The Worry Monster Poem

Hi, I am your worry monster, Fred
I'm always here for you.
When a worry pops into your head,
I'll tell you what to do.

Draw or write your worry down and feed it to me.
I will gobble up the worries from your head.

Now try to let your worries free.
Remember, they'll stay safe with me instead.

You can also talk to an adult you trust.
Sharing your worries can really help you.
They will listen to anything to be discussed.
Managing your worries is something you can do!

Romanticism and the Literature of Human Interest explores the importance to Romantic literature of a concept of human interest It examines a range of literary experiments to engage readers through subjects and styles that were at once interesting and that in principle were in their interest These experiments put in question relationships between poetry and prose lyric and narrative and literature and popular media The book places literary works by a range of nineteenth century writers including William and Dorothy Wordsworth Thomas De Quincey Samuel Taylor Coleridge Mary and Percy Shelley Lord Byron and Matthew Arnold into dialogue with a variety of non literary and paraliterary forms ranging from newspapers to footnotes The book investigates the generic structures of Romantic literature and the negotiation of the status of literature in the period in relation to a new media landscape It explores the self theorization of Romantic literature and argues for its value to contemporary literary criticism     Monster Poems R.
