Adventurers of Purse and Person, Virginia, 1607-1624/5: Families G-P John Frederick Dorman, 2004 The foundation for this work is the Muster of Jan 1624 25 which had never before been printed in full Page xiii volume 1 A.J. Cronin Alan Davies, 2018-01-01 A J Cronin author of some of the best loved novels of the mid twentieth century and the creator of Dr Finlay has been unjustly overlooked by literary biographers In this the first full length life of this eminent and unjustly neglected writer Alan Davies recounts the story of Cronin s Scottish childhood as the son of a Protestant mother and Catholic father his subsequent medical career and his rise to literary prominence emphasizing throughout the importance of holding at arm s length many of the apocryphal tales that have accumulated around the memory of the author of Hatter s Castle The Citadel and The Stars Look Down many of which are based on mistaken autobiographical readings of Cronin s fiction itself Incorporating an account of Cronin s tempestuous relationship with his publisher Victor Gollancz and new revelations about the author s private life Davies s book paints a clearer portrait of both Cronin the writer and Cronin the man

History of Western Maryland John Thomas Scharf, 1882 Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Robert J. Trout, 2008 Until recently it has been difficult for anyone with an interest in the Army of Northern Virginia s horse artillery which served under legendary cavalry commander J E B Stuart to envision what the men of the battalion endured With the publication in 2002 of Robert Trout s seminal book Galloping Thunder The Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion the endeavors of the unit were rescued from obscurity In Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Trout provides readers with complete versions of three important primary documents written by soldiers of the battalion Lt Lewis T Nunnelee s history of Moorman s Battery is based on a seven volume diary that Nunnelee kept during the war and features near daily entries of the battery's actions. The History of Hart's Battery as told by Maj James F Hart, Dr Levi C Stephens, Louis Sherfese, and Charles H Schwing is as Trout puts it, a cannon of a different caliber. It recounts in broader terms the battery's history from its inception before the war to its surrender as the last horse artillery in the field. The authors offer rare glimpses into the development of tactics learned from the school of the battlefield. Finally, Louis Sherfese's Reminiscences of A Color Bearer fleshes out many of the stories in the history that he co-wrote with Hart and his fellow soldiers. Filled with short vignettes, it offers a behind-the-scenes look at the battery in action. Together, these rich documents provide welcome insights into the day-to-day experiences of the often overlooked Confederate horse artillery which played an important role in cementing Stuart's reputation as one of the most outstanding cavalry commanders in the Civil War. Book Jacket: Report of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution

, 1916 The Washingtons. Volume 5, Part 1 Justin Glenn, 2014-09-05 This is the fifth volume of Dr Justin Glenn's comprehensive history that traces the Presidential line of the Washingtons. Volume One began with the immigrant John Washington who settled in Westmoreland Co Va in 1657, married Anne Pope, and became the great grandfather of President George Washington. It continued the record of their descendants for a total of seven generations. Volume Two highlighted notable family members in the next eight generations of John and Anne Washington's descendants, including such luminaries as General George S Patton, the author Shelby Foote, and the actor Lee Marvin. Volume Three traced the ancestry of the early Virginia members of this Presidential Branch back in time to the aristocracy and nobility of England and continental Europe. Volume Four resumed the family history where Volume One ended and it contained Generation Eight of the immigrant John Washington's descendants. Volume Five now presents Generation Nine, including more than 10,000 descendants. Future volumes will trace generations ten through fifteen, making a total of over 63,000 descendants. Although structured in a genealogical format for the sake of clarity, this is no bare bones genealogy but a true family history with over 1,200 detailed biographical narratives. These in turn strive to convey the greatness of the family that produced not only The Father of His Country but many others, great and humble, who struggled to build that country. ADVANCE PRAISE: I am convinced that your work will be of wide interest to historians and academics as well as members of the Washington family itself. Although the surname Washington is perhaps the best known in American history and much has been written about the Washington family for well over a century, it is surprising that no comprehensive family history has been published. Justin M Glenn's The Washingtons: A Family History finally fills this void for the branch to which General and President George Washington belonged, identifying some 63,000 descendants. This is truly a family history, not a mere tabulation of names and dates, providing biographical accounts of many of the descendants of John Washington who settled in Westmoreland County, Virginia, in 1657. Each individual section is followed by extensive listings of published and manuscript sources supporting the information presented, and errors of identification in previous publications are commented upon as appropriate. John

