Dukore, 1980      An Introduction to the Social and Political Philosophy of Bertolt Brecht Anthony Squiers, 2016-04-26 This book presents Brecht's thought in the context of a revolutionary Marxist aesthetic and explores his vision of consciousness as it relates to historical materialism the dialectic of enlightenment social ontology epistemology and ethics      Crimes and Punishments and Bernard Shaw Bernard F. Dukore, 2017-10-17 This book analyzes the interaction of crimes punishments and Bernard Shaw in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It explores crimes committed by professional criminals nonprofessional criminals businessmen believers in a cause the police the Government and prison officials It examines punishments decreed by judges juries colonial governors commissars and administered by the police prison warders and prison doctors It charts Shaw's view of crimes and punishments in dramatic writings non dramatic writings and his actions in real life This book presents him in the context of his contemporaries and his world inviting readers to view crimes and punishments in their context history and relevance to his ideas in and outside his plays plus the relevance of his ideas to crimes and punishments in life      The Aesthetics of Clarity and Confusion Geoffrey A. Baker, 2016-12-22 What should literature with political aims look like This book traces two rival responses to this question one prizing clarity and the other confusion which have dominated political aesthetics since the late nineteenth century Revisiting recurrences of the avant garde experimentalism versus critical realism debates from the twentieth century Geoffrey A Baker highlights the often violent reductions at work in earlier debates Instead of prizing one approach over the other as many participants in those debates have done Baker focuses on the manner in which the debate itself between these approaches continues to prove productive and enabling for politically engaged writers This book thus offers a way beyond the simplistic polarity of realism vs anti realism in a study that is focused on influential strands of thought in England France and Germany and that covers well known authors such as Zola Nietzsche Arnold Mann Brecht Sartre Adorno Lukács Beauvoir Morrison and Coetzee      Ibsen and Degeneration Henrik Johnsson, 2024-08-21 Henrik Ibsen's plays were written at a critical juncture in late 19th century European culture Appearing at a time when notions of evolution and heredity were commonplace themes in literature and the arts Ibsenian drama highlights the creative potential offered by contemporary evolutionary thought In his plays Ibsen explores variations on the theme of degeneration imagining how families can become affected by ill health or other forms of weakness that lead to the extinction of the family line Ibsen and Degeneration looks at the recurrence of ideas of degeneration in three of Ibsen's plays In Ghosts it is the motif of syphilis highly shocking to Ibsen's contemporaries which serves as an allegory of degeneration In Rosmersholm degeneration is reconfigured as an overcultivation that eventually makes a family unfit for life In Hedda Gabler meanwhile Hedda having been for all practical purposes raised as a man has come to think of herself as one a circumstance which informs her final decision to end her life her final degeneration By reading these three plays from a fresh perspective Ibsen and Degeneration sheds new light on some of Ibsen's most enduring contributions to world drama The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
