Grip chronicles Monica Seles's early success on the tennis circuit where at age sixteen she became the youngest winner in French Open history. For three years she dominated the tour seemingly unstoppable until a deranged Steffi Graf fan plunged a knife into her back during a match in Hamburg and turned her life upside down. Her injuries healed but the emotional trauma was deep. She spent more than two years in seclusion from the media and the tennis world trying to fight off the fog of despair until she continued the battle against herself. Grueling six hour workouts were sabotaged by secretive late night binges and she was assaulted with criticism about her weight from her trainers and most brutally the press. After an excruciating injury forced her to take time off from tennis in 2003 Seles embarked on her own journey. As she uncovered the painful emotional reasons that had been the trigger for her binge eating she finally found the peace and balance she had been searching for. Seles's determination, amazing talent and touching vulnerability make her story truly inspiring. Monica Seles Suzanne J.