Frederick Dorman editor of The Virginia Genealogist 1957 2006 and author of Adventurers of Purse and Person Decades of reviewing Civil War books have left me surprised and delighted when someone applies exhaustive diligence to a topic not readily accessible Dr Glenn surely meets that standard with the meticulous research that unveils the Washington family in gratifying detail many of them Confederates of interest and importance Robert K Krick author of The Smoothbore Volley that Doomed the Confederacy and Stonewall Jackson at Cedar Mountain

History of Western Maryland J. Thomas Scharf, 2020-09-08 The preparation of History of Western Maryland one of the most voluminous works on the history of that party of the United States imposed a vast responsibility and an immense amount of labor In the compilation of this history no authority of importance has been overlooked The author has carefully examined every source of information open to him and has availed himself of every fact that could throw new light upon or impart additional interest to the subject under consideration Besides consulting the most reliable records and authorities over fifteen thousand communications were addressed to persons supposed to be in possession of facts or information calculated to add value to the work Recourse has not only been had to the valuable libraries of Baltimore Annapolis Frederick and Hagerstown but the author and his agents have visited personally the entire territory embraced in the six counties of Western Maryland spending much time in each district examining ancient newspapers musty manuscripts family church and society records conversing with the aged inhabitants and collecting from them orally many interesting facts never before published and which otherwise in all probability would soon have been lost altogether In addition to the material partly used in the preparation of his Chronicles and History of Baltimore City and County and History of Maryland the author has consulted an immense number of pamphlets consisting of county and town documents reports of societies associations corporations and historical discourses and in short everything of a fugitive character that might in any way illustrate the history of Western Maryland Sketches of the rise progress and present condition of the various religious denominations professions political parties and charitable and benevolent institutions societies and orders form a conspicuous feature of the work Manufacturing commercial and agricultural interests have also a prominent place An account of the county school system is also given and a history of the various institutions of learning of which Western Maryland has every reason to be proud Many of the facts recorded both statistical and historical may seem trivial or tediously minute to the general reader and yet such facts have a local interest and sometimes a real importance Considerable space has also been given to biographies of leading and representative men living and dead who have borne an active part in the various enterprises of life and who have become closely identified with the history of Frederick Washington Montgomery Allegany Carroll and Garrett Counties The achievements of the living must not be forgotten nor must the memories of those who have passed away be allowed to perish It is the imperative duty of the historian to chronicle their public and private efforts to advance the great interests of society Their deeds are to be recorded for the benefit of those who follow them they in fact form part of the history of their communities and their successful lives

add to the glory of the Commonwealth A distinguishing feature of the work is its statistics of the various districts into which the six counties of Western Maryland are divided In them the reader is brought into close relation with every part of Western Maryland This is volume three out of six covering Frederick County contd D C and Montgomery County Lost in the District, Lost in the Federal Territory: The Life and Times of Doctor David Ross, Surgeon, Sot-Weed Factor, Importer of Human Labor, of Bladensburg, Maryland, and related individuals Stewart Lillard,2017 Lost in the District Lost in the Federal Territory relates the facts about Doctor David Ross of Bladensburg his family life his business and political connections and his efforts to develop a productive iron mine along the upper Potomac River on lower Antietam Creek in Washington County Maryland Through his diligence and the skills of his close relatives Dr Ross was in a position to recommend the taking up of arms against Great Britain to his river neighbors of the Committee of Correspondence His son was later appointed to serve briefly as one of the first auditors for the newly formed District of Columbia His nephew by marriage James Maccubbin Lingan a victim of the Baltimore Riot of July 28 1812 was one of the first group of leaders who set Georgetown Maryland and later D C on its course to greatness as a deep water port He remains the only veteran of the American Revolutionary War to be buried in Arlington National Cemetery Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 ,2003 History of Western Maryland John Thomas Scharf,2003 Nehemiah Moxley Allie May Moxley Buxton,1989 Nehemiah Moxley 1738 1836 was born in Maryland the son of William and Elizabeth Moxley His wife s identity is uncertain they had eleven children Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ,1998 Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine ,1952 Signs of the Times, and Doctrinal Advocate and Monitor ,1913 Davis Families of Montgomery County, Md William Neal Hurley,2001 Descendants of several Davis families found in Montgomery Co and throughout the State H1701HB 26 00 Historic Graves of Maryland and the District of Columbia Helen West Ridgely,1908
