Monitor Affair:

Politics in Indonesia Douglas E. Ramage, 2002-09-11 Politics in Indonesia describes the attitudes aspirations and frustrations of the key players in Indonesian politics as they struggle to shape the future The book focuses on the role of political Islam Douglas E Ramage shows that the state has been remarkably successful in maintaining secular political institutions in a predominantly Muslim society He analyses the way in which political questions are framed with reference to the national ideology the Pancasila

Civil Islam Robert W. Hefner, 2011-05-21 Civil Islam tells the story of Islam and democratization in Indonesia the world s largest Muslim nation Challenging stereotypes of Islam as antagonistic to democracy this study of courage and reformation in the face of state terror suggests possibilities for democracy in the Muslim world and beyond Democratic in the early 1950s and with rich precedents for tolerance and civility Indonesia succumbed to violence In 1965 Muslim parties were drawn into the slaughter of half a million communists In the aftermath of this bloodshed a New Order regime came to power suppressing democratic forces and instituting dictatorial controls that held for decades Yet from this maelstrom of violence repressed by the state and denounced by conservative Muslims an Islamic democracy movement emerged strengthened and played a central role in the 1998 overthrow of the Soeharto regime In 1999 Muslim leader Abdurrahman Wahid was elected President of a reformist civilian government In explaining how this achievement was possible Robert Hefner emphasizes the importance of civil institutions and public civility but argues that neither democracy nor civil society is possible without a civilized state Against portrayals of Islam as inherently antipluralist and undemocratic he shows that Indonesia s Islamic reform movement repudiated the goal of an Islamic state mobilized religiously ecumenical support promoted women s rights and championed democratic ideals This broadly interdisciplinary and timely work heightens our awareness of democracy s necessary pluralism and places Indonesia at the center of our efforts to understand what makes democracy work

Battle Of Hampton

Roads: A Revolution In Military Affairs Major Alan J. Deogracias II, 2014-08-15 This thesis examines the Battle of Hampton Roads 8 and 9 March 1862 the first battle of ironclads to determine if it was a Revolution in Military Affairs This study is an analysis of naval developments prior to March 1862 the battle and the impact the battle had on the U S Navy and the Royal Navy from 1862 to 1871 The battle signaled the end of the wooden warship era when the CSS Virginia destroyed two wooden warships on 8 March 1862 The USS Monitor influenced a change in naval design which led the U S Navy and the Royal Navy to build turreted warships which culminated in the launching of the first modern battleship in 1871 The transformation from sailing and steam ships with broadside armament to steam powered turret ships led to a reduction in the size of the crews and the acceptance of engineers into the naval community The battle led both navies to assign ironclads to their squadrons to counter ironclads of hostile nations The battle influenced the development of tactics for fighting ironclads including ramming and coastal warfare The Battle of Hampton Roads was a Revolution in Military Affairs and the onset of modern naval warfare

"Public Religion" and the Pancasila-based State of Indonesia Benyamin Fleming Intan, 2006 Public Religion and the Pancasila Based State of Indonesia An Ethical and Sociological Analysis analyzes the public role of religion in Indonesian society from the pre independence period to the end of Suharto's New Order government It offers constructive suggestions regarding how Indonesian religion can play a significant role within the framework of Pancasila Indonesia's national ideology Based on a Christian Muslim dialogue it is only within the realm of civil society that Indonesian religion will be able to promote the ideas of democracy tolerance and human rights in Indonesian public affairs In short far from being anti pluralist Indonesian religion evolves as a liberating force in the life of society nation and state

Andrew Lau and Alan Mak's Infernal Affairs - The Trilogy Gina Marchetti, 2007-04-01 Infernal Affairs has received journalistic popular and corporate notice but little vigorous critical attention In this book Gina Marchetti explores the way this example of Hong Kong's cinematic eclecticism has crossed borders as a story a commercial product and a work of art and has had an undeniable impact on current Hong Kong cinema Moreover she uses this trilogy to highlight the way Hong Kong cinema continues to be inextricably intertwined with global film culture and the transnational movie market Infernal Affairs served as the source for the Academy Award winning film The Departed 2006 The Martin Scorsese directed film won Oscars for best motion picture director adapted screenplay and film editing This is the first time that an American film based on a Hong Kong production swept the Academy Awards by winning four top prizes

Barker,2018-05-31 A major realignment is taking place in the way we understand the state in Indonesia New studies on local politics ethnicity the democratic transition corruption Islam popular culture and other areas hint at novel concepts of the state though often without fully articulating them This book captures several dimensions of this shift One reason for the new thinking is a fresh wind that has altered state studies generally People are posing new kinds of questions about the state and developing new methodologies to answer them Another reason for this shift is that Indonesia itself has changed probably more than most people recognize It looks more democratic but also more chaotic and corrupt than it did during the militaristic New Order of 1966 1998 State of Authority offers a range of detailed case studies based on fieldwork in many different settings around the archipelago The studies bring to life figures of authority who have sought to carve out positions of power for themselves using legal and illegal means These figures include village heads informal slum leaders district heads parliamentarians and others These individuals negotiate in settings where the state is evident and where it is discussed coffee houses hotel lounges fishing waters and street side stalls These case studies and the broader trend in scholarship of which they are a part allow for a new theorization of the state in Indonesia that more adequately addresses the complexity of political life in this vast archipelago nation State of Authority demonstrates that the state of Indonesia is not monolithic but is constituted from the ground up by a host of local negotiations and symbolic practices Everybody's Magazine ,1907 Hubbard's newspaper and bank directory of the world, with gazeteer and atlas combined Harlan Page
