Montanas State Capitol The Peoples House:

Montana's State Capitol Kirby Lambert, Patricia Mullan Burnham, Susan R. Near, 2002 In honor of the Capitol's centennial the building's history is described back to its construction 100 years ago Lavishly illustrated the volume provides a long overdue tribute to this crown jewel of Montana architecture 27 photos 45 illustrations Framing First Contact Kate Elliott, 2020-10-29 Representations of first contact the first meetings of European explorers and Native Americans have always had a central place in our nation's historical and visual record They have also had a key role in shaping and interpreting that record In Framing First Contact author Kate Elliott looks at paintings by artists from George Catlin to Charles M Russell and explores what first contact images tell us about the process of constructing national myths and how those myths acquired different meanings at different points in our nation's history First contact images with their focus on beginnings rather than conclusive action or determined outcomes might depict historical events in a variety of ways Elliott argues that nineteenth century artists responding to the ambiguity and indeterminacy of the subject used the visualized space between cultures meeting for the first time to address critical contemporary questions and anxieties Taking works from the 1840s through the 1910s as case studies paintings by Robert W Weir Thomas Moran and Albert Bierstadt along with Catlin and Russell Elliott shows how many first contact representations especially those commissioned and conceived as official history speak blatantly of conquest racial superiority and imperialism Yet others communicate more nuanced messages that might surprise contemporary viewers Elliott suggests it was the very openness of the subject of first contact that allowed artists consciously or not to speak of contemporary issues beyond imperialism and conquest Uncovering those issues Framing First Contact forces us to think about why we tell the stories we do and why those stories matter The Coming Man from Canton Chris W. Merritt, 2017-08-01 Christopher W Merritt combines and highlights the historical and archaeological records of the Overseas Chinese experience in Montana beginning with the arrival of Chinese immigrants in 1862 to the repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act in 1943 Provided by publisher American Trinity Larry Len Peterson, 2017-09-11 American Trinity is for everyone who loves the American West and wants to learn more about the good the bad and the ugly It is a sprawling story with a scholarly approach in method but accessible in manner In this innovative examination Dr Larry Len Peterson explores the origins development and consequences of hatred and racism from the time modern humans left Africa 100 000 years ago to the forced placement of Indian children on off reservation schools far from home in the late 1800s Along the way dozens of notable individuals and cultures are profiled Many historical events turned on the lives of legendary Americans like the Father of the West Thomas Jefferson and the Son of the West George Armstrong Custer two strange companions who shared an unshakable sense of their own skills as their interpretation of truths motivated them in the winning of the West Dr Peterson reveals how anti Indian sentiments were always only obliquely about them They were victims but not the cause The Indian was a symbol not a real person The politics of hate and racism directed toward them was also experienced in prior centuries by Jews enslaved Africans and other Christians Hatred and racism when taken into the public domain are singularly difficult to justify which is why Europeans and Americans have always sought vindication from the highest sources of authority in their cultures In the Middle Ages it was religion supplemented later by the philosophy of the Enlightenment In nineteenth century Europe and America religion and philosophy were joined by science and medicine to support Manifest Destiny scientific racism and social Darwinism all of which had profound consequences on Native Americans and the Spirit of the West Presenting research in anthropology archaeology biology history law medicine religion philosophy and psychology Dr Peterson provides the latest observations that delineate why the Native American s life was destroyed American Trinity is a stunning portrait a view at once unique panoramic and intimate It is a fascinating book that will make you think about the differences between belief and knowledge about the self skepticism of science and medicine and about what aspects of the world we take on faith This Far-Off Wild Land Lesley Wischmann, Andrew Dawson, 2013-06-24

In the mid 1800s Andrew Dawson self exiled from his home in Scotland joined the upper Missouri River fur trade and rose through the ranks of the American Fur Company A headstrong young man he had come to America at the age of twenty four after being dismissed from his second job in two years His poignant sense of isolation is evident throughout his letters home between 1844 and 1861 In This Far Off Wild Land Lesley Wischmann and Andrew Erskine Dawson a relative of this colorful figure couple an engaging biography of Dawson with thirty seven of his previously unpublished letters from the American frontier Three years after he landed in St Louis Dawson went up the Missouri in 1847 to what is now North Dakota and Montana taking command of Fort Berthold Fort Clark and eventually Fort Benton the premier fur trade post of the day Fort Berthold and Fort Clark where Dawson worked until 1854 remain two of the least documented American Fur Company posts His letters infuse life and occasional high drama to the stories of these forgotten outposts At Fort Benton his insight in establishing commercial warehouses helped the company keep pace with the changing frontier By the time Dawson returned to Scotland after twenty years in what he labeled a far off wild land he had risen to become the last King of the Upper Missouri Thoughtfully annotated Dawson s letters discovered only recently by his relatives provide a rare glimpse into the lonely life of a fur trader in the 1840s and 1850s Unlike the impersonal business correspondence that makes up most fur trade writings Dawson s letters are wonderfully human suffused with raw emotion Combining careful research with a compelling story the authors flesh out the forces that shaped Dawson s personality and the historical events he recorded Humanities, 1997 House Journal of the ... Legislative Assembly of the State of Montana Montana. Legislative Assembly. House, 1889 We the People : The Citizen & the Constitution, 2018-04-13 We the People The Citizen the Constitution teaches middle school students about civics government and active citizenship The textbook composed of 6 units and 30 lessons uses critical thinking exercises and cooperative learning strategies to teach the history and principles of American constitutional democracy Lessons include What were the British colonies in America like in the 1770s and What experiences led to the American Revolution We the People is aligned with the Common Core State Standards for Reading and Writing and the National Standards for Civics and Government A paper teacher s guide can be purchased from the Center for Civic Education We the People has been used by thousands of students nationwide since 1987 Recommended for grades 6 8 Copyright 2017 Center for Civic Education Montana ,2002 Helena Illustrated, Capital of the State of Montana Helena (Mont.).
