working class has until now hardly lived up to his hopes The Marxian concept of class rests on exclusion Only the pure doubly free wage workers are able to create value from a strategic perspective all other parts of the world s working populations are secondary But global labour history suggests that slaves and other unfree workers are an essential component of the capitalist economy What might a critique of the political economy of labour look like that critically reviews the experiences of the past five hundred years while moving beyond Eurocentrism In this volume twenty two authors offer their thoughts on this question both from a historical and theoretical perspective Contributors include Riccardo Bellofiore Sergio Bologna C George Caffentzis Silvia Federici Niklas Frykman Ferruccio Gambino Detlef Hartmann Max Henninger Thomas Kuczynski Marcel van der Linden Peter Linebaugh Ahlrich Meyer Maria Mies Jean Louis Prat Marcus Rediker Karl Heinz Roth Devi Sacchetto Subir Sinha Massimiliano Tomba Carlo Vercellone Peter Way Steve Wright

Colonialism and Capitalism: Canada's Origins

1500-1890 BRYAN D. PALMER,2024-09-17 In the past decade Canadian history has become a hotly contested subject Iconic figures notably Sir John A Macdonald are no longer unquestioned nation builders The narrative of two founding peoples has been set aside in favour of recognition of Indigenous nations whose lands were taken up by the incoming settlers An authoritative and widely respected Truth and Reconciliation Commission together with an honoured Chief Justice of the Supreme Court have both described long standing government policies and practices as cultural genocide Historians have researched and published a wide range of new research documenting the many complex threads comprising the Canadian experience As a leading historian of labour and social movements Bryan Palmer has been a major contributor to this literature In this first volume of a major new survey history of Canada he offers a narrative which is based on the recent and often specialized research and writing of his historian colleagues One major theme in this book is the colonial practices of the authorities as they pushed aside the original peoples of this country While the methods varied the result was opening up Canada s rich resources for exploitation by the incoming European settlers The second major theme is the role of capitalism in determining how those resources were exploited and who would reap the enormous power and wealth that accrued The first volume of this challenging and illuminating new survey history covers the period that concludes in the 1890s after the creation out of Britain s northern colonies of the semi autonomous federal Canadian state Volume II to be published in spring 2025 takes the narrative to the present

