic Encounter in Contemporary British Poetry and Elsewhere David Kennedy,2016-03-23 Examining a wide range of ekphrastic poems David Kennedy argues that contemporary British poets writing out of both mainstream and avant garde traditions challenge established critical models of ekphrasis with work that is more complex than representational or counter representational responses to paintings in museums and galleries Even when the poem appears to be straightforwardly representational it is often selectively so producing a virtual work that doesn t exist in actuality Poets such as Kelvin Corcoran Peter Hughes and Gillian Clarke Kennedy suggests relish the ekphrastic encounter as one in which word and image become mutually destabilizing Similarly other poets engage with the source artwork as a performance that participates in the ethical realm Showing that the ethical turn in ekphrastic poetry is often powerfully gendered Kennedy also surveys a range of ekphrastic poets from the Renaissance and nineteenth century to trace a tradition of female ekphrastic poetry that includes Pauline Stainer and Frances Presley Kennedy concludes with a critique of ekphrastic exercises in creative writing teaching proposing that ekphrastic writing that takes greater account of performance spectatorship may offer more fruitful models for the classroom than the narrativizing of images

Black Artists in Their Own Words Lisa E. Farrington,2025 The first book to center Black artists voices on Black aesthetics revealing a century of evolving relationships to race identity and art What is Black art No one has thought harder about that question than Black artists yet their perspectives have been largely ignored Instead their stories have been told by intellectuals like W E B Du Bois and Alain Locke who defined a school of Black art in the early twentieth century For the first time Black Artists in Their Own Words offers an insightful corrective Esteemed art historian Lisa Farrington gathers writing spanning a century across the United States the Caribbean and the African continent including from renowned artists Henry Tanner Nancy Elizabeth Prophet Romare Bearden Wifredo Lam Renee Cox and many more that reveals both evolutions and equivocations Many artists especially during the civil rights era have embraced Black aesthetics as a source of empowerment Others prefer to be artists first and Black second while some have rejected racial identification entirely Here Black artists reclaim their work from reductive critical narratives sharing the motivations underlying their struggles to create in a white dominated art world

Monet's Minutes André Dombrowski, 2023-01-01 A stunning exploration of the vital links between Claude Monet's Impressionism and the time technologies that helped define modernity in the nineteenth century Monet's Minutes is a revelatory account charting the relationship between the works of Claude Monet 1840-1926 founder of French Impressionism and one of the world's best known painters and the modern experience of time Andr Dombrowski illuminates Monet's celebration of instantaneity in the context of the late nineteenth century time technologies that underwrote it Monet's version of Impressionism demonstrated an acute awareness of the particularly modern pressures of time but until now scholars have not examined the histories and technologies of time and timekeeping that informed Impressionism's major stylistic shifts Arguing that the fascination with instantaneity rejected the dulling cultures of newly routinized and standardized time Monet's Minutes traces the evolution of Monet's art to what were then seismic shifts in the shape of time itself In each chapter Dombrowski focuses on the connections between a set of Monet's works and a specific technology or experience of time while providing the voices of period critics responding to Impressionism Grounded in exceptional research and analyses this book offers new interpretations of key works by Monet and a fresh perspective on late nineteenth century art society and modern temporality
