

The money I give is making a difference in concrete ways:

5 cents of every dollar I give is going to pastoral care;

25 cents of every dollar I give is going to outreach;

16 cents of every dollar I give is going to evangelism and hospitality;

22 cents of every dollar I give is going to worship;

13 cents of every dollar I give is going to fellowship and in-reach;

19 cents of every dollar I give is going to Christian education.

Developing Faithful Ministers Tim Ling,2013-01-25 Developing Faithful Ministers aims to support the work of all those involved in supervision and training relationships within the Church The Church recognising its call to serve God and the nation seeks to equip and develop its ministers to face the challenge of ministry in a society at the threshold of Christendom

that is in a mission context It is a context where both the general public and the institutional church have significant expectations of those in ministry Indeed there is now an expectation of demonstrable capability prior to being licensed to any form of permanent tenure The demand for more professional demonstrably capable mission able and collaborative licensed ministers places particular weight on the efficacy of the initial training relationship Developing Faithful Ministers seeks to support those who find themselves in these relationships by offering both models of good practice and sustained theological reflection on what these drivers mean for developing ministry ICONEBS 2020 Tri Lestariningsih,Basuki Winarno,Nur Asyik Hidayatullah,Eva Mirza Syafitri,Robbi Rahim,2021-02-25 We are glad to introduce you the proceedings of the first International Conference on on Economics Business and Social Humanities ICONEBS 2020 The 1st ICONEBS 2020 addresses challenges and innovations in the field of economics business and social humanities The conference is enriched with renowned keynote speakers who discuss in the central theme of The Dynamics of Economics Business and Social Humanities The ICONEBS conference is hosted by State Polytechnic of Madiun and co hosted by Aviation Polytechnic of Surabaya and Polytechnic of Jambi This year we held this flexible online conference to gather experts and scholars around the globe with the aim to continue disseminating the latest advanced research in the field of the dynamics of economics business and social humanities We are glad to share with you that around 102 pre registered authors are submitted their work in the conferences However its about 60 papers are selected and accepted for the conferences All the papers have been through rigorous review by a panel of reviewers who provide critical comments and corrections and have contributed substantially to the improvement of the quality of the papers to meet the requirements of International publication standard We would like to express our sincere gratitude to the Chairman the distinguished keynote speakers as well as all the participants We also want to thank the publisher for publishing the proceedings May the readers could enjoy the gain some valuable knowledge from it We are expecting more and more experts and scholars from all over the world to join this international event next year

Practicing Care in Rural Congregations and Communities Jeanne Hoeft, L. Shannon Jung, Joretta Marshall,L Shannon Jung,2013-07-01 Pastoral care in rural communities is different from care in other locales Despite these differences rural churches and communities also hold a particular wisdom from which the rest of the church might benefit Small towns and rural areas have particular challenges and in seeking to live out the Christian life in the midst of those local churches have unique and useful insights into what it means to care for one another Beginning Ministry Together Roy M. Oswald,James Heath,Ann Heath,2003-12-01 Beginning Ministry Together is about the transition period between the announcement that one pastor is leaving and the time when another pastor is well settled The message brought by Roy Oswald and colleagues Jim and Ann Heath is that this is not an impossible time to be survived only with a lot of expert help Rather even though the task is complex committed congregational leaders can handle it with the help of people who have been on this journey before Oswald describes how clergy and congregations can better end and begin pastorates He shows them how to say good bye and discern their needs for the future how to use the open space between pastorates for evaluation and preparation for a new day

