and access the Bible in two translations NKJV and ICB Clergy Moms Allison M. Moore, 2008 Walking the tightrope of home and parish life for clergy parents is notoriously difficult in all the mainline Protestant denominations but most books on ordination and vocation ignore the question of family life The ordination of women the prevalence of two career marriages the increasing need to care for aging family members and the recognition of non traditional families have shed new light on clergy family dynamics within the family and the church This book uses accounts of experiences gathered through interviews and surveys of clergy and their family members primarily in the Episcopal Diocese of Newark Its ultimate goal is to develop a holistic theology of vocation that has implications for the church the clergy and all families and nourishes and protects faith and family life Teaching Tenets of Faith in Worship James Akerson, 2019-04-02 Western culture no longer has a broad Christian understanding In fact much of what American media dishes out is pantheistic or anti religious Sociological research indicates that a multitude of beliefs have crept into Christian understandings of faith This situation is not new As early as the fifteenth century Erasmus asserted that the greatest concern of his time was that Christians were most often rank heathens when it came to their orthodoxy It is also apparent that attendance at Sunday school Vacation Bible School and other gatherings has fallen at a great rate The author believes providing Christian education in the context of worship is therefore the best opportunity for reaching believers with historical elements of faith A twenty four part lectionary based catechetical curriculum is provided for worship With it congregations can dwell in a sermon series that is surrounded by supportive full bodied worship Urban Youth in China Fengshu Liu, 2011-01-25 As both youth and the Internet hold the potential to inflict far reaching economic social cultural and political changes this book fulfills a pressing need for a systematical investigation of the lives of Chinese youth and the growth of the Internet against the backdrop of rapid and profound social transformation in China EJISE Volume 15 Issue 1 , Islamist Radicalisation in Europe Daniela Pisoiu, 2012-01-25

This book examines the Islamist radicalisation process in Europe developing a new theoretical model based on an empirical study of the evolution of Islamist radicals in their social environment The approach of this book is to examine how and under what conditions people choose to radicalise It focuses on the experience of radicalisation from the perspective of those who have undergone it The study is based on trial and court material along with an extensive number of interviews collected from many different European countries and this biographical approach is used to address individuals and the details of their social environment Overall the explanatory framework departs from the existing deterministic paradigm with grievances as causes also present in some psychological models and argues that radicalisation is a process much like occupational choice a rational choice made with social and ideational significance It addresses critically the assumption that because the result of the radicalisation process could be seen as abnormal the cause of it might be of a similar nature Parallels are drawn with other forms of extremism and European counter radicalisation policies are considered critically This book will be of great interest to students of terrorism studies and political violence political Islam social movements European politics and IR
