Montaillou Village Occitan De 1294 A 1324:

Montaillou, the Promised Land of Error Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie, 1979 In the early 1300 s the village of Montaillou and the surrounding mountainous region of Southern France was full of heretics When Jacques Fournier Bishop of Pamiers launched an elaborate Inquisition to stamp them out the peasants and shepherds he interrogated revealed along with their position on official Catholicism many details of their everyday life Basing his absorbing study on these vivid carefully recorded statements of peasants who lived more than 600 years ago Pierre Clergue the powerful village priest and shameless womanizer is even heard explaining his techniques of seduction eminent historian Le Roy Ladurie reconstructs the economy and social structure of the community and probes the most intimate aspects of medieval life love and marriage gestures and emotions conversations and gossip clans and factions crime and violence concepts of time and space attitudes to the past animals magic and folklore death and beliefs about the other world Montaillou Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie, 1990 An enthralling account of day to day life in a medieval French village Using records gathered by the Catholic Church in its pursuit of heretics the book recreates the lives of a rich cast of village characters Montaillou Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie, 1990 A bestseller in France this book is a fascinating sociological study of medieval life in which the well known French historian Le Roy Ladurie used the official court record 1318 1325 of Inquisition Register of Jacques Fournier Bishop of Pamiers in Southern France in the early 14th c and later Pope Benedict XII who determined to eradicate the last traces of the Albigensian heresy from the Pyrenean village of Montaillou meticulously recorded the confessions of the village s shepherds and smallholders wives and maids to reconstruct a detailed and vivid picture of everyday life in this little village

History, Ethics, and the Recognition of the Other Anton Froeyman, 2015-09-25 This book introduces a new way of looking at the writing of history Rather than as the production of knowledge or the telling of stories it sees writing history as an ethical existential and emotional engagement with the people from the past The conceptual and philosophical basis for this view is provided by the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas In the first part the view is presented and contrasted with other competing views such as those of Hans Georg Gadamer and Michel Foucault In the second part the view is argued for most importantly by an in depth discussion of one specific tradition of history writing microhistory and a series of close readings of several classical works from the history of historiography The third part finally explores some of the methodological consequences of this view and applies it to a non academic way of dealing with the past namely historical performance practice in music The book features a foreword by Frank Ankersmit Western Historiography in Asia Q. Edward Wang, Okamoto Michihiro, Longguo Li, 2022-02-21 This volume provides a unique and critical perspective on how Chinese Japanese and Korean scholars engage and critique the West in their historical thinking It showcases the dialogue between Asian experts and their Euro American counterparts and offers valuable insights on how to challenge and overcome Eurocentrism in historical writing The History and Narrative Reader Geoffrey Roberts, 2001 Are historians story tellers Is it possible to tell true stories about the past These are just two of the questions raised in this comprehensive collection of texts about philosophy theory and methodology of writing history

Women in Medieval Europe Jennifer Ward, 2014-06-11 Women in Medieval Europe were expected to be submissive but such a broad picture ignores great areas of female experience Between the thirteenth and fifteenth centuries women are found in the workplace as well as the home and some women were numbered among the key rulers saints and mystics of the medieval world Opportunities and activities changed over time and by 1500 the world of work was becoming increasingly restricted for women Women of all social groups were primarily engaged with their families looking after husband and children and running the household Patterns of work varied geographically In the northern towns women engaged in a wide range of crafts with a small number becoming entrepreneurs Many of the poor made a living as servants and labourers Prostitution flourished in many medieval towns Some women turned to the religious life and here opportunities burgeoned in the thirteenth century The Middle Ages are not remote from the twenty first century the lives of medieval women evoke a response today The medieval mother faced similar problems to her modern counterpart The sheer variety of women s experience in the later Middle Ages is fully brought out in this book

A Poisoned Past Steven Bednarski, 2014-04-29 This is the story of Margarida de Portu a fourteenth century French medieval woman accused of poisoning her husband to death As Bednarski points out the story is important not so much for what it tells us about Margarida but for how it illuminates a past world Through the depositions and accusations made in court the reader learns much about medieval women female agency kin networks solidarity sex sickness medicine and law Unlike most histories this book does not remove the author from the analysis Rather it lays bare the working methods of the historian Throughout his tale Bednarski skillfully weaves a second narrative about how historians do history highlighting the rewards and pitfalls of working with primary sources The book opens with a chapter on microhistory as a genre and explains its strengths weaknesses and inherent risks Next is a narrative of Margarida s criminal trial followed by chapters on the civil suits and appeal and Margarida s eventual fate The book features a rough copy of a court notary a notarial act and a sample of a criminal inquest record in the original Latin A timeline of Margarida s life list of characters and two family trees provide useful information on key people in the story A map of late medieval Manosque is also provided