Federschmidt, Daniël Louw, Linda Sauer Bredvik, 2021-12-08 Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an edited peer reviewed volume of global perspectives on interreligious approaches to healing and well being by 23 academics and practitioners from five different faith practices and 13 different cultures With chapters by counsellors chaplains religious thinkers and linguists the multifaceted nature of the volume provides an expansive approach to spiritual care and counselling In order to understand the ways in which interreligious encounters can have an enriching effect on our humanity the volume is divided into four sections that address methodological questions surrounding spiritual caregiving perspectives of different faith traditions on care and healing the challenges to the praxis of care in diverse cultural and political settings and finally how spiritual care and healing can be carried out in public places such as the police the military and hospitals The book is an outgrowth of 25 years of experience within the Society for Interreligious Care and Counselling SIPCC to promote better understanding and practices of intercultural and interreligious spiritual caregiving Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an extraordinary assemblage of writings from diverse cultural religious and geopolitical contexts By addressing methodological questions challenges faced in the care of individuals and care in public settings from Islamic Jewish Christian Buddhist and Hindu perspectives this anthology moves the discourse on care and healing into a more adequate theological anthropology than has often undergirded pastoral care and counselling in most Western texts This much needed work will doubtless be crucial for chaplains and other spiritual care providers seeking to offer genuinely interreligious and intercultural care in today s globalized world Emmanuel Y Lartey PhD Charles Howard Candler Professor of Pastoral Theology Spiritual Care Candler School of Theology Emory University GA USA Given the variety of religious expressions in the contemporary world providing interreligious care is a great challenge for caregivers This book contributes to reflection on care and healing from an interreligious perspective by helping us to think about the theme not only from a theoretical approach but also from methodological practical and culturally contextualized points of view that overflow with compassion It is not to be simply read but studied and used as a bedside book by those engaged in the practice of human care Dr Mary Rute Gomes Esperandio Professor and researcher on Spirituality Health in the Post Graduate Program in Bioethics and Post Graduate Program in Theology at the Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Paraná Brazil

Spiritual Care in Palliative Care Megan C. Best, 2024-08-31 An international panel of experts have contributed to create the first comprehensive guide to spiritual care focussing on the palliative care setting from neonatal to aged care combining the theoretical underpinnings of spirituality research with practical applications for its introduction into patient care This book is structured to give a detailed understanding of the importance of spirituality for patients approaching the end of life as well as the impact of spiritual care on patients families and carers As the first step towards reaching this goal the need for spiritual care training of clinicians is outlined including the crucial step of nurturing one's own spiritual life. Ways to identify and assess patients' spiritual needs are explained. The experience of existential suffering is explored along with discussion of the ways it can manifest and how it can be addressed. The implementation of spiritual care in the clinical setting is detailed with illustrations of the role of each member of the palliative care team and the benefits of an institutional approach. This valuable resource provides not only empirical evidence for the importance of spiritual care but also practical guidance for those wishing to practice it. It is ideal for all those caring for patients of all ages at the end of life including palliative care clinicians, spiritual care professionals, students, and researchers, and anyone interested in creating meaning in the face of imminent death.

Disaster Spiritual Care, 2nd Edition Rev. Willard W. C. Ashley Sr., MDiv, DMin, DH, Rabbi Stephen B. Roberts, MBA, MHL, BCJC, 2017-06-13

The first comprehensive resource for pastoral care in the face of disaster, a vital resource for clergy, seminarians, pastoral counselors, and caregivers of all faith traditions. Updated and expanded. This essential resource for clergy and caregivers integrates the classic foundations of pastoral care with the unique challenges of disaster response on community, regional, and national levels. Offering the latest theological perspectives and tools along with basic theory and skills from the best disaster response texts, research, and concepts, the contributors to this resource are innovators in their fields and represent Christianity, Judaism, Islam, and more. New to this edition are chapters on NVOAD Points of Consensus and Guidelines, A Developing Conversation, Ethics in Disaster Spiritual Care Assessment, Developing a Theological Framework for Providing Disaster Spiritual Care, and More. Exploring how spiritual care changes following a disaster and including a comprehensive explanation of a disaster's lifecycle, this is the definitive guidebook for counseling not only the victims of disaster but also the clergy and caregivers who are called to service in the wake of crisis.
