Meeting, 1998 California Mineral and Hot Springs Kim Charnofsky, 1989 California Mediterranean Marc Appleton, 2007 In the early 20th century architects designing houses for the balmy climate of Southern California were influenced by the style of the villas and palaces that dominated the architecture of Italy, France, Spain, Greece, and Morocco and a few other North African locales. The resulting style, noted for its pleasing combination of simplicity and dignity, for its often asymmetrical undecorated facades reflected romantic European forms and yet distinguished itself by adding American ingenuity. Prime examples of this include Villa Narcissa, widely celebrated for its unimposing grandeur, and Casa Leon with its stunning hillside location and ocean views. Included here are residences by noted architects such as Julia Morgan, Bertram Goodhue, Addison Mizner, George Washington Smith, Wallace Neff, and others. While some of the houses are lavishly decorated villas with lush landscaping, others are more spare creations. What all these interpretations of the California Mediterranean style have in common is an indoor-outdoor approach to living. The Californians, 1988 The Shorthorn World and Farm Magazine, 1920
