The lost heiress Emma Dorothy E. Nevitte Southworth,1855 Marco Visconti Tommaso Grossi,1881 The Hall that Waits Stephen Vernon,2025-09-14 The Hall That Waits Five seekers step into the ruins Only some will return When Caleb Lena Ethan Sarah and Marcus embark on their latest paranormal investigation they expect shadows and whispers cheap tricks that can be disproved What they find instead is a place that breathes malevolence the Hall Its corridors shift its silence gnaws and its horrors are never content to stay buried As sceptics clash with believers the group must battle not only what waits in the dark but also their own unraveling faith in one another Every door hides a choice every echo threatens betrayal and the deeper they descend the less certain escape becomes Because the Hall is not merely haunted The Hall is alive And it has been waiting The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond,2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels Debates and Proceedings in the New-York State Convention New York (State). Constitutional Convention,Sherman Crosswell,R. Sutton,1846 Murder in Coweta County Margaret Barnes,1983-03-02 In 1948 rural Georgia Coweta County is watched over by its legendary indomitable Sheriff Lamar Potts No felony had every gone unsolved while Sheriff Potts was in charge In the next county though there is a vast estate know as The Kingdom It s ruled by one man John Wallace whose power is absolute and beyond the law But when Wallace chases one of his underlings to deliver ruthless punishment he makes a critical mistake He crosses over into Coweta County A Waiting Race Yates,1872 Jean-Luc Godard's Political Filmmaking Irmgard Emmelhainz,2019-04-26 This book offers an examination of the political dimensions of a number of Jean Luc Godard s films from the 1960s to the present The author seeks to dispel the myth that Godard s work abandoned political questions after the 1970s and was limited to merely formal ones The book includes a discussion of militant filmmaking and Godard s little known films from the Dziga Vertov Group period which were made in collaboration with Jean Pierre Gorin The chapters present a thorough account of Godard s investigations on the issue of aesthetic political representation including his controversial juxtaposition of the Shoah and the Nakba Emmelhainz argues that the French director s oeuvre highlights contradictions between aesthetics and politics in a quest for a dialectical image By positing all of Godard s work as experiments in dialectical materialist filmmaking from Le Petit soldat 1963 to Adieu au langage 2014 the author brings attention to Godard's ongoing inquiry on the role filmmakers can have in progressive political engagement

A Waiting Race Edmund Hodgson Yates, 1872 My Mind Is Made of Crumbs Cannon, Joan, 2015-03-12 The poems in this collection were written over a period of nearly half a century. They look backward, observe the recent past and the present and include subjects that have little reference to history and chronology because they apply to all of life. Then Now and Whenever offer verbal pictures, autobiography, a bit of philosophy and a little humor in varied forms. The Green Bag, 1895 Includes index 1 v The History of Richard Potter, a Sailor, and Prisoner in Newgate, who was Tried ... and Received Sentence of Death for Attempting, at the Instigation of Another Sailor, to Receive Thirty-five Shillings of Prize-money Due to a Third Sailor. Containing an Account of His Being Convinced of Sin and Converted in the Cells of Newgate, ... Alexander Cruden, 1763 The Works of Charles Dickens: Barnaby Rudge Charles Dickens, 1868 The Works of Charles Dickens Charles Dickens, 1913 Surrey Chapel Music ... Benjamin Jacob, 1835 Crimes of Passion Since Shakespeare Adrian Howe, 2023-04-28 Bringing key Shakespeare texts into dialogue with feminist socio-legal research, this book investigates the notion of a crime of passion, indicatively wife killing. Its key concern is to bring attention to a cultural and legal revolution widely overlooked even in the law field where it occurred. In 2009 the English Parliament passed a controversial law abolishing the defence of provocation. Explaining the new law, reformers said that this so-called heat of passion defence had allowed men to get away with murder by blaming the victim. Abolishing it in cases of alleged infidelity would end the culture of excuses. Unpacking what was at stake in the reformers' revolutionary challenge to the English law of murder's age-old concession to human frailty in red mist rage cases, this book charts passion's progress in wife-killing cases over the centuries. It commences in the early modern era when jurists were busy distinguishing murder from manslaughter and contemporaneously Shakespeare set about querying culturally inscribed excuses for femicide in his plays Titus Andronicus and Othello. This book will appeal to feminist and socio-legal scholars, criminologists and those working in the fields of law and literature, legal theory and Shakespeare studies. More widely, it will appeal to anyone interested in so-called crimes of passion. Chambers's Edinburgh Journal, 1862 The Hangman's Scrapbook Neil R Storey, 2025-01-16 During his years as executioner between 1901 and 1924, John Ellis hanged over 200 men and women. Among them were some of the most infamous killers of the 20th century, including Dr Crippen, John Dickman, The Railway Murderer, George Smith, The Brides in the Bath murderer, Henry Jacoby, poisoners Frederick Seddon and Major Herbert Rowse. Armstrong Ellis also hanged Sir Roger Casement for treachery and carried out the execution of Edith Thompson, one of the most controversial hangings in the history of capital punishment. British executioners kept their own ledgers recording brief details of those they hanged. John Ellis maintained just such a ledger too, but he is believed to be the only British executioner to have kept an additional scrapbook of his personal accounts of those he executed and their crimes, and as such it is a unique volume in the annals of British crime and punishment. Rediscovered after being lost for decades, John Ellis' scrapbook and its cuttings manuscript texts and annotations have now been diligently transcribed and we can now read the book Ellis envisaged in his own words and in doing so we gain a remarkable insight into the life and executions one of Britain's most notable but least known hangmen Harlow's Weekly ,1922 Sir Roger L'Estrange George Kitchin,1913