Coe, 2015-08-12 After long weeks of boring perhaps spoiled sea rations one of the first things Spaniards sought in the New World was undoubtedly fresh food Probably they found the local cuisine strange at first but soon they were sending American plants and animals around the world eventually enriching the cuisine of many cultures Drawing on original accounts by Europeans and native Americans this pioneering work offers the first detailed description of the cuisines of the Aztecs the Maya and the Inca Sophie Coe begins with the basic foodstuffs including maize potatoes beans peanuts squash avocados tomatoes chocolate and chiles and explores their early history and domestication She then describes how these foods were prepared served and preserved giving many insights into the cultural and ritual practices that surrounded eating in these cultures Coe also points out the similarities and differences among the three cuisines and compares them to Spanish cooking of the period which as she usefully reminds us would seem as foreign to our tastes as the American foods seemed to theirs Written in easily digested prose America's First Cuisines will appeal to food enthusiasts as well as scholars Book of the Fourth World Gordon Brotherston, 1995-11-24 The Book of the Fourth World offers detailed analyses of texts that range far back into the centuries of civilised life from what is now Latin and Anglo America At the time of its discovery the American continent was identified as the Fourth World of our planet In the course of just a few centuries its original inhabitants though settled there for millennia and countable in many millions have come to be perceived as a marginal if not entirely dispensable factor in the continent's destiny Today the term has been taken up again by its native peoples to describe their own world both its threatened present condition and its political history which stretches back thousands of years before Columbus In order to explore the literature of this world Brotherston uses primary sources that have traditionally been ignored because they have not conformed to Western definitions of oral and written literature such as the scrolls of the Algonkin the knotted strings Quipus of the Inca Navajo dry paintings and the encyclopedic pages of Meso America's screenfold books Red Round Globe Hot Burning Peter Linebaugh, 2019-03-26 On February 21 1803 Colonel Edward Ned Marcus Despard was publicly hanged and decapitated in London before a crowd of 20 000 for organizing a revolutionary conspiracy to overthrow King George III His black Caribbean wife Catherine Kate helped to write his gallows speech in which he proclaimed that he was a friend to the poor and oppressed He expressed trust that the principles of freedom of humanity and of justice will triumph over falsehood tyranny and delusion And yet the world turned From the connected events of the American French Haitian and failed Irish Revolutions to the Anthropocene's birth amidst enclosures war making global capitalism slave labor plantations and factory machine production Red Round Globe Hot Burning throws readers into the pivotal moment of the last two millennia This monumental history packed with a wealth of detail presents a comprehensive chronicle of the resistance to the demise of communal regimes Peter Linebaugh s extraordinary narrative recovers the death defying heroism of extended networks of underground resisters fighting against privatization of the commons accomplished by two new political entities the U S A and the U K that we now know would dispossess people around the world through today Red Round Globe Hot Burning is the culmination of a lifetime of research encapsulated through an epic tale of love Connecting People and Ideas Laura Coltofean,Bettina Arnold,László Bartosiewicz,2025-03-21 This book presents new research into social networks and the various networking modes that formed during the history of archaeology in distinct geographical settings in Europe North America and South Asia in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The diverse range of international experts in this edited collection demonstrate that networks can be found everywhere in archaeology making it a highly interconnected research field Using a wide array of examples from diverse geopolitical cultural and social contexts the volume reveals how essential social networks and networking have been to the development of archaeology to the production transfer exchange and dissemination of archaeological and cross disciplinary knowledge and to the formation upward mobility barrier transcendence research and association of archaeological practitioners The book is of interest to students and scholars of history of archaeology history of science museum studies and interdisciplinary studies The Aztecs ,1987 Southern Folklore Quarterly Alton Chester Morris,1951 Includes section Book reviews Select List of Materials Relating to American Studies National Library of Australia,1964 Handbook of Latin American Studies ,1953 Contains records describing books book chapters articles and conference papers published in the field of Latin American studies Coverage includes relevant books as well as over 800 social science and 550 humanities journals and volumes of conference proceedings Most records include abstracts with evaluations Remembrance of Repasts David E. Sutton,2001-01-09 Proust s famous madeleine captures the power of food to evoke some of our deepest memories Why does food hold such power What does the growing commodification and globalization of food mean for our capacity to store the past in our meals in the smell of olive oil or the taste of a fresh cut fig This book offers a theoretical account of the interrelationship of culture food and memory Sutton challenges and expands anthropology s current focus on issues of embodiment memory and material culture especially in relation to transnational migration and the flow of culture across borders and boundaries The Greek island of Kalymnos in the eastern Aegean where Islanders claim to remember meals long past both humble and spectacular provides the main setting for these issues as well as comparative materials drawn from England and the United States Despite the growing interest in anthropological accounts of food and in the cultural construction of memory the intersection of food with memory has not been accorded sustained examination Cultural practices of feasting and fasting global flows of food as both gifts and commodities the rise of processed food and the relationship of orally transmitted recipes to the vast market in speciality cookbooks tie traditional anthropological mainstays such as ritual exchange and death to more current concerns with structure and history cognition and the anthropology of the senses Arguing for the crucial role of a simultaneous consideration of food and memory this book significantly advances our understanding of cultural processes and reformulates current theoretical preoccupations This Country was Ours Virgil J. Vogel,1972 Numerous extracts from firsthand accounts and documents provide both Indian and white perspectives on the life styles white relations and tragic plight of the North American natives since the early European invasions Mexican Americans Frank Pino,1974 The Boundaries of Civilizations in Space and Time Matthew Melko,Leighton R.