Emotions, Communities, and Difference in Medieval Europe Maureen C. Miller, Edward Wheatley, 2017-01-12 This book of eleven essays by an international group of scholars in medieval studies honors the work of Barbara H Rosenwein Professor emerita of History at Loyola University Chicago Part I Emotions and Communities comprises six essays that make use of Rosenwein s well known and widely influential work on the history of emotions and what Rosenwein has called emotional communities These essays employ a wide variety of source material such as chronicles monastic records painting music theory and religious practice to elucidate emotional commonalities among the medieval people who experienced them The five essays in Part II Communities and Difference explore different kinds of communities and have difference as their primary theme difference between the poor and the unfree between power as wielded by rulers or the clergy between the western Mediterranean region and the rest of Europe and between a supposedly great king and lesser ones Otherwise Occupied Dorothy M. Figueira, 2008-10-23 Tracing the historical development of recent identity based trends in literary theory to their roots in structuralism Dorothy M Figueira questions the extent to which theories and pedagogies of alterity have actually enabled us to engage the Other She tracks academic attempts to deal with alterity from their inception in critical thought in the 1960s to the present Focusing on multiculturalism and postcolonialism as professional and institutional practices Figueira examines how such theories and pedagogies informed the academic and public discourse regarding September 11 She also investigates the theories and pedagogies of alterity as crucial elements in the bureaucratization of diversity within academe and discusses their impact on affirmative action Medieval Monastic Preaching Carolyn A. Muessig, 1998-06-04 This study presents research by specialists of monastic history literature and spirituality Covering the period from 1150 to 1500 this volume demonstrates that monastic preaching was not only carried out in the cloister by monks but also in public arenas by monks and nuns The topics range from questioning if the sermons of Bernard of Clairvaux were ever preached to an analysis of Hildegard of Bingen's preaching against the Cathars Sermons addressed to monastic communities by secular preachers are also analysed The diversity of monastic preaching e g cloistered preaching preaching against heretics preaching by heretical monks preaching by nuns and a geographical range of monastic pastoral history is studied Medieval Monastic Preaching offers a preliminary step in understanding how sermons and preaching shaped monastic identity in the Middle Ages The Pyrenees in the Modern Era Martyn Lyons, 2018-02-22 This original study examines different incarnations of the Pyrenees beginning with the assumptions of 18th century geologists who treated the mountains like a laboratory and romantic 19th century tourists and habitués of the spa resorts who went in search of the picturesque and the sublime The book analyses the individual visions of the heroic Pyrenees which in turn fascinated 19th century mountaineers and the racing cyclists of the early Tour de France Martyn Lyons also investigates the role of the Pyrenees during the Second World War as an escape route from Nazi occupied France when for thousands of refugees these dangerous borderlands became the mountains of liberty and considers the place of the Pyrenees in recent times right up to the present day Drawing on travel writing press reports and scientific texts in several languages The Pyrenees in the Modern Era explores both the French and Spanish sides of the Pyrenees to provide a nuanced historical understanding of the cultural construction of one of Europe's most prominent border regions This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of Europe's cultural history in a transnational context New Critical Thinking Julian Wolfreys, 2017-06-02 Introduces advanced students of literature to the latest critical thinking Following a scene setting Introduction which reflects on the state of theory today the 11 chapters in this volume introduce new areas of critical thinking which go beyond the standard aims Literary Reading in a Digital Age Critical Making in the Digital Humanities Thing Theory Memory Work and Criticism

The Medieval World Peter Linehan, Janet L. Nelson, 2013-09-13 This groundbreaking collection brings the Middle Ages to life and conveys the distinctiveness of this diverse constantly changing period Thirty eight scholars bring together one medieval world from many disparate worlds from Connacht to Constantinople and from Tynemouth to Timbuktu This extraordinary set of reconstructions presents the reader with a vivid re drawing of the medieval past offering fresh appraisals of the evidence and modern historical writing Chapters are thematically linked in four sections identities beliefs social values and symbolic order power and power structures elites organizations and groups Packed full of original scholarship The Medieval World is essential reading for anyone studying medieval history The Origins of Inequality Per

Molander,2022-03-07 This book presents a unified approach to the problem of inequality combining results from a variety of research fields the human life cycle group dynamics networks markets and economic geography Its main message is that inequality emerges as the natural result of mechanisms operating both in individual human development and in social interaction It posits that inequality is not an anomalous deviation from a naturally egalitarian social structure quite to the contrary inequality is to be expected as part of the human condition The author states that the growth of inequality on the other hand is not a natural law the level and character of inequality can be affected by collective decisions This perspective on human inequality has potentially far reaching consequences both for the political philosophy of inequality and for public policy making This book is of interest to a wide interdisciplinary social science readership including public policy decision sciences economic geography and life course studies Doing History Mark Donnelly,Claire Norton,2020-11-16 Doing

History bridges the gap between the way history is studied in school or as represented in the media and the way it is studied at university level History as an academic discipline has dramatically changed in recent decades and has been enhanced by ideas from other disciplines the influence of postmodernism and historians incorporation of their own reflections into their work Doing History presents the ideas and debates that shape how we do history today covering arguments about the nature of historical knowledge and the function of historical writing whether we can ever really know what happened in the past what sources historians depend on and the relative value of popular and academic histories This revised edition includes new chapters on public history and activist histories It looks at global representations of the past across the centuries and provides up to date suggestions for further reading presenting the reader with a thorough and current introduction to studying history at an academic level as well as a pathway to progress this study further Clearly structured and accessibly written it is an essential volume for all students embarking on the study of history Sainthood in the Later Middle Ages

Andri Vauchez,André Vauchez,2005-02-17 This is a standard work of reference for the study of the religious history of western Christianity in the later middle ages which since its original publication in French in 1981 has come to be regarded as one of the great contributions to medieval studies of recent times Hagiographical texts and reports of the processes of canonisation a mode of investigation into saints lives and their miracles implemented by the popes from the end of the twelfth century are here used for the first time as major source materials The book illuminates the main features of the medieval religious mind and highlights the popes attempts to gain firmer control over the wide variety of expressions of faith towards the saints in order to promote a higher pattern of devotion and moral behaviour among Christians Companion to Historiography Michael Bentley, 2006-02-27 This Companion presents a clear thematic overview of historiography explored through a series of stimulating and wide ranging articles Compiled by experts in the field the Companion is fully indexed for ease of access
