Our Lives Jane Adan, 1991-01-01 I was born at midnight That means I can see ghosts when they want to be invisible writes fourth grader David demonstrating a child s capacity for making sense of personal experience The Children in Our Lives explores this capacity as well as how adult misperceptions of children s experiences affect those children It invites dialogue between teachers parents other caregivers and the general public who value children for their own sakes Adan looks for disparities between a child s experience and the adult s interpretation of that experience In questioning middle class nurturance she focuses on connections between experience and interpretation based on dominant traditional or mainstream values She argues that force of habit as well as a preoccupation with public image predisposes adults to embrace the abstractions that distort perception Consequently children are impaired as adults are in their ability to generate communities that are grounded in a creative concern for all human beings Hardy Boys 51: The Masked Monkey Franklin W.

Dixon, 1972-01-01 Frank and Joe are called upon to find a wealthy industrialist s son who has mysteriously disappeared The only clue in the case leads the two young detectives to South America where the intrigues of evil adversaries almost cost them their lives Only through their courage and perseverance do the Hardys solve one of the toughest cases they have ever tackled

The Tsimshian Margaret Seguin, 1993 This volume examines Tsimshian culture from the prehistoric period to the recent past and includes contributions from such diverse perspectives as archaeology linguistics and social anthropology The contributors demonstrate a balance between current fieldwork and careful archival analysis as they build on the voluminous materials that are a legacy of the scholarship of such major figures as Boas Barbeau Tate and Garfield The book includes chapters on the crest system and participation of the Tsimshian in the non Native economy of the region and introduces much original material on shamanism basket making and feasting Hands on Literacy Liz
