King Solomon's Mines H. Rider Haggard, 2015-10-19 It is a curious thing that at my age fifty five last birthday I should find myself taking up a pen to try to write a history I wonder what sort of a history it will be when I have finished it if ever I come to the end of the trip I have done a good many things in my life which seems a long one to me owing to my having begun work so young perhaps At an age when other boys are at school I was earning my living as a trader in the old Colony I have been trading hunting fighting or mining ever since And yet it is only eight months ago that I made my pile It is a big pile now that I have got it I don't yet know how big but I do not think I would go through the last fifteen or sixteen months again for it no not if I knew that I should come out safe at the end pile and all But then I am a timid man and dislike violence moreover I am almost sick of adventure I wonder why I am going to write this book it is not in my line I am not a literary man though very devoted to the Old Testament and also to the Ingoldsby Legends Let me try to set down my reasons just to see if I have any First reason Because Sir Henry Curtis and Captain John Good asked me Second reason Because I am laid up here at Durban with the pain in my left leg Ever since that confounded lion got hold of me I have been liable to this trouble and being rather bad just now it makes me limp more than ever There must be some poison in a lion's teeth otherwise how is it that when your wounds are healed they break out again generally mark you at the same time of year that you got your mauling It is a hard thing when one has shot sixty five lions or more as I have in the course of my life that the sixty sixth should chew your leg like a quid of tobacco It breaks the routine of the thing and putting other considerations aside I am an orderly man and don't like that This is by the way
