

Monologues from Movies for Teens

Back to the Future: Doc Brown

Let me show you how it works. First, you turn the time circuits on. This readout tells you where you're going, this one tells you where you are, this one tells you where you were. You input the destination time on this keypad. Say, you wanna see the signing of the declaration of independence, or witness the birth of Christ. Here's a red-letter date in the history of science, November 5, 1955. Yes, of course, November 5, 1955...That was the day I invented time travel. I remember it vividly. I was standing on the edge of my toilet hanging a clock, the porcelain was wet, I slipped, hit my head on the edge of the sink. And when I came to I had a revelation, a VISION, a picture in my head, a picture of this. This is what makes time travel possible. The flux capacitor...It's taken me almost thirty years and my entire family fortune to realize the vision of that day, my god has it been that long. Things have certainly changed around here. I remember when this was all farmland as far as the eye could see. Old man Peabody, owned all of this. He had this crazy idea about breeding pine trees. (gets weird faraway look in his eyes and shakes it away)

City Slickers: Mitch

Value this time in your life kids, because this is the time in your life when you still have your choices, and it goes by so quickly. When you're a teenager you think you can do anything, and you do. Your twenties are a blur. Your thirties, you raise your family, you make a little money and you think to yourself, "What happened to my twenties?" Your forties, you grow a little pot belly you grow another chin. The music starts to get too loud and one of your old girlfriends from highschool becomes a grandmother. Your fifties you have a minor surgery. You'll call it a procedure, but it's a surgery. Your sixties you have a major surgery, the music is still loud but it doesn't matter because you can't hear it anyway. Seventies, you and the wife retire to Fort Lauderdale, you start eating dinner at two, lunch around ten, breakfast the night before. And you spend most of your time wandering around malls looking for the ultimate in soft yogurt and muttering "how come the kids don't call?" By your eighties, you've had a major stroke, and you end up babbling to some Jamaican nurse who your wife can't stand but who you call mama. Any questions?

Kilgore, 2016-12-14 204 Short Monologues and Scenes for Kids and Teens is a compilation of Dave Kilgore's four previous books 51 Short Monologues and Scenes for Kids Volumes 1 and 2 and 51 Short Monologues and Scenes for Teens Volumes 1 and 2. This book is designed for kid and teen actors to use in practice in class for auditions or just for fun. This book was also created to fill the void for acting teachers looking for positive and entertaining very short monologues and scenes for their younger student actors. The majority of the pieces here are under one minute, allowing for easy memorization and comprehension while still telling brief stories with entertaining plot twists and allowing the younger actor to delve into character history, relationships, and environment. Talent agents and casting directors want to see what the actor can do in a short amount of time. Thirty to sixty-second pieces like most of the ones in this book are ideal for that specific reason. Also, this allows the acting student to spend more time focusing on story and character. In this book are many fun pieces you'll be happy to see your own kids and teens performing, knowing they're not just learning to act but also to tell stories and interact in positive ways. Some of the pieces in this book are more serious and allow the younger actor to dig deeper and understand the character's journey. Many of these can be used for boys or girls by simply changing the names, and many can cross into different age ranges by using different scene and character direction. Included in this book: Tips on memorization, Tips on character development, Tips on character interaction. 56 Monologues for kids, 46 Scenes for kids, 60 Monologues for teens, 42 Scenes for teens. The author Dave Kilgore is an actor, pianist, film composer, music playwright, novelist, and lover of all the arts. He has written musical plays for kids, short and feature length screenplays, and more. A career spanning decades in music, theater, and film has given him the opportunity to view these crafts from many angles and write short monologues and scenes as clever and concise stories for young actors. Enjoy the journey.

111 One-minute Monologues--active Voices Marco Ramirez, 2008. For auditions, class, or practice, this series of books delivers exactly what it promises: a whole lot of engaging one-minute monologues for teen characters. KLIATT This latest edition in Smith and Kraus's best-selling Ultimate Audition Series for Teens captures the exciting, unique, and active voice of M. Ramirez. A casting director's number one gripe is usually that young actors don't choose age-appropriate material. Teens need to play teenagers. Ramirez's characters talk like teenagers do, girls and boys aged 13-19. These original monologues will wake up judges, teachers, and casting directors. They're active. They pop like nobody's business. They're funny and poignant. But best of all, these are stories only teens could tell: stories that allow their ability to really shine through. Some scenarios included are: caught throwing a party, telling ghost stories, newcomer in town in love with the video store guy, home after curfew, first earthquake experience, great movie idea, first parental betrayal, too old for the treehouse, approached by a homeless person, dreamer, first time shaving. M. RAMIREZ is a playwright from Miami, Florida. He holds a degree in Dramatic Writing from NYU's Tisch School of the Arts, and he is currently working on another series of monologue books for Smith and Kraus. He's also working on a play about a giant.
